OF
Cash Box

August 15, 1964

Dear Friends:

The most significant development in the past year has unquestionably been the arrival of a "one-world" concept of the music and record industry.

Cash Box visualized this "one-world" concept several years ago. Some industry people agreed — most of them didn't — some even scoffed. However, our vision was clear, our thinking advanced, our convictions strong.

We went to work. We traveled the world. We set up offices and representatives. We invested time, editorial space and money.

With each succeeding year the international picture developed.

Now, in 1964, no longer does a record firm, music publisher or artist look to his revenue from only one country. Today, THE WORLD is his market.

Living proof is this 1964-1965 DIRECTORY ISSUE.

Cash Box is grateful for the opportunity to lead the way to added sales outlets throughout the world for our industry. We thank all our friends for making it possible.

■ Need those plates yesterday? Audio Matrix gives the industry's fastest service on masters, mothers and stampers—overnight (or faster) plating, not strike-offs, but full 3-step processing.

■ We use The Audiomatic Process® to produce the highest quality record plates in the shortest possible time. It's the new system that our engineers developed after fifteen years of day-to-day record plating.

■ We make higher fidelity molds that produce stampers that last longer and minimize press rejects and costly delays. Our stampers are precisely centered, meet specifications perfectly.

■ Try us on your next job. Our prices are as attractive as our service.

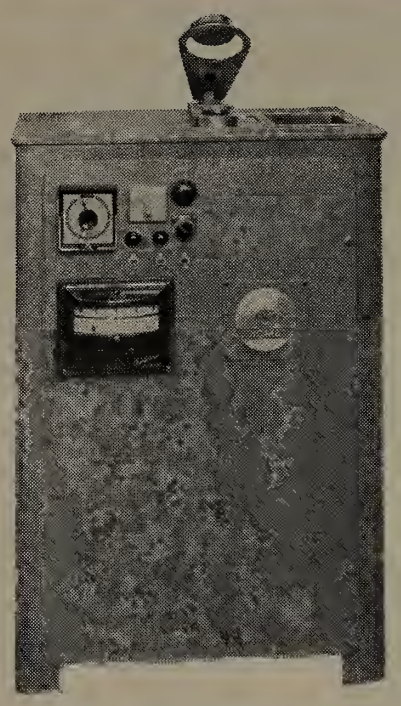
HEAVY DUTY HORIZONTAL EXTRUDER



CONSOLE MODEL EXTRUDER

AUDIOMATIC has never lost a customer

■ Nobody has ever bought another manufacturer's extruder after using an Audiomatic.*

■ Many of our customers have Audiomatic and Brand X compounders working side-by-side where they can compare performance day-by-day. In every case, when they've bought again, it's been Audiomatic!

■ Our extruders are rugged and versatile, built to work hard for years. They handle pure or filled material in any form—dry blend, pellets or granular. They extrude a neat round biscuit with a hole in the middle. There are no messy spaghetti strands. There's no wasted press time.

■ Our console model is an engineering beauty, less than three feet high. Our high capacity horizontal model is a real work horse that can serve two or more LP presses.

■ Call or write today for more information about the record industry's most modern and reliable extruders. Find out why they are the choice, again and again, of leading pressing plants on three continents.

Listen to this:

Since forming, Peter, Paul & Mary have played over 400 concerts before a total audience in excess of 2 million people. Now, Warner Brothers announces the release of the first Peter, Paul & Mary concert album. Ear-marked as a collector's item, this four-sided album is a composite collection of music, comedy material and audience response that captures the spirit, intensity and enthusiasm of a live Peter, Paul & Mary concert. It's their most important release to date.

Why take slow for an answer?

Capitol Custom takes the shortest possible time—while giving the highest possible quality—between lacquer mastering and finished product.

You never take slow for an answer.

Capitol has studios in Hollywood and New York City.

Pressing plants East and West, too. One of the world's largest in Scranton, Pa. The world's most modern in Los Angeles. If your distribution needs twin-coast production, lacquers can be produced in New York and Hollywood simultaneously to save time.

And you can be sure that the same strict quality control of a Capitol product is applied to your pressing as well.

That's why people who think twice before going on record use Capitol Custom Services. They've found they get the best of everything—high-speed service and quality sound. And they've found they pay no more—in fact, they often pay less—for the best!

The World's 4 best salesmen are coming back to sell Hohner Harmonicas!

Touring the United States from August 19th to September 20th.

This hotter-than-hot self mover from Hohner is going to hurry off your counter faster than tickets to a Beatle Concert! Kids have always loved harmonicas and now that the Beatles are blowing those sweet Hohner tunes, you're going to turn that love into a steady stream of EXTRA profits.

A "blister pack" combination designed for counter and rack display, each Beatle Package contains an especially designed 10-hole 20-reed harmonica that's similar to Hohner's world famed "Marine Band" model. This isn't a toy . . . it's a Hohner, which means that it's an outstanding musical instrument made by the best known company in the field. Also included are two of the Beatle's top song hits, a basic harmonica instruction chart and a signed photograph of that frantic foursome. The Beatles are making money for everybody. Put them to work for you!

COUNTRY ROUND UP

A busy month of one-nighters is ahead of George Jones and the Jones Boys according to Bob Neal of the Nashville-based talent stable that bears his name. After recently appearing on the big WGUN-Atlanta Sat. show, Jones and the band are set for a fair in Tompkinsville, Kentucky then jump into Ontario for six days in Chathman, Sarnia, Weilland, Belleville, Kingston, and Brockville. George then scoots back to Texas for some prior engagements winding up in Albuquerque, New Mexico on the 22nd. Then it's back to Canada starting on the 24th at Ft. Williams with a series of dates in central Canada. The Canadian dates were set by Neal in cooperation with Lucky Moeller of Denny-Moeller Talent.

John Eustace, program director of WTID-Newport News, sends along word that Sonny James was on hand last week to help the station celebrate its first anniversary as an all-country outlet. An all afternoon and evening show was staged from one of the area's largest mobile home lots. Admission was free and the proceeding were broadcast live. Supporting Sonny was the outlet's Gus Thomas and his band, Salem's Carolina Buddies and many others.

Johnny Sea recently headed out to California, where he'll be spending the rest of the month working a series of key one-nighters. The chanter comes back east by way of Albuquerque and then into a club appearance in Milwaukee in early Sept.

Ray Nicklay, program director of KRSD-Rapid City, South Dakota's only twenty-four hour a day country station, sends out an urgent s.o.s. for the new c&w decks.

Lucky Lee Enterprises, sponsored by Larry Stevens of Stevens-Norton, in Seattle, is building a giant country music jubilee spot in the northwest. It is expected that the club will be open during the middle part of August, to coincide with the release of Lucky's first Decca release, "You Don't Care For Me" b/w "Too Many Times." The organization will be working in conjunction with country radio and TV stations in the northwest. They'll be bringing in a number of Grand Ole Opry artists frequently to appear.

Loretta Lynn is on the road again. This out the Decca chirp will be appearing in Houston, Texas; Gainsville, Ga.; Belle, Mo,; and White River, Vermont.

Willie Rodgers infos that KILL-Lubbock, an all-country outlet, recently celebrated their sixth anniversary with two big free shows and an all-day broadcast from McKensie State Park in Lubbock. Jimmy "C" Newman was on hand to add his talents to the festivities.

Smokey Rogers, well-known country music entertainer-composer-deejay, will depart his hometown of San Diego shortly to begin a three month tour of the Far East. The popular Rogers, a mainstay of the highly-regarded KSON-San Diego deejay staff, will carry the outlet's banner and c&w music to such far away lands as Malaya, Okinawa, the Philippines, Hong Kong, China and Japan.

Another WCMS-Norfolk radio ranch promotion slated for August 23, will feature Johnny Cash, the Statler Brothers, June Carter, Don Reno, Red Smiley and the Tennessee Cut-Ups. George A. Crump, producer of the show and president of the outlet, has announced that all proceeds from the event will go to charities supported by the Norfolk, Portsmouth and Virginia Beach Kiwanis clubs. Two shows are scheduled for 2:00 and 8:00 PM in the Municipal Auditorium in Norfolk. Emcee chores will be handled by the Four Horsemen of the WCMS: "Carolina" Charlie Wiggs, "Hopalog" Joe Hoppel, "Travelin'" Jesse Travers and Sheriff "Tex" Davis.

Loretta Lynn

Howard Vokes

Dave Dudley is in Nashville looking for a farm with plans to move into the Music City this fall. He goes to Kansas City next week for a 4-day engagement at the Chestnut Inn, then to Louisiana and Texas for a string of one-nighters.

Judy Lynn and her eight-piece band will be an extra added attraction at the 1965 Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo. Dates of the show are Jan. 29-Feb. 7. Lark will be coming to Nashville the latter part of this month to cut a new album for United Artist.

This year's third quarterly CMA Board of Directors meeting will take place August 6 and 7 at the Inn On The Oark in Toronto, Canada. In connection with the meeting, the association will present a program of country music to the Canadian Radio and Television Executives Club at the Park Plaza Hotel on August 6. Main speaker for the event will be Connie B. Gay.

Darrel Byron, program director of WHYE-Roanoke, the city's only full-time country station, sends out an urgent s. o. s. for better record service.

Tompall Glaser, who was the recent victim of a car thief, was again the target of a thief. This time a dressing room prowler lifted his wallet while he was on stage in Panama City, Florida.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

FORBIDDEN STREET (2:25)
[Troy BMI—Jay]

WHEN THE DOOR SWINGS SHUT (2:22)
[Novachaminjo & Pearl D BMI—Mann]

CARL BUTLER & PEARL (Columbia 43102)

Carl and Pearl, who are still catching-coin with "I'm Hanging Up The Phone," come up with a potent follow-up stanza with this new two-sided Columbia release. One lid, "Forbidden Street," is an easy-going bluegrass-styled weeper about the evils of illicit temptation. The other side, "When The Door Swings Shut," is a lively, rhythmic shuffle-beat happy-blueser rendered in a sincere, emotion-filled style by the duo. Eye 'em both.

IN THE MIDDLE OF A MEMORY (2:12) [4 Star BMI—Belew, Pitts]

CHEATERS NEVER PROSPER (2:01) [4 Star BMI—Knight]

CARL BELEW (RCA Victor 8406)

The vet hit-maker comes up with another sure-fire success candidate with this power-packed Victor entry called "In The Middle Of A Memory." The tune is an easy-going, chorus-backed lament about the blindness of love with a warm south-of-the-bordish flavor. The undercut, "Cheaters Never Prosper," is a lively, uptempo high-spirited romancer read with loads of polish and authority by Belew.

IF YOU DON'T LOVE ME (1:51) [Peach SESAC—Moore]

MOTHER-IN-LAW (1:53) [Peach SESAC—Casper]

JIM NESBITT (Chart 1100)

Jim Nesbitt, who skyrocketed up the charts last time out with "Looking For More In '64," seems destined to repeat that success with this potent follow-up stanza tagged "If You Don't Love Me." The tune is a hard-shufflin' rhythmic opus all about an unfortunate guy who can't find out if the gal of his dreams digs him or not. The flip, "Mother-In-Law," is a pulsating, raunchy novelty which should garner plenty of spins.

LONESOME JAILHOUSE BLUES (2:12) [Starday BMI—Maphis]

HOT ROD GUITAR (1:58) [Starday BMI—Bond, Maphis]

JOE MAPHIS (Starday 683)

Joe Maphis has enough things going for himself with this new Starday release to zoom up the charts in no time flat. The top side here, "Lonesome Jailhouse Blues," is an extremely fast-moving hard-driving country-blueser with a contagious honky tonk beat. The flip, "Hot Rod Guitar," is a quick-paced novelty instrumental which aptly showcases Maphis' fine guitar style. Also merits a close look.

EVERYTHING'S OK ON THE LBJ (2:23) [Western Hill BMI—Williams]

DON'T LOOK DOWN (2:21) [Western Hill BMI—Williams]

LAWTON WILLIAMS (RCA Victor 8407)

Lawton Williams is a cinch to create plenty of sales excitement with this new hitsville-loomer tagged "Everything's OK On The LBJ." The tune is a rousing, chorus-backed affair which proclaims the numerous benefits of life on the President's ranch in the Lone Star State. "Don't Look Down" is a tender, slow-moving, shufflin' tear-jerker about a guy in love with a gal from the wrong side of the tracks. Side boasts a moving mid-deck recitation.

JUST TO SATISFY YOU (2:10)
[Irving & Parody BMI—Jennings, Bowman]

FOUR STRONG WINDS (2:39) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Tyson]

WAYLON JENNINGS (A&M 739)

Newcomer Waylon Jennings can quickly make a national name for himself on the basis of this ultracommercial A&M outing labeled "Just To Satisfy You." The song is a medium-paced, shufflin' tear-jerker about a fellow whose gal has impossible standards. Side boasts some effective gimmick, whip-like sound effects. The undercut, "Four Strong Winds," the oft-cut folk affair, is given a moving feelingful reading by the chanter.

COUNTRY REVIEWS

Cash Box

B+ very good

ROY ACUFF (Hickory 1271)

(B+) DO YOU WONDER WHY (2:55) [Acuff-Rose BMI — Acuff] The vet country artist unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this tender, medium-paced bluegrass-flavored sentimental tearjerker. Plenty of potential here.

(B+) THINGS MIGHT HAVE BEEN (2:20) [Leeds ASCAP —Miller] More fine country sounds. This one's a slow-moving romantic ballad essayed with loads of poise and authority by Acuff.

ONIE WHEELER (United Artists 753)

(B+) STUBBORN HEART (2:16) [Glad BMI — Wheeler] Newcomer Onie Wheeler could very well have a hit on his hands with this slow-shufflin' lament about a fellow who can't seem to get used to the idea that his gal doesn't love him.

(B+) WHO WROTE THAT SONG (2:40) [Glad BMI—Wheeler] Another top-flight side. This lid's a self-penned twangy-hearted romancer essayed with winning verve and poise by the songster.

ADRIAN ROLAND (Starday 684)

(B+) EXACTLY LIKE HIM (2:40) [Starday BMI—Roland] Adrian Roland can create a stir with this blue-ribbon slow-moving, shuffle-beat, bluegrass-styled lament about a guy who is losing his personality because of a romantic situation. Side's a natural for airplay.

(B) TOC TIC (2:40) [Starday BMI—Roland] This time out the chanter offers an infectious yet feelingful traditional tale of woe. Also merits a close look.

CLAY ALLEN (Longhorn 547)

(B) ONE TOO MANY (2:28) [Saran BMI — Allen] Clay Allen unleashes his potent wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this lively, high-spirited rhythmic tale about a guy who just can't seem to resist the evils of that ole bottle. Plenty of potential.

(B) I'M CHANGING THE NUMBERS ON MY TELEPHONE (2:25) [Saran BMI—Allen] On this end the songster offers a plaintive shufflin' affair on a familiar theme of heartbreak.

DAVIS BROS. (Lynne 105)

(B) THIS WORKING FOR A LIVING'S GOT TO CEASE (2:41) [Seven Palms BMI — Davis] The Davis Brothers should get plenty of spins with this effective, hard-driving novelty all about the trials and tribulations of living in a capitalistic society.

(C+) I DON'T HEAR YOU (2:15) [Seven Palms BMI] Slow-moving, tradition-oriented hillbilly lament. OK chanting.

KENNY ROBERTS (Kingston 441)

(C+) A JINGLE YODELING SONG (2:44) [Becks BMI—Speca, Long] Pleasant medium-paced happy-go-lucky ditty which showcases the chanter's infectious yodelin' style. Worthy of spins.

(C+) YOU'RE THINKING RIGHT (2:29) [Becks BMI—Ferraro, Long] On this end Roberts dishes-up a tender, slow-moving traditional country lament.

JAMES O'GWYNN (United Artists 755)

(B+) HEART STORM (2:39) [Glad BMI—Stover] James O'Gwynn can quickly get back in his money-making ways with this first-rate chorus-backed medium-paced bluegrass-flavored opus all about the problems of romantic situations. Eye it closely.

(B+) GENEVIEVE (2:16) [Glad BMI — Gwynn] Another fine side. This time the songster offers a warm-hearted shufflin' tribute to the gal of his dreams with a catchy rhythmic beat.

GENE BYRD & JOAN JOHNSON (Sims 191)

(B+) YOUR CHEATING MIND (2:01) [English BMI—Byrd] Deejays and consumers alike should really dig this quick-paced, rhythmic teaming-up on a fine heart-tugging romantic theme. Side boasts some slick lyrics and top-flight listenable beat.

(B+) THE HANDS OF FATE (2:20) [Howl BMI — Byrd] On this end the duo dishes-up a pretty, slow-moving traditional lament with a warm south-of-the-borderish flavor.

WAYNE COCHRAN (King 5856)

(B+) LAST KISS (2:25) [Boblo Cochran] Wayne Cochran could well create a sales stir with this top-notch medium-paced, shuffle-beat, chorus-backed tragedy about an unfortunate guy whose gal dies in an auto wreck. Eye it closely.

(B) I DREAMED, I GAMBLED, I LOST (2:12) [Boblo BMI—Cochran] This one's a contagious, chorus-backed tear-jerker in the tradition-based country vein.

WALLY NIX (Glenn 306)

(B) LOVELIFE NUMBER TWO (2:14) [MacArthur BMI — Stonebarger] Wally Nix is in top-drawer form on this fast-moving, bluegrass-styled opus of romantic rejection. Side boasts some real fancy fiddle work. Plenty of spinners should dig it.

(C) TEN STEPS (1:55) [MacArthur BMI — Stonebarger, MacArthur] Extremely slow-moving shuffle-beat, chorus-backed hillbilly weeper.

JIM WITLOCK (Hillcrest 1806)

(B) TALK TO ME OLE TELEPHONE (2:40) [Little Bill & Witlock BMI—Witlock, White] Jim Witlock, the "Singing Cherokee" of KBUB fame, is out to please his fans with this easy-going western-styled traditional tale of heartbreak. Watch it.

(C+) S.O.S. (2:15) [Little Bill & Eight Ball & Witlock BMI—Dee] On this side the artist-deejay dishes-up an appealing opus with an interesting rapidly-changing beat.

CARL McDONALD (JB 1000)

(C+) WON'T YOU TRY ME TONIGHT [Brown Leaf BMI—McDonald] Carl McDonald displays a pleasing rich vocal on this nostalgic, shufflin' funky tradition-oriented weeper. A nice showing.

(C+) I WONDER IF YOU'LL MISS ME [Brown Leaf BMI —McDonald] Easy-going tale of woe read with authority and sincerity by the songster.

Buck Owens Sweeps CB's 1964 Country D.J. Poll

NEW YORK—There can no longer be any doubt about the standing of Buck Owens in the country music field. On the basis of Cash Box' 1964 C&W deejay poll, the Capitol songster took top honors in three key categories. The nation's platter spinners voted Owens' single, "Love's Gonna Live Here," the most programmed record of the year; ditto for his album, "Buck Owens On The Bandstand." As an obvious further vote of confidence the artist was given the nod as the programmed male vocalist of the year.

Although the Texan dominated this year's survey, there were, of course, other winners. Among those other artists who will receive special CB plaques at the Nov. Country Music Festival were: Loretta Lynn (Decca); Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs (Columbia); Hank Thompson (Capitol); Chet Atkins (RCA Victor); Ernest Ashworth (Hickory); Norma Jean (RCA Victor); and Pete Drake (Smash).

Another "Key" Talent

Ron Holloway infos word that he has exited his air niche on KVOX-Moorehead, Minnesota to assume a similar position on KATA-Arcata, California, where he will be holding down a daily country show. Ron also notes that he is short records, both old and new. He would appreciate it that the decks should be sent to him in care of the station.

Sam Short, topper of Del-Ray, offers deejay samples on Billy Wallace's "Honky Tonky Row" and Howard Vokes. Interested spinners should write to the label at 4 Center St., Harrington, Delaware, on station letterheads.

Claude King is back in the Music City from Las Vegas where he appeared at the Columbia sales confab. In the coming weeks the songster will be on the road (he's scheduled for dates in Austin, Dallas, Baltimore and Shreveport) plugging his new release of "Sam Hill."

"The highlight of HILDEGARDE's performance was a "think" piece that stilled the audience in reverent silence.

This is "Peace and Harmony," fresh from the New York World's Fair and just waxed on 45 rpm by Hildegarde. It is gorgeous in musical texture and stirring in lyrics.

On first hearing it gives the same spiritual impact as "God Bless America" did when it came on the scene some decades ago."

MUSIC EXPLOITATION SELLS FILMS & 'MORE'

by Edward B. Marks Music

Music a Plus For "Mondo Cane"

Times Film's Italo documentary, "Mondo Cane" looks to play between 6,000 and 7,000 domestic U.S. play-dates, according to Times general sales manager Irving Sochin.

"A major factor in the success," says Sochin, "is the fact that music from the film has caught on in a big way." The original sound-track score, on the United Artists label, is now on the best-seller lists, in addition to which a single called "More," is also hitting it big . . .

SESAC Expands International Activities

Extensive expansion in promoting its copyrighted repertory has been the keynote during the past year at SESAC, America's second oldest music rights organization.

The firm has now secured representation agreements with foreign rights societies in virtually every corner of the globe. Completion of negotiations with ACUM for mechanical and performing rights in Israel and with SIAE and STEF for performing rights in Italy and Iceland respectively, recently increased the list of organizations previously signed to represent SESAC's performance/mechanical/synchronization rights overseas.

Augmented sub-publisher agreements with representatives in principal music centers such as—London, Brussels, Milan, Berlin, Tokyo, Sidney, Paris, Stockholm, Buenos Aires, Amsterdam, among others, have substantially increased the number of SESAC copyrights on foreign recording releases and the number of SESAC compositions heard on worldwide broadcasting outlets. In addition, direct foreign recording agreements were made with the W & G Record Processing Company, Billy Taylor Trio and Singing Speers decks in the territories of Australia and New Zealand, and with Grabaciones Belart S. A. for disks by the Mozarteum Orchestra, the Billy Taylor Trio and the San Remo Orchestra in Mexico.

Through regular sales, albums from the SESAC RECORDINGS Library have also been programmed steadily in major broadcasting facilities throughout the world such as the BBC in England, CBC in Canada, and Sveriges, the Swedish Broadcasting Corp. Other territories covered run the gamut from the West Indies to the Isle of Mann, Berlin to Okinawa and Australia to Mexico. The 45 rpm "repertory recordings", (samples from the SESAC RECORDINGS LPs), a gratis service provided by SESAC, have been widely distributed in Europe, the Far East and throughout major broadcasting centers.

SESAC also represents an important segment of foreign music in the United States—including the rights of the entire Polish repertory, a broad segment of Israeli music and continental publishing houses. Through its branch offices in Nashville and its home office at 10 Columbus Circle in New York, SESAC will greatly extend its plans for continued overseas activities during the coming year.

In the United States and throughout the world through agreements with major mechanical and performing rights organizations, SESAC, America's second oldest music rights organization, licenses the performance, mechanical or synchronization rights in a repertory of distinction to the entire entertainment industry. The diversity of music in the SESAC repertory is a constantly growing source for sub-publishers overseas, world-wide radio and TV facilities and international recording artists. Increasing this repertory and enlarging its publisher representation is all part of a continual program of expansion.

"Hi, Sweetie; this is Peter Perfect from Cash Box. Is Mr. Heartless in?"

"Hold on, please . . . Perfect on seven-three, Harry."
"That figures. OK . . . I'll take it . . . Hello!"

"Harry! Haven't spoken to ya' in months, ya' sonnavagun!"

A series of block parties featuring in-person street appearances by popular music recording stars, radio personalities, dancing in the streets and free refreshments will be staged by WINS-New York in key neighborhoods during the month in cooperation with the Police Athletic League. According to Joel Chaseman, general manager of the station, "WINS is glad to bring in-person entertainment directly to neighborhoods. We hope these efforts will help relieve some of the tensions which exist in New York. We expect to expand this pilot project with the cooperation of PAL." The block party project is under the supervision of Gerald M. Goldberg, the outlet's director of special projects.

Crowell Collier Broadcasting Corp. stations KFWB-Los Angeles and KEWB-San Francisco officially opened Miss Teenage America promotions in their respective cities last week. In the San Francisco market, KEWB is conducting a Miss Teenage San Francisco Search in conjunction with Gallenkamp Shoe Stores and the California Dairy Council. Selection of Miss Teenager San Francisco is set for Oct. 11 and the station plans to televise the pageant as they did last year. Los Angeles' KFWB is running a Miss Teenage Los Angeles contest, with the Thom McAn Shoe Company as a local sponsor. By Sept. 18, twelve semi-finalists will have been chosen and their photos posted in Thom McAn outlets. L. A. citizens will be asked to vote for their favorites, with the vote eliminating six Miss Teenage Los Angeles on Oct. 19, with the pageant set for broadcast on local TV.

CHUM-Toronto, the first radio station to introduce the modern hit parade format to Canadian radio, is now the only Toronto outlet featuring around the clock popular music. Recent program changes at the Westinghouse-owned CKEY have produced a soft albums-and-singles sound from midnight to 6:00 PM. CKEY has also discontinued publication of the hit parade survey sheet. The station features consistent hit parade music on all deejay shifts with the exception of the 10:00 PM to midnight block week nights—a two hour audience participation telephone show, "Speak Your Mind." CHUM will soon increase its power from 5,000 to 50,000 watts day and night.

WHOL-Akron's Good Guys are playing Santa right in the middle of summer for the needy children in Northeastern Ohio's Childrens Home. The deejays asked for rag dolls to be dropped off at their studio. Response was fantastic. Kids organized pajama parties and made old-fashioned rag dolls. A local dairy even offered their routemen and trucks to the station to pick up dolls in an eight-county area of the state. The Salvation Army reconditioned those which needed repair. Later, the Good Guys will personally visit the Childrens Home to distribute the gifts.

WWDC-Washington is providing complete 24-hour vote registration information to residents of the tri-state area which makes the greater Washington metropolitan area. Simply by phoning a D. C. number, prospective voters will be able to obtain up-to-date information 24-hours a day. The station will not only provide this complete rundown for voters but will update it at all times and keep it current.

WCBM-Baltimore recently moved its entire radio operation from the Sears Roebuck Community House to 2610 North Charles St. Three vans and a crew of about ten completed the move in a little over 12 hours. The move climaxed nearly a year of construction work on the interior of the new location, which in addition to studios and offices, boasts a full kitchen, conference room, and storage areas. The outlet's executives and department heads, who worked with the movers throughout the night, considered the move "most successful" since no interruption to broadcast service occurred. The official opening and dedication ceremonies will be held following exterior construction work on the building, which is expected to be completed early next year.

A very unusual contest conducted by WJRZ-Newark's morning clown, Gene Stuart, is giving listeners an opportunity to exercise their ESP abilities. Every morning, Gene plays an 8 x 10 glossy baby photograph of a Hollywood star in front of a special ESP microphone. The audience is then asked to "look into" their radios and identify the star as an adult. The first person calling in the correct answer wins the daily prize. Listeners in cars are asked to pull over to the side of the road before playing the game. For those whose ESP quotient is low, Gene does provide one or two vague clues.

Johnny Canton, of WHAM-Rochester, sends along word that the station recently held its annual family picnic. One of the highlights was rides on Lake Ontario in the station's Amphicar. This boat-car is a German-made vehicle designed to travel either on land or water and can go from one to the other simply by pushing a button. The eye-stopping boat-car will be given away by WHAM in an upcoming contest. The contest will center around the car.

KLWW-Cedar Rapids' Tom Jordan infos word that the station has recently started a policy of airing oldies. Tom sez their supply is limited, however, and they are in great need of platters from around '60, '61 and early '62. All decks should be sent to KLWW at 1225 First Avenue S. E., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

KHJ-Hollywood-TV is out to make television history again on the night of Aug. 19 when it will present its third complete Hollywood Bowl Show. Program starts at 8:00 PM. and will run until completion with Maurice Abravanel conducting the Hollywood Bowl Symphony orchestra in "An Evening Of Opera." A previous Bowl show won an Emmy for the station. The program, to be taped from the actual Aug. 6 Bowl Concert, will be gigantic in scope. Nine cameras—two more than last year—will be utilized with a full crew working more than a week in advance, setting up technical details, under the guidance of executive producer Wally Sherwin.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Mort Crowley, formerly a deejay on KHJ-Hollywood, is holding down similar duties on WDGY-Minneapolis. . . . Jack Raymond is now spinning 'em on WYLO-Milwaukee. . . . Dick Eller given the nod as a WFLA-Tampa platter spinner. . . . Bill "Wee Willie" Winters is a new air personality on WQAM-Miami. . . . Robert Vaughn is now associated with the WIP-Philadelphia news department.

Pick of the Week

DANCING IN THE STREET (2:37) [Jobete BMI—Sevenson, Gaye]
THERE HE IS (At My Door) (2:30) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Gorman]
MARTHA & THE VANDELLAS (Gordy 7033)

Chart mainstays have hit the teen mark again with "Dancing In The Street," an infectious romp that drops names of various locales as it declares that dancing is sweeping the country. One of those sure-fire sock-rock productions. Gals are up to more serious business in the active rock-a-cha session called "There He Is."

ONE SONG (2:05) [Bourne ASCAP—Morey, Churchill]
SINCERELY (2:36) [Regent BMI—Fuqua, Freed]
THE FOUR SEASONS (Vee Jay 608)

Vee Jay continues to supply standout tracks from its former association with the hot rocksters. Following-up on the label's "Alone" stand is a two-sided winner, one an all-out hectic Four Seasons view of "One Song," from the score of Walt Disney's classic, "Snow White & The Seven Dwarfs." Boys are calm and collected on "Sincerely," a true teen evergreen.

FOLLOW THE RAINBOW (2:15) [Ironmarch BMI—Harris]
ARE YOU A FOOL LIKE ME? [Ironmarch BMI—Paternoster]
TERRY STAFFORD (Crusader 109)

The Top 100 will have to make further room for Stafford, whose last two efforts, "Suspicion" and "I'll Touch A Star," were recent chart stories. Portion of note here is "Follow The Rainbow," a catchy affectionate which receives a brisk, Latinish touch from the artist and his backing. More soulful survey on the coupler.

UNTIL YOU WERE GONE [Hill & Range BMI—Byers]
IT HURTS TO BE IN LOVE [R-T BMI—Toomes, Dixon]
BETTY EVERETT (Vee Jay 610)

Betty Everett could recapture some of her "Shoop Shoop" success with this pulsating, hip-swinging beat-ballad throbber tabbed, "Until You Were Gone." The lark musters up plenty of soul in the best r&b tradition and the uncluttered treatment could lead to pop sales as well. The reverse is an easy-paced free swinging rhythm ballad with a vibrant instrumental backdrop that the chirp wails in a convincing manner. Both ends could step out smartly.

SOFTLY, AS I LEAVE YOU (2:35) [Miller ASCAP—Calabrese, DeVita, Harris]
THEN SUDDENLY LOVE (2:15) [Bourne ASCAP—Vance, Alfred]
FRANK SINATRA (Reprise 0301)

Frank Sinatra's inimitable handling of a beautiful ballad is again much in evidence on this melody-laden goodie tagged, "Softly, As I Leave You." The singer's deft phrasing is masterful and enhancing. Mixed chorus and Ernie Freeman-led ork is a subtle complement. "Then Suddenly Love" is a sophisticated enticer the songster dishes up in expected vibrant fashion. Both are top programming tracks with superior sales sure to follow.

CANDY TO ME (2:22) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland]
IF YOU DON'T WANT MY LOVE (2:34) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland]
EDDIE HOLLAND (Motown 1063)

A good-natured blues ditty, "Candy To Me," seems to be Holland's latest vehicle for a chart showing. Appeal of the number is tied-up with a breezy, handclappin' beat tailor-made for dance-floor activity. Soulful expression on the undercut.

HUMBUG (2:00) [Two Beat BMI—Fountain, Dant]
THE HONEY-WIND BLOWS (2:37) [Appleseed ASCAP—Hellerman, Minkoff]
PETE FOUNTAIN (Coral 62427]

Pete Fountain and a Charles "Bud" Dant-led ork and chorus come up with a rollicking Dixie-flavored stanza dubbed "Humbug," as a follow-up to the clarinetist's recent "Licorice Stick" sales giant. This one also could go the same success route. The flip's a slice from Fountain's new Decca LP tagged after the last click single. Both ends offer top listening and dancing enjoyment and are prime choices for the ops. "Humbug" has the edge, however.

WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND (2:55) [Metric BMI—Decaro]
DEED I DO (2:24) [Laurel ASCAP—Rose, Hirsch]
MEL CARTER (Imperial 66052)

Mel Carter, who scored a disk click about a year ago with "When A Boy Falls In Love" on another label, should do even better with this haunting and infectious bluesy ballad dubbed, "What's On Your Mind." A highly polished delivery is coupled with a first-rate tune and arrangement. The songster wails potently on a Latin-flavored opus with gospel overtones on the exciting flip. Eye both of these for rapid acceptance.

Pick of the Week

LOVERS ALWAYS FORGIVE (2:36) [Maxx BMI—McCoy]
ANOTHER LOVE (2:42) [Jim Glad BMI—Knight, Newman]
GLADYS KNIGHT & THE PIPS (Maxx 329)

Gladys Knight and the Pips, who just had a solid r&b-pop chart-rider in "Giving Up," may have another winner on their hands with this newie in the same vein tabbed, "Lovers Always Forgive." It's a quality slow-blues affair that should get dual-market action. The reverse is an infectious uptempo rhythm tune the teen dance crowd will like. Brisk sales can be expected.

(Say I Love You) DOO BEE DUM (2:19) [Seventh Avenue BMI—Tudanger, Di Benedetto]
EVERLASTING (2:17) [Seventh Avenue & Kusada BMI—Adams, Kusik, Kasha]
THE FOUR-EVERS (Smash 1921)

Rocksters have come upon a dandy sound in "Doo Bee Dum" to realize their second chart showing, the first being the recent "Be My Girl." Date is a colorful stomper, with high-pitched vocal stanzas as part of the 4 Seasons-like excitement. Flip has speedy-beat color which doesn't hide a pretty teen-affectionate opus.

Newcomer Picks

SOCIETY GIRL (2:31) [Saturday ASCAP—Crewe, Linzer, Randell]
RAGEN [Saturday ASCAP—Crewe, Linzer, Randell]
THE RAG DOLLS (Parkway 921)

The Rag Dolls, who are obviously named after the current Four Seasons chart-topper, since their style is quite similar, can have their own smash in this female sequel bow on Parkway. It's a captivating, Calello-arranged slow rock-a-cha-cha-like affair, tabbed "Society Girl," that's sure to make the teeners sit up and take notice. Coupler's a pretty bossa nova-styled all-instrumental version of the top half.

LITTLE LONELY SUMMER GIRL (2:10) [Tyco-Eastwick BMI—Box, Pike]
NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW (2:20) [Milene ASCAP—Rose, Foree]
DAVID BOX (Joed 116)

Singer Box could have a mid-summer teen triumph with an exciting wrap-up—in somewhat Buddy Hollyish fashion—of a strong number called "Little Lonely Summer Girl." Warbler's potent vocal is backed by a full ork, highlighted by wildly galloping scoring. Flip is the oldie done with a heartfelt teen expression.

Animals

The Animals, who are presently riding up the charts with their debut, U. S. recording of "The House Of The Rising Sun" on MGM, consist of Alan Price (electric organ), Bryan Chandler (bass guitar), Hilton Valentine (lead guitar), Eric Burdon (vocals) and John Steel (drums).

The group's success all started with the fans. They were hammering out r&b items in Newcastle-upon-Tyne clubs under the modest name of the Alan Price Combo, when they heard the audience talking about "The Animals." It was, they realized eventually, a reference to themselves—a name which they decided to adopt.

In Newcastle the group became a cult, with a fan following as feverent as the Beatles acquired in Liverpool. To be in the fashion young girls carry large straw bags with "The Animals" written on them.

But the most impressive demonstration of fan-worship came with the making of a demo disk. Their followers found out about it and snapped up 500 copies at $2.38 apiece.

That same demo disk was brought to London by their manager who played it for agents and bookers and secured them enough work for them to make the South in Jan., 1964. They are now full-time London residents and pack 'em wherever they play.

Chartbusters

The Chartbusters (Johnny Dubas, Veron Sandusky and Vince Gedon), who are currently zooming up the Top 100 with "She's The One" on Mutual, have been performing together for the last four years. For the main, they were a back-up group for such artists as Gary (U.S.) Bonds, Clarence Henry, Dave Cortez, the Caddilacs, Wanda Jackson, Big Al Downing, etc.

It was while they were appearing with Big Al in Washington, D. C. that they were spotted by Al's personal manager, Bobby Poe, who also happened to be an Indie producer. Bobby liked the group and inked them to a recording and management contract.

Almost immediately they were rushed into a session where "She's The One" was recorded. Poe then took the master to Mutual Records and the results are history. At the present the group is again on tour, however, this time they are the headliners instead of the back-up crew.

Victor To Cut "Fiddler"

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records will record the original-cast LP of "Fiddler On The Roof," the musical version of Sholem Aleichem's "Tevye" stories. With a score by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, the show opens on Broadway on Sept. 22, qualifying as the first new musical of the 1964-65 season. It stars Zero Mostel, who got rave reviews for his last Broadway assignment, "A Funny Thing . . ." Plans are to record the show Sept. 27, under the supervision of George Marek, Victor's vp and general manager.

Jerome Robbins is staging the show and doing its choreography. This is the first time that a Bock and Harnick show has been cut by Victor. Their previous efforts have been recorded by Capitol ("Fiorello!" and "Tenderloin") and MGM ("She Loves Me") and Columbia (several songs for the World's Fair musical, "To Broadway With Love").

Victor's big cast LP last season (and still going strong) was "Hello, Dolly!"

Impala-Delsey Announces New Personnel Assignments

PHILADELPHIA — Fran Williamson, Impala-Delsey Records prexy, has announced the following changes in personnel and assignments:

Richard Doersch has become general manager, John Bowie and Robert Lewis head A&R, and Williamson heads sales. The labels are distributed nationally by Jamie/Guyden. The firm, quartered at 808 N. Broad St., recently purchased the assets of Chancellor Records.

New WB-Reprise LP's Make Combined Debut At Compo In Canada

BURBANK, CALIF. — The Compo Company of Canada recently played host to Mike Maitland, president of Warner Bros. Records, and Mo Ostin, general manager of Reprise Records, in the first combined presentation of the WB and Reprise product to the Canadian licensee.

Phil Rose, representing Compo, hosted the meet, which saw the entire Compo field force convening in the company's Montreal headquarters of Canada.

WB, long affiliated with Compo, is being joined in its Canadian affiliation by Reprise for the first time this Fall.

Highlight of the convention meet was the presentation of Reprise and WB Aug.-Sept. album product. Rose attended the Warner-Reprise convention in Las Vegas, at which time he previewed the product along with the company's U.S. distribs.

Philles Disk Not On Release

NEW YORK—Cash Box has been informed that a disking on the Philles label, "He's A Quiet Guy" by Darlene Love, a Pick of the Week in last week's issue, had been accidentally sent to some deejays and trade papers and was not on release.

THE NEW INTERNS—Original Soundtrack—Colpix SCP 473

One of the brightest and most sparkling scores to come from a non-musical film in some time is this score from the Columbia picture, "The New Interns." Swinging big band items, vibrant Latin rhythms, and bouncy brass are deftly fused to make out-of-context listening enjoyment a guaranteed thing instead of a chance possibility. The score is vivid and colorful throughout. General release of the flick should spark sales interest.

The lark is effectively showcased on a fine sampling of contemporary items and sturdies including "What's This I Hear," "Master Of War" and "The Honey Wind Blows." Superior entertainment throughout.

SHEILA—Philips PHS600-144

Sheila, a teenage lark from France, despite the obvious language barrier, could stir up plenty of sales and airplay excitement on this side of the Atlantic with her infectious teen-oriented vocal stylings. The kids here may not understand the lyrics, but the beat is universal as she serves up inventive chorus-backed treatments of "Chante Chante Chante," "L'Ecole Est Finie," "Sheila" and others.

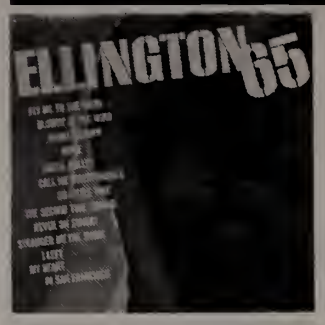
JAZZ PICKS



ELLINGTON 65—Duke Ellington—Reprise RS-6122

Eleven melodic blockbusters, which came to light via a variety of artists, are dished up in the Ellington manner on this new pop-jazz set from Reprise. The Duke, who made his way decades ago playing the pop tunes of the era, is sure to stir up plenty of nostalgia with these ultra-smooth big band stylings. Superior enjoyment here as the 88'er and crew read "Hello Dolly," "Fly Me To The Moon," "More," "Danke Schoen" and others equally delightful. A set with universal appeal.

MINGUS PLAYS PIANO—Charlie Mingus—Impulse A-60

Charles Mingus makes a radical departure from the intimate, small combo settings in which he has previously been heard on wax and, for the first time, takes over the solo spotlight completely for an entire set. The 88'er constructs some interesting melodic variations as he superbly experiments on "I Can't Get Started," "Body And Soul" and "Memories Of You." Jazzophiles will regard the session as must-have merchandise.

MANNY ALBAM PLAYS MUSIC FROM WEST SIDE STORY—Decca DL74517

The music from West Side Story continues to offer prime material for album producers everywhere, and this jazz version by Manny Albam is a worthy addition to the growing list of jazz treatments. The jazz theme here is modern with a touch of the 30's-40's swing flavor. Top sidemen add a lot of musicianship to the proceedings. Although the treatment is jazz, the album has pop appeal.

BLUES AROUND THE CLOCK—Jimmy Witherspoon—Prestige PR 7314

In the great tradition of such famous blues singers as Joe Turner, Leadbelly, etc., Jimmy Witherspoon unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this top-drawer Prestige release. The chanter does not carbon-copy any other artist but delivers each selection in his own feelingful, distinctive fashion. Highlights here include "I Had A Dream," "Whose Hat Is That" and "My Babe."

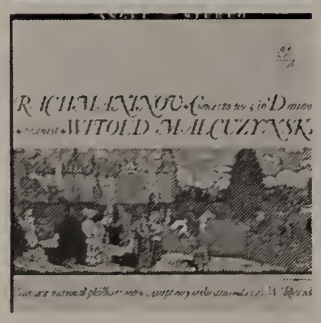
CLASSICAL PICKS

BEETHOVEN: Concerto No. 3, Fantasy For Piano & Orch, Rudolf Serkin, New York Philharmonic/Leonard Bernstein—Columbia MS6616

Beethoven's strikingly beautiful and dramatic Concerto #3 in C minor and his choral fantasy are performed with masterful skill and feelingful authority by Rudolf Serkin. The New York Philharmonic with Leonard Bernstein at the helm, and the Westminster Choir directed by Warren Martin round out this complement of notables. Classical music devotees will find this an exciting listening experience. A potent addition to the Columbia catalog.

RICHARD STRAUSS SONGS—Lisa Della Casa—RCA Victor LM2749

Lisa Della Casa, who gained international fame and stature for her dynamic interpretation of Richard Strauss' Arabella, is also a masterful interpreter of the composer's songs—the proof of which is offered in this collection of lieder. Strauss was equally at home with a dramatic opera as with a simple song, and the soprano deftly displays her versatility and feeling on these compositions. Her wide-range voice is as clear as a bell and completely authoritative in these Strauss songs.



RACHMANINOV: Concerto No. 3 In D Minor; Witold Malcuzynski, pianist. Witold Rowicki conducting the Warsaw National Philharmonic—Angel S 36197

In the footsteps of Paderewski, another Pole, Witold Malcuzynski, demonstrates a deep understanding of the classical romantic tradition on this first-rate reading of Rachmaninoff's famed "Concerto No. 3." The pianist perfectly captures the spirit of the multi-faceted work as he goes through his paces with amazing verve and polish. Kudos also go to Witold Rowicki who conducts the Warsaw National Orchestra. An impressive classical entry.

THANKS EVERYONE FOR ANOTHER GREAT YEAR.

Darin Returns To Capitol

NEW YORK—Bobby Darin has returned to Capitol Records under a new long-term deal, Cash Box has learned.

Earlier this year, the performer and the label mutually terminated a 5 year agreement, which had seen Darin leave the Atco label after numerous successes in the teen as well as adult market.

Darin continues to operate his indie producing firm and publishing company, T.M. Music. Three performers under the T.M. banner are released by Capitol. They are Wayne Newton, Merry Clayton and Jimmy Colin Young.

During the period that Darin had no label affiliation, Atco released a single, a French-sung item, "Milord," that got hefty chart attention.

During his first Capitol association, Darin collected such hits as "You're The Reason I'm Living," "18 Yellow Roses" and "If A Man Answers."

Cameo-Parkway Shows Loss In 1st Half Of '64

PHILADELPHIA — Cameo-Parkway Records registered a loss of $103,478.46 for the first six months of 1964, Bernie Lowe, president of the label, has reported to stockholders.

Net sales for the period were $1,434,654. For the first half of 1963, the label had sales of $2,588,062. and net earnings of $422,640.

Lowe also reported that the board of directors had declared a dividend of 7¢ a share to shareholders of Class A Common Stock of record on Aug. 17, payable Sept. 10, 1964.

Lowe stated that the company's financial showing had been adversely affected by a combination of three "unusual circumstances." Cited were the success of imported teen-sounds from England, overstocking by distribs resulting in "unusually large" returns for credit and exchange and the "vagaries of public taste," which Lowe noted cannot be gauged on a constant basis.

Lowe also reported that the label's low-priced label, Wyncote, continues to grow in acceptance in its first six months.

He further announced that the label's new facilities at 309 South Broad Street will be completed soon, enabling the firm to have its administrative, executive, sales and recording personnel under one roof.

Ogerman Inks Artist Deal With Victor

NEW YORK—Claus Ogerman, indie producer-arranger, has inked an exclusive deal with RCA Victor to baton instrumental singles and LP's for the label. Diskery will release his first single, "Fiddler On The Roof," from the upcoming Broadway show, and "Summer Ska," about Aug. 18.

Andy Wiswell, Victor A&R man, will supervise Ogerman's dates. While his tie-up with Victor is that of an exclusive artist, Ogerman will continue to do outside arranging chores.

His background includes arrangements for Kai Winding's "More," Leslie Gore's "You Don't Own Me" arnd "It's My Party" and Connie Francis' "Your Other Love." He's also worked with such LP artists as Stan Getz, John Gary, Dinah Washington, Jimmy Smith, Bett Carter, Carol Channing, among others.

Ogerman, born in Poland, began his career in music as a pianist-arranger with the Kurt Edelhagen Orchestra in Germany. Later, he worked as an A&R man and arranger with a number of German artists. Before immigrating to the U.S. in 1959, he was associated as an accompanist with Decca, Philips, Polydor and EMI.

Aug. Marks Big Push For "Mary Poppins" Score

NEW YORK—Aug. has been designated as "Mary Poppins" month at Buena Vista Records. The label's sales managers are currently fanning out across the country to set the stage for the most extensive music promotion in the history of Walt Disney Productions.

Armed with information and material on every aspect of the theatrical/musical/merchandise and advertising campaign, sales executives Bob Larsen, Bob Elliot and Sandy Beach are currently visiting premiere cities of the flick to hold meetings with exhibitors, record distribs, radio and TV station executives and department store executives, working in close cooperation with Buena Vista's film salesmen.

The film stars Julie Andrews in her screen debut and Dick Van Dyke. The musical fantasy, in Technicolor and stereophonic sound, will world premiere at the Chinese Theatre in Hollywood on Aug. 27 and follow a month later at the Radio City Music Hall in New York. Fifteen other cities will premiere the picture in Oct., for 13-week engagements.

Nat'l Country Music Month Bill Introduced In Congress

NEW YORK—Country music boosters the nation over received an extra added lift last week when Rep. Richard Fulton (D., Tenn.) introduced a bill in Congress which, if passed, will proclaim Nov. as National Country Music Month. Although a bill calling for a country music week was introduced in the last congressional session, it was tied-up in committee and never reached a floor vote. However, Roy Horton, chairman of the Country Music Association's "National Country Music Month" program, informed Cash Box that the present bill has an excellent chance of passage before the House adjourns later this month.

Command Inks Tessie O'Shea

NEW YORK—Tessie O'Shea, the British performer who delighted Broadway audiences last season in the short-lived musical, "The Girl Who Came To Supper" (winning her a Tony)—has inked an exclusive disk pact with Command Records, according to Enoch Light, managing director.

Thanks to her "Supper" stint, she'll be getting lots of exposure in the U.S. She'll be a regular on the new CBS-TV series, "The Entertainers." Previously, she made a number of appearances on the Ed Sullivan Show, and was showcased at the Embers nitery in New York.

Command will cut an LP by the performer later this month.

Introduce New Copyright Bill

WASHINGTON—The Copyright Office has submitted a Bill to revise the Copyright Law, largely standing as it was when passed in 1909.

The Bill, as it effects the music business, puts an end to the exemption of juke-boxes from the payment of royalties.

Royalties for songs produced on disks would be increased from 2¢ to 3¢ for each disk, or 1¢ per minute, which ever amount is larger.

The Bill also proposes a longer copyright protection. From the current limit of 56 years—an initial 28 years and a 28 year renewal—copyrights would extend from the life of the writer plus 50 years.

The Bill retains compulsory licensing, which allows any label to record a composition once a first recording is available.

Jim Reeves, 39, Dies In Plane Crash At Peak Of Career

NEW YORK—In the most emphatically tragic blow to the country music world since the fatal March '63 Patsy Cline-Cowboy Copas-Hawkshaw Hawkins-Randy Hughes airplane crack-up, Jim Reeves was found dead last week (2) in the wreckage of a private, single-engine plane 10 miles south of Nashville.

The plane crashed on a Fri. night, two days before it was discovered. Reeves, along with his pianist-road manager, Dean Manuel, 30, also killed in the crash, were returning to the Music City from an engagement in Batesville, Ark.

The artist's body was identified from a driver's license taken from the wreckage. A Tenn. highway patrolman noted that the plane was demolished and the engine partly burned.

More than 700 volunteer searchers, civil-defense workers, police, etc., covered a 20-square-mile area during the 2-day search. Military, state and private planes also searched the area.

Many members of the searching party were among the entertainer's friends and associates in the country field. They included Chet Atkins, Eddy Arnold, Stonewall Jackson and Ernest Tubb. When the bodies were eventually discovered they were taken to a Nashville funeral home.

Jim Reeves—one of country (and pop) music's most consistent hitmakers—was a real westerner—having been born thirty-nine years ago in Panola County, Texas.

When he was a boy, too young to learn an instrument, he talked his brother into buying a guitar to accompany him as he spent more and more time singing. In a short while, he was able to play the guitar himself. At the age of nine, he was already making personal appearances before audiences.

When Reeves was ten, he was making $15 per week from his talent, by singing on KRMD-Shreveport, La. However, show business wasn't really his goal; he wanted to be a big league ball player.

While at the University of Texas on an athletic scholarship, he began to show promise on the diamond. After graduation, he signed with the St. Louis Cardinals as a pitcher. Toward the end of his initial season he was injured sliding into first and the team's doctor advised against any more baseball.

Sidetracked from the pitchers' box, Reeves turned earnestly to his guitar. The road to stardom was difficult.

He spent several years behind the turntables in Texas towns as a deejay and radio announcer.

Fate smiled in 1953 when Reeves' "Mexican Joe" became the year's best-seller in the country music category. "Bimbo" did equally as well in 1954 and the chanter was on his way.

Shortly thereafter, he joined the Louisiana Hayride in Shreveport and began touring the U.S. and Europe, while appearing on network television shows. In 1955 he joined the Grand Ole Opry bringing along his favorite saying: "A stranger to me is just a friend I haven't met."

During the intervening years, Reeves racked up an almost unbroken skein of RCA Victor successes including such major triumphs as "Am I Losing You?," "Four Walls," "He'll Have To Go" and "I'm Gonna Change Everything."

His popularity was not restricted to the continental U.S. having had, in recent months, a number of recordings in South Africa, England, Norway, Denmark, Ireland and Sweden. In fact, on the basis of a recently-concluded survey, he was voted the most popular performer in the whole of South Africa. While in that country last year he starred in his first film, "Kimberly Jim," which has just been released in the U.S.

At time of his death, Reeves, who lived in Madison, Tenn. with his wife Mary, had wide-range interests outside the realm of music. He owned and operated the Open Road and Tuckahoe pubberies; had a collection of antique automobiles and guns; owned two radio stations; and played golf.

Reeves' many friends paid him tribute last week with a special memorial service in Nashville's Phyllis Robinson Funeral Home, just prior to his removal to Carthage, Texas where he was buried in a plot adjacent to his family burial ground.

(Ed. Note: Due to the size and scope of this special issue, a Jim Reeves advertisement that appears elsewhere in the issue could not be cancelled, since it had been printed before the artist's tragic death. The Reeves office requested it be deleted.)

Monument Inks Lloyd Price

NEW YORK—Lloyd Price, the chart-experienced songster, has joined the talent roster of Monument Records, according to Fred Foster, president. He goes to Nashville Aug. 19 to cut his first session for the label, to be personally produced by Foster, who will handle all his dates. On the ABC-Paramount label, Price had such big hits as "Personality" and "Stagger Lee." On his own double L diskery, he scored with "Misty."

The Family Grows

NEW YORK—The first personnel additions to the Planetary, Patricia, Nom and Frost music publishing companies have been made with the appointments of Charles Koppelman and Don Rubin as vice-presidents of the firms.

Build-up of the pubberies was made known with the recent return of Hugo & Luigi to the Roulette and its music publishing set-up as partners with Morris Levy (see last week's issue).

Koppelman and Rubin, whose posts involve the pubberies' domestic and foreign operations, were previously associated with Screen Gems-Columbia Music and Colgems Music as music and talent coordinators, directing the activities of some 45 staff writers, who gave the operation 18 BMI awards over an 18 month period.

The pair plans an immediate recruitment of writing talent, including newcomers to be developed by the firm.

"Our intent," a joint announcement said, "is to bring to this publishing operation a new, youthful and progressive program which will service the needs of both independent and major record producers." "Our doors are wide open to new talent and ideas," they added.

Mercury Unveils Catalog Program; Debuts Fourteen New Albums

CHICAGO—Mercury Records is offering an "end-of-the-season" Aug. sales program with the release of 14 new albums under the promo tag of "Cool Aids for Summer Selling."

The program has two parts, one providing a cash discount on all new product, the second establishing a pre-fall program on catalog product.

The catalog program offers a special discount, as well as an extended dating period.

The label normally has its catalog program in the fall. Its earlier period this year was explained by Kenny Myers, sales vp: "In the offing for Sept. is a variety of new product from all categories—pop, new children's albums, classics and some special surprise categories. With such a powerful release in Sept., we've moved up the catalog plan to Aug. to pave the way for concentrated effort on hit LP's in the fall."

There are 11 pop albums and three classics being issued. The pop material includes: "Moms the World" by Moms Mabley, "Discotheque House Party" by David Carroll and his orch., "The Girl from Ipanema" by Buddy DeFranco and Tommy Gumina, "Live at the Apollo" by Clyde McPhatter, "Yesterday's Gone" by Roy Drusky, "Live at the Living Room" by the Three Sounds, "Turning It On" by the Gaslight Singers, "Sing of Freedom Now" by the Freedom Singers, "Travelin'" by Dave Dudley and "Country Dance Favorites" by Faron Young.

20 New LP's Released In Roulette's "Fall Formula"

NEW YORK — Roulette Records started shipment last week of its round-up of 20 new fall albums, which are part of the label's Aug.-Sept. sales program, "The Fall Formula on Roulette."

The push, already outlined to distribs during a month-long series of individual sales meets, offers a full 15% in free merchandise and an added functional discount to rack-jobbers. Qualifying accounts can also take advantage of a special dating program.

New product stems from the Roulette, Tico, Roost, Squire and Kenwood labels.

The Roulette sets are: "Dinah Washington," with Don Costa arrangements; "Back With Basie," Count Basie; "What's New," The New Group; "Sweet and Sassy," Sarah Vaughan with orchestra by Lalo Schifrin; "Songs by Academy Award Winner James Van Heusen," Pearl Bailey; "Favorite Wedding Polkas and Waltzes," Kenny Bass and his Orch.; "Let's Go Bobo,; Willie Bobo; "Rockin' in the 25th Century," The Spacemen; "Drums, Drums, Drums," Olatunjo.

There's a new Roulette series of risque songs with a foreign language angle. Four sets that bow the line are: "Italian Songs Mama Never Taught Me; by the DiMara Sisters; "Yiddish Songs Mama Never Taught Me" by Patsy Abbott; "Polish Songs Mama Never Taught Me" with Ray Budzilek and, on the Tico label, "Spanish Songs Mama Never Taught Me" with Joe Cuba, Tito Puente, Miguelito Valdes, Graciela and Machito & his Orch.

New Tico product includes "Hangin' Out" by Joe Cuba, which Bud Katzel, general sales head, says had an initial New York-area order of 4,000 albums, followed by an order for 5,000. It's Cuba's first set for Roulette.

Other new Tico sets include: "Mucho Puente," Tito Puente and "Mexico Yo Te Canto" (I Sing of Mexico) with Miguelito Valdes.

Two new Roost entries are "The Getz Age," Stan Getz (sides never released on LP) and "Reminiscing" with Johnny Smith (guitar).

A Squire release is "When I Was One & Twenty," featuring a new folk group, the Tripjacks. A Kenwood entry is "Sing Out" with Mahalia Jackson.

Liberty Launches 10 Album Fall Program: "Liberty Is For Everyone"

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records says "Liberty Is For Everyone" in its just-launched fall LP program, which features a varied bill of 10 new albums.

Program, details of which are available from Liberty distribs, covers the entire Liberty, Liberty Premier Series and Dolton LP catalogs, except Chipmunk dates, to be featured in a program to come. It expires Sept. 11.

The new LP's include: "Julie London, In Person at the Americana," the lark's first "live" release; "Si Zentner Plays the Big Big Band Hits;" Martin Denny's "Latin Village;" Spike Jones' "My Man;" themes from "Burke's Law;" Walter Brennan's "Gunfight at the O.K. Corral" and Nancy Ames' "This is the Girl That Is;" "My Mother the Ragtime Piano Player," England's Mrs. Mills; and "The Original Rhythm & Blues Hits," various artists.

For the campaign, a number of displays and sales aids have been created by ad-merchandising director Allen LaVinger, among them a theme display unit utilizing easels, large individual dimensional displays of the Julie London, Martin Denny and Johnny Mann LP's and 12" by 12" easels of the new releases. Also available for retail outlets are browser dividers, ad mats and a new complete 32 page Liberty catalog. Promo sampler mailings have been shipped to radio stations.

VeeJay To Push Oldies 45 Line

HOLLYWOOD—Vee-Jay Records has kicked off a new merchandising gimmick that highlights its Oldies 45 line in a novel sleeve which features humorous greeting card messages.

The new line, tabbed Teen Fun Cards, was introduced to distribs at a recent sales meet in this city. One of the firm's five labels, Oldies 45 includes more than 120 singles, some leased from other companies, and the balance culled from the label's roster of past best-sellers. With the purchase of any one of the Oldies 45, buyers can combine the Teen Card sleeve with any appropriate greeting.

The first package available to retailers, which includes display boards, selection racks and other merchandising aids, offers a selection of a dozen teen cards. According to Jay Lasker, exec vice president, a new line of greeting sleeves will be offered each month, including special messages for holidays.

Sears, Montgomery-Ward Name Disk Buying Agents

NEW YORK—The two major retail chains and mail-order houses, Sears-Roebuck and Montgomery Ward, have assigned their disk purchases to a "buying office" and four rack firms, respectively, Cash Box has learned.

In the case of Sears, it's understood that New Deal, headed by Al Levine and Lou Klayman, will be the central buying office for all Sears accounts. The New York-based firm is expected to establish a distributorship in a non-key area, possibly Albany, to handle the Sears segment of its business.

Montgomery-Ward has named the following four rack firms for its nation-wide outlets: Handleman, the Detroit-based firm, which take-over the bulk of the Sears accounts, handling such areas as Detroit, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Ohio, Philadelphia and Charleston; Music Isle of Milwaukee, handling Chicago and Milwaukee; B-G, based in Albany and Sears' purchasing agent there; and Record Service, the Los Angeles rack firm, and Sears' purchasing agent in that city.

It's further understood that distribs in the Chicago area see the situation as critical, and were planning confabs to discuss the situation.

London Initiates Part 1 Of 3 Part Push; 3 New Import Lines Bow

NEW YORK—London Records has unveiled part 1 of its 3-part fall LP program for its distribs.

Initial phase of the program will entail specific coverage of catalogs of the label's Mantovani product, low-priced Richmond classics and opera dates and new classical and spoken word imports.

Distribs will be entitled to extra discounts, delayed payments and ad money throughout the program.

Marty Wargo, sales administrator, said that the label will attempt to bring across to its indie distrib network the extensive London catalog—some 2,000 albums—and the individual nature of various categories.

There are 37 Mantovani albums under the plan, which includes his dates for the first time (the maestro has had separate month-long programs). A new Mantovani LP will make its debut in part 3 of the program.

100 Richmond Classics include five new entries, all culled from London's catalog, while there are four new Richmond Opera sets available, which now carry the fact that they are imported from England (mono only).

The special imports involve Das Alte Werk series, produced by Telefunken in Germany, being made available here for the first time (some 52 sets cover medieval, renaissance and baroque periods), the English Argo catalog, a music and spoken word label with some 68 albums, plus a 60-LP (11 so far) project of English poetry, and L'Oiseau-Lyre, an English catalog of 143 albums of off-beat repertoire.

The catalogs of all three imports are listed in a special 8-page brochure. All three lines carry a stereo and mono list of $5.98.

Later, the plan will cover the London Opera, London Classics, London Int'l, phase 4 stereo, London pop, including new releases as they are made available.

The five new Richmond Classics include: Beethoven's fifth symphony performed by the Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam under Erich Kleiber, "Vienna Philharmonic New Year's Concert" under Clemens Krauss, Bach's suites 2 and 3 by the Stuttgart Chamber Orch. directed by Karl Munchinger, Sibelius' symphony number 2 by the London Symphony directed by Anthony Collins, Mahler's symphony no. 4 by the Concertgebouw of Amsterdam under Eduard Van Beinum.

The four new Richmond Opera sets are: Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Mario del Monaco, Elena Nicolai, Aldo Protti, conducted by Franco Ghione; Leoncavallo's "I Pagliacci" with del Monaco, Clara Petrella, Protti, conducted by Alberto Erede; Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Gondoliers" with Martyn Green and the D'Oyly Carte Opera Co.; Bizet's "Carmen" with L'Opera Comique, Paris conducted by Albert Wolff.

This Is The Week That Is For Beatles' Pic Opening Here, Note Rapid World-Wide Exposure

NEW YORK—The Beatles' "A Hard Day's Night," opening in the U.S. this week (11), will be shown in more theatres in more countries in a shorter length of time than any previous film in the history of the business, according to United Artists exec VP Arnold M. Picker. Announcement was made at a press conference in New York last week (6), with the film's producer, Walter Shenson.

Picker noted that the picture will have a world-wide saturation release pattern which will see it in every international market by the end of the next seven weeks. He further pointed out that while some 800 prints are being worked in the United States, the total world print order will be between 1,500 and 1,800, a previously unheard of figure.

Based on the film's opening day grosses in the U.S., Picker stated the film will "definitely" be of record-breaking proportions with "unbelievable" hourly figures coming into the home office at a hot and heavy pace.

Shenson reported that the film will "break the Iron Curtain." He stated that "A Hard Day's Night" is being sent to Czechoslovakia for an Oct. showing in Prague as part of a British cultural exchange. "If the film is successful there, I see no reason why it will not play in other similar countries since the Beatles' fame has spread there too," he said.

In referring to the initial high praise that has been accorded the film in its several openings, Shenson attributed the critical success to the

Chipmunks' Beatles LP Off To Smash Start

NEW YORK—The Chipmunks are in on the Beatles craze, and the tie-up is racking up a big initial response.

An LP called "The Chipmunks Sing the Beatles Hits" has already gotten initial distrib orders of 100,000, according to Liberty Records, which releases Beatles product. Expecting lots more to come, the label has already printed up 250,000 jackets. All this comes about prior to shipment of the album, expected to start taking place this Sat. (15).

Eydie & "Los Panchos" Team Up For Columbia LP

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has released a new album, "Amor," which features the combined talents of Eydie Gorme and the Trio Los Panchos. The package was produced under the supervision of Latin American A&R manager Peter Rosaly.

The LP features the artists in a selection of current south-of-the border hits and Latin American standards, all in Spanish. The trio (Johnny Albino, Chucho Navarro) recently marked it's 20th anniversary with the label and has been a stalwart seller for the label during that time. Eydie Gorme recently created a stir in the Spanish-speaking countries with her in-Spanish version of "Blame It On The Bossa Nova."

Four of the tunes have been issued in Spain on an EP and two in Mexico as a single.

Pictured above at the wax date are Eydie and the trio.

Col Ups Kazdin To Music Editor In Masterworks

NEW YORK — Andrew Kazdin has been promoted to music editor in the Masterworks division of Columbia Records, according to John McClure, director of Masterworks A & R.

Kazdin will edit and re-record tapes and produce albums as assigned, reporting to McClure.

Kazdin was transferred from organization planning and management development, where he had been a management trainee since April, 1964.

Clark Package Packing 'Em In

HOLLYWOOD—The Dick Clark Caravan of Stars, currently in the middle of its seventh annual swing around the country, has been hitting record grosses and capacity houses throughout the nation. A cross section gross report reveals a $9,700 gross in Terre Haute, Ind., $10,200 in Beckley W. Va., $14,900 in Evansville, Ind., $11,200 in Raleigh, North Carolina, $11,903 at Virginia Beach. Va., followed by Winston Salem, N.C., with $18,509.

Troupe also did blockbuster business in Dayton, O., in spite of being rained out of Montgomery Fairgrounds and into a small auditorium. Gross in the Ohio city was $7,000, a capacity house, and Caravan left the promoters with a promise to return Sept. 6 to play the 12,000 seat Municipal Auditorium to be completed by that date. Bobby Rydell and Johnny Tillotson will headline, and show seques the next day to Columbus, for the Ohio State Fair.

Fred Parker To E. B. Marks Music

NEW YORK—Fred Parker, 17-year music business vet, has joined the staff of E. B. Marks Music, this city. He'll be working in the standard dept. with a dual role: he will work to obtain diskings of new copyrights and exploit standard disks. Parker will work closely with Arnold Shaw, general professional manager, and Fred Woodruff, asociate director of recordings. He has had previous associations with Shapiro, Bernstein, Bourne and Allied Entertainment and singers Julius La Rosa and Tommy Leonetti.

Connie Goes Shopping— For Single, LP Sales

NEW YORK—Connie Francis made a promo trek to three dept. stores in the Metropolitan area last week to plug her new single and LP releases and her upcoming pic, "Looking For Love," also the tie-in title of the single and album.

She visited the disk departments of Bamberger's in Newark and Paramus, and R. H. Macy in New York. A reel of film from "Looking For Love" was screened at each store. Deejays from the area introduced her to disk dept. traffic. In Newark it was Gil Stuart of WJRZ; in Paramus it was Bob Brown, same outlet, and Joe O'Brien of WMCA introduced the performer at Macy's.

Rhythm Masters Set For Summer Fair Dates

BURBANK — The Rhythm Masters, the west coast-based Dixie group, will embark on their second major year of fair dates. Scheduled appearances include the Iowa State Fair, the California State Fair, the Western Washington State Fair and the Alabama State Fair. In addition, an extended engagement is currently being negotiated for Radio City Music Hall with a tentative opening date of Nov. 1.

The Rhythm Masters have also been signed for several appearances on the new fall season Danny Kaye Show. Their current Mobile Fidelity single release is "Chaps Place."

AF To Cut "Folies" Caster

NEW YORK—Audio Fidelity Records will record the cast album of "The Folies Bergere," now playing on Broadway. The French import stars Patachou, George Ulmer and musical conductor Joe Basile. It's set for immediate release. The score of the show was recently acquired by Four Star Television Music (BMI), whose Ivan Mogull, eastern and int'l rep, concluded a deal for the cast LP with AF.

In Top Form

NEW YORK—It appears that the British invasion has only just begun. Further strategic advances are presently being made on Yank shores in the presence of a one-woman English task force by the name of June Wilkinson. The thespian-model recently helped Gotham's mercury soar when she scooted around local radio stations promoting her new Jubilee, "The Bikini With No Top On Top." June and Mamie Van Doren team-up on the single as well as co-starring in Cosnat's soon-to-be-released flick, "The Candidate." June was squired in her station-hopping trek by Jubilee topper Steve Blaine and Mickey Eichner, the label's A&R director and national promo chief. Surrounding June in the top pic at WINS are: assistant program director Neil MacIntyre, deejay Johnny Holliday and music director Julie Ross. The artist is flanked in the bottom shot by Eichner and Blaine.

Colpix "Window" Contest For "New Interns" ST

NEW YORK — Colpix Records has launched a window display contest on behalf of its new soundtrack release, "The New Interns." Prizes will be awarded to retailers, distribs and distrib salesmen who submit photos of windows displaying "New Interns" albums, streamers and other promotional materials.

The contest has been divided into four geographical areas with four duplicate sets of prizes to be awarded. Winning owners will receive $50 and distribs and salesmen can win $25. The contest began July 28 and will end on Sept. 14; winners will be announced Sept. 21.

New Lindy Records Head

HOLLYWOOD — Irving Earl Klase, former vice president and general manager of the C. G. Recording Corp., has been signed by Sidney "Lindy" Linden to head his record firm, Lindy Records.

A first release, due this week, will be by tenor Arthur Ross Jones. Other albums in production feature William Clauson, and the California Jubilee Singers.

An 'Epic' Catch

MIAMI—Epic Records' recent sales meet in Florida was not all work, as the above photos verify. Distrib salesmen and label execs proudly display an enviable catch. (Left to right) They are Duke Dubois and Jerry Bensison of Portem (N.Y.), Jerry Leffler of Apex-Martin (N.J.) and Aaron Turner of Portem. The Gotham distrib's Morty Gilbert (kneeling) caught the 7 feet 3 inches sail fish and the 4 ft. Dolphin he holds. In the above photo at right, Dist. in Boston, Marvin Jacobs of Music Merchants in Detroit, and Don Dumont of Dumont also gloat over their prizes.

Smothers & Mercury Sponsor "Slithery Dee" Contest

NEW YORK—The Smothers Brothers and Mercury Records are inviting deejays and their listeners to send in drawings of their ideas of a "Slithery Dee," which is the title of a track in their latest LP, "It Must Have Been Something I Said."

The contest idea came from WEZY in Cocoa, Florida which asked listeners to send in their drawings of the "Slithery Dee." The response was so great, the Smothers and Mercury decided to make it a national contest and award prizes.

The winner will receive an all expense paid trip for two to San Francisco (Sept. 17-20) that includes round-trip tickets on American Airlines, four nights at the Fairmont Hotel, dinner and the Smothers' show at the Venetian Room, and a tour of the city. The winner's local deejay will be given the same prize. Runners up will get prizes varying from Mercury phonos to Smothers' LP's.

A toy manufacturer will reproduce a replica toy of the winning drawing, and give the winner $100 spending money for the San Francisco trip.

The contest is getting heavy national promotion, and several drawings have already been shown on the NBC "Today" show.

Judging will be done by a panel of three that includes Shel Silverstein, Playboy cartoonist and composer of the song.

Ray Charles Singers To H'wood Bowl

NEW YORK — Choral director Ray Charles and his singers, making big singles and LP news for the Command label, take time out from their busy recording schedule to make an appearance this Fri. (14) at the Hollywood Bowl. Concert will also include comic Allan Sherman and the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra. Before he returns east, Charles will make a 1-day stopover in Fort Worth to rehearse the Texas Boys' Choir in some arrangements he wrote for the ensemble. As for the Charles' own crew, it's riding high with such singles hits as "Love Me With All Your Heart" and "Al Di La."

Mormon Tabernacle Choir Gets 2 More Gold Decks

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has awarded two RIAA-certified gold disks to the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, each representing album sales totaling more than $1 million. The disks were awarded last month (26) at a presentation ceremony in the music hall of the Texas Pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

The awards, given for the choir's recordings of Handel's Messiah and "The Lord's Prayer," were presented to choir president Isaac M. Stewart and conductor Richard P. Condie by Arthur Hull Hayes, president of CBS Radio.

1st LP Shipment Due From Music & Voice

NEW YORK—Music and Voice Records, new label headed by Art Talmadge, starts shipment of its first LP release—consisting of six albums —next week (17).

When the line was introduced to distribs at their recent ARMADA confab, the company reported orders totaling 150,000 albums. Four of the albums are part of a "51 Music and Voice Series," including "51 Greatest Motion Picture Favorites" with the Vinnie Bell Orch., "51 Greatest Broadway Favorites" with Milton DeLugg and his Orch., with pianist Jon Costa, "51 Discotheque Favorites" with Ralph Marterie and his Orch. and "51 Organ Skating Favorites" with George Stone at the organ.

"51 Series" album jackets are adorned with special pen-and-water color artwork by Fred Steffen.

The other packages are "How To Hula At Home" with Sam Makia and His Royal Islanders, including 15 favorite Hawaiian songs and an instruction booklet, and "Music For Isometric Exercises," including a book illustrating the exercises published by Prentice-Hall.

Also being shipped by Music and Voice is a special package of two kiddie play-a-long 45's. The disks come with a whistle, cricket, bell and coloring card with the lyrics of the songs.

Deutschman Exits Decca For Post With Orchestra

NEW YORK — Ben Deutschman has resigned his classical post at Decca Records to become business manager of the Erie, Pennsylvania Philharmonic Orchestra and Chorus. During his five year association with Decca, the vet music man served as educational director of the label, as well as publicity and promo director for Decca's Gold Label (classical) division. Before joining Decca, he held exec posts with Everest, Mercury, Capitol and Children's Record Guild.

FCC OK's Big Group Station Sell, Makes NBC Rescind Trade

WASHINGTON—The Federal Communications Commission has authorized the second largest sale of a group of TV and radio outlets.

It gave its OK, in a 5 to 2 vote, to Goodwill Stations to sell four stations to Capital Cities Broadcasting Corp. They include WJR-AM-FM, Detroit and WSAZ-AM-TV in Huntington, W. Va. The FCC also allowed Goodwill to sell another outlet, WJRT-TV-Flint, Mich. to a new corporation, WJRT, Inc., formed by an officer and stockholder of Capital Cities.

Capital Cities will spend $15,141,330 for the four stations, while WJRT, Inc. will spend $6 million for the Flint station.

In another FCC action last week, it ordered NBC to rescind a trade whereby it traded a Cleveland TV outlet to the Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. for a Philly station back in 1956. In a unanimous decision, the FCC declared that its position was that NBC forced the trade by "coercive use of its powers to grant or withhold network affiliations" to Westinghouse. The Philly station is WRCV-TV. NBC has 60 days to make the exchange.

Beatles Pic Opening Here

"free hand" policy which United Artists affords its film makers. "This is a much more important contributing factor than most people realize," Shenson stated.

Shenson also reported that he and the Beatles have formed a producing company, Proscenium Films, in which they will make the next two Beatle features to be released through UA. The second in the series will probably go before the cameras in London this Feb., he added.:

Also present at the press conference was Gabe Sumner, UA's national director of advertising, publicity and exploitation. He stated that the company's international campaign of special previews for the film with advance sale of guaranteed seats has already grossed $325,000 in the U.S. alone. Equally important, he stated, was the fact that these previews, with local level radio and newspaper tie-ins, are earning the film "terrific" free pre-selling publicity and excitement some six to eight weeks prior to its openings. With the campaign presently launched in 100 American cities, Sumner termed this a "once in a lifetime chance for exhibitors."

Mike Stewart, executive vice president of United Artists Records, distributors of the film's smash original soundtrack album, stated that the film has brought about the confirmation of the Beatles' "extraordinary" songwriting talent. He noted that the songs written by them for the film are getting "tremendous" play on national stations that in the past have not played songs in the music category.

More Details On Agreement Between Screen Gems Vs. Adler

NEW YORK—Further details have been revealed in the settlement between Screen Gems vs Lou Adler, Jan & Dean and others (see last week's issue).

Under terms of the settlement, Adler received $15,000 cash in compromise of his claim against Screen Gems. Adler confirmed that the copyrights to "Little Old Lady (from Pasadena)" and six tunes on the Jan & Dean "Dead Man's Curve" album were turned over to Screen Gems with the payment to his Trousdale Music of $8,500, with another $1,000 contingent for the sale of these copyrights in those songs.

S-G dropped all claims against other songs published by Trousedale Music and against Adler's partners, Bobby Roberts and Pierre Cossette and Adler personally.

While S-G will continue its recording agreement with Jan & Dean, it will no longer have any creative controls over Jan & Dean records during the term of the agreement. Also, there is no restriction on the consultation and supervision of Jan & Dean recordings between Adler and arranger-producer Jan Berry. Jan Berry writer contracts also remain in effect, but he's received a raise in his guarantee.

As for Johnny Rivers product, produced by Adler for Dunhill Productions, it was noted that S-G would share in the moneys earned for a six month period ending March 17, 1965. S-G has released all claims on Rivers dates made after that time.

Other defendents in S-G's action, Don Altfeld and Jill Gibson, have signed an agreement to allow S-G to publish all tunes written by them and recorded by Jan and Dean. Agreement covers only those tunes and is not an exclusive writing agreement for all material by Altfeld or Gibson.

E.M.I. ARTISTS STEAL INTERNATIONAL LIMELIGHT

In the year since the last edition of the Cash Box Annual Directory, Electric and Musical Industries Limited, (E.M.I.) has shown that it is achieving its stated intention of international expansion in the record field with spectacular success.

Spearhead of the group's activities in the "pop" field are the fabulous Beatles who have become internationally acclaimed and idolized as no other artist or group of artists before them. They first came to prominence in October 1962 and today their total record sales are fast approaching the equivalent of 100 million singles. In one chart-smashing week they held top spots in 8 countries. They have received many awards throughout the world for their record sales and have proved that talent and personality are the keys to success anywhere in the pop world, irrespective of language.

Another international artist who has contributed a great deal to E.M.I.'s bounding expansion over the years is Cliff Richard. Cliff is one of the world's hottest record personalities and together with The Shadows, continues to ride high in world charts. He has further added to his international status by recording in German, French and Spanish —his German version of "Lucky Lips" has sold more than half a million disks to date.

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

In addition to the success of these British artists abroad in the past year, many others have achieved popularity outside their home markets for the first time. For example, Richard Anthony, France's top recording star, has consistently appeared high in the charts of many European countries; another top French artist, Enrico Macias, led the international chart in Turkey for four months; the Belgian company's Adamo recently collected a gold disk in Holland for his big hit "Sans Toi Mamie"; and Denmark's chart-topper, Gitte continues to ride high in the German ratings.

LOCAL MARKETS

By way of individual national achievements, E.M.I.'s labels have dominated many local markets. The Greek company has had a very good year and reports that its artists regularly hold down eight of the top ten spots in the local charts, led by popular star St. Kazantzides. The popularity of groups has spread to Sweden where the Swedish company's top group, the Streaplers, headed the local charts for fourteen weeks with their hit "Diggety Doggety." Earlier in the year this group was presented with four silver disks for the success of this number.

The Duo Dinamico have continued as leaders of the best-selling charts in Spain and their popularity is now spreading to other countries. They were the first Spanish artists to be invited to appear in the top French T.V. show "Age tendre et tete de bois." The most spectacular rise to popularity in recent years has been that of the small instrumental groups. By far the most successful of these is the local company's star group Los Mustang, which was voted "best ensemble of the year" by the readers of one of Spain's leading entertainment magazines.

Groups are also very popular in France. Towards the end of last year the French company launched a new group, Les Missiles, who achieved instant success with their version of "Green Back Dollar."

Two native Australian artists, Lionel Long and Slim Dusty, have recently received coveted gold disks for their respective hit albums "Waltzing Matilda" and "Aussie Sing Song." Meanwhile, in Germany, Electrola, E.M.I.'s local company has continued its upward progress and is now firmly established as the Republic's top recording company.

Finally, the Irish company produced in co-operation with Radio Eireann an L.P. of the memorable speeches given by the late President Kennedy during his visit to Ireland last summer. During its first week of issue the record sold more copies than any other L.P. ever released in Ireland.

NEW E.M.I. SYMBOL

In common with many other large companies trading on an international basis E.M.I. is not alone in facing the difficulty of maintaining a unified image in many different territories particularly those in which several record labels are in use. In spite of its important position in the recording industry throughout the world the name of E.M.I., cannot, for obvious reasons, be as well-known as the labels it represents. Sir Joseph Lockwood, chairman of E.M.I., has long felt the need for a unifying link and accordingly a new symbol has been introduced which will be used on the group's record products in many parts of the world. (The symbol is reproduced over the page as part of E.M.I.'s advertisement.)

The symbol represents pictorially E.M.I.'s world-wide recording activities. It will be used on printed material, displays, advertising and alongside group trade marks on record covers. It is readily appreciated that the introduction of any kind of company image is essentially a long term project, but E.M.I. is confident that because of its universally strong position it will only be a short time before the symbol is instantly recognized as belonging to "The Greatest Recording Organization in the World."

STRONG POSITION

E.M.I. has indeed an enviable position in the record industry. It admits that approximately one out of every four sold in the free world is made by a wholly owned or affiliated company. This is rarely appreciated outside the industry itself and bears witness to a remarkable commercial success which goes back to 1931 when the group was formed by a merger of interests between the leading British companies—The Gramophone Company and Columbia Graphophone Company.

Today the group has subsidiary companies in twenty-four countries for the recording, manufacture and distribution of records. In addition, manufacturing licensees in sixteen more countries press and distribute E.M.I. recordings. And countless distributors throughout the world import their supplies of finished records from various manufacturing companies within the group.

Among the labels issuing its products are His Master's Voice, Columbia (neither of which it uses in the Western hemisphere), Capitol, Angel, Parlophone, Odeon, Regal, and Pathé. In addition it acts as licensees for leading American labels including ABC-Paramount, Disneyland, Epic, Imperial, Liberty, M.G.M., Roulette, United Artists, Verve and Warner Bros., etc., in many important markets outside the U.S.A. A new E.M.I. label was launched two years ago, Stateside, to promote the repertoire of certain American independent companies. These include Amy-Mala, Diamond, Laurie, Prestige, Rendezvous, Swan, Tamla-Motown, 20th Century-Fox and Vee-Jay, etc. The Stateside label was originally launched in England but it is now well established in other major markets.

In America E.M.I.'s business is conducted through Capitol Records Inc., which came into the group in 1955. The union brought to Capitol the advantages of E.M.I.'s world distribution network and gave E.M.I.—whose American interests were previously handled by R.C.A. Victor and Columbia Records—a very valuable outlet for the North American markets.

A leading member of the E.M.I. group is E.M.I. Records Ltd., of E.M.I. House, Manchester Square, London. A separate article in this issue reports on the activities of that company.

The principal European companies are Pathé Marconi in France, Electrola in Germany, Vocé del Padrone in Italy and Odeon in Spain. There are E.M.I. companies throughout Europe, the Middle and Far East, in Africa, India, Pakistan, Latin America, New Zealand and Australia, each with its own recording facilities. Thus the E.M.I. group catalogue contains every type of music popular in the world tolay.

Whilst E.M.I. is best known in the American market as a record company it also leads in electronics, radio, television, domestic appliances, recording equipment and tape manufacture in many countries throughout the world.

Leadership of the E.M.I. group of companies is vested in the chairman, Sir Joseph F. Lockwood; Mr. J. E. Wall is the managing director of E.M.I. Limited, and Mr. Richard Dawes is the member of the Main Board responsible for the group's world wide record interests.

THE H.M.V. 'LAUREATE SERIES'

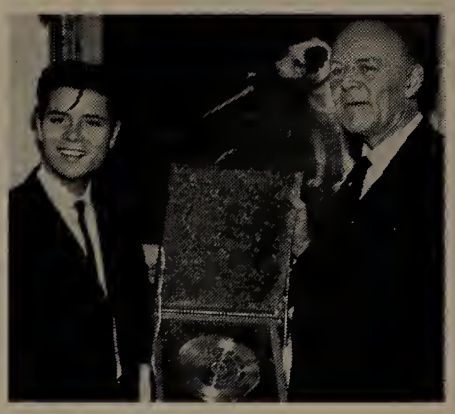
A NEW AND UNIQUE collection of spoken word recordings by distinguished authors and actors, was launched by EMIR to aid the teaching of history and allied subjects. The authentic Spoken Word (together with music taken from original manuscripts in the British Museum as yet unpublished is effectively used to recreate historical scenes and characters of the past.

AWARDS, AWARDS

MORE awards for EMIR and EMIR artists. In the National Record Awards for 1963, EMIR won the Best Pop 'Single' category with the Beatles scoring a runaway victory, the Best Light Orchestral Record (Ken Thorne), the Best Dance Record (Joe Loss, a third-time winner), and the Best Orchestral Record (Sir John Barbirolli). EMIR recording manager George Martin won an Ivor Novello Award for outstanding services to British music—he records the Beatles. Similar awards were won by the Beatles themselves and their manager Brian Epstein. The Liverpool boys also collected two Novello Awards for "She Loves You" as the most broadcast work of the year and the record achieving highest certified British sales in 1963. The Variety Club of Great Britain nominated them as Showbusiness Personalities of the Year. The Dave Clark Five were presented with a plaque by Epic Records honoring them as the first group in the history of the label to achieve sales (with "Glad All Over" and "Bits And Pieces") of over 1,000,000 records within three months.

YET AGAIN SUPREME

ONCE AGAIN EMIR artists topped the U.K. musical papers popularity polls. In the New Musical Express 1963 Poll, over 55 per cent of the awards went to EMIR and EMIR artists. In the World Section of the Record Mirror Pop Poll, EMIR's American labels were highly placed—United Artists' Gene Pitney, M-G-M's Connie Francis, and Liberty's Crickets and Ventures all appear in top ten groupings. So do Mary Wells, the Miracles, Martha and the Vandellas, the Chiffons and the Marvellettes, all on the EMIR Stateside label.



GOLD FOR CLIFF

LUCKY Cliff Richard—he wins a Gold Disc for one million sales of "Lucky Lips." Cliff is pictured here with EMI Chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood who made the presentation. Cliff was really in the gold this year—he won one too, for "Bachelor Boy"/"The Next Time." Other million-sellers included Frank Ifield ("Lovesick Blues"), the Dave Clark Five ("Glad All Over" and "Bits And Pieces"), Peter and Gordon ("World Without Love") and Billy J. Kramer ("Little Children").

TOPS OF THE POPS

TOPS of the pops in Britain again! EMI Records complete another year of chart leadership, maintaining their position at the top of the British 'single', EP and LP best-sellers lists.

GOLDEN BEATLES

UNIQUE U.K. chart success by those Beatles — they simultaneously took Number One position in all three best-sellers lists, LP, EP and 'single'. It was a golden year for the Liverpool boys — Gold Discs for million-sellers "She Loves You," "I Want To Hold Your Hand," "Can't Buy Me Love" and their LP "With The Beatles." Capitol Records Inc. awarded them with Gold Discs for one million U.S. sales of "I Want To Hold Your Hand" and "Can't Buy Me Love," and so did Swan Records for "She Loves You." Capitol presented John, Paul, George and Ringo with a Gold LP to mark the £1,000,000 sales of "Meet The Beatles," and the group also won golds for their "Second Album" and their United Artists LP release, "A Hard Day's Night."

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

DISTINGUISHED visitor to the EMI record plant during the year was His Royal Highness Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. Here he is being greeted on arrival by Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of EMI Limited.

OVER HALF

OF the Silver Discs awarded in the U.K. during the year—they are presented by the newspaper Disc to mark quarter-million sales— EMIR claimed 32, more than 50 per cent of the total awarded. The picture shows Billy J. Kramer (with the Dakotas), Cilla Black and Gerry (and the Pacemakers) with Silver Discs presented to them at a reception at EMI House in London. Silver LP's were awarded to the Beatles and to the Shadows for 250,000 sales of their long playing records.

MARY'S U.K. CHART SUCCESS

IT was Motown's vocal charmer Mary Wells who shot into the top slots of the British Hit Parade not long after EMIR had signed a contract with Tamla-Motown-Gordy to distribute their material in the United Kingdom. Similar contracts were signed with Amy/Mala, Global, Imperial, Jazz Press, Prestige and Twentieth Century-Fox; and an extension of the contracts with Diamond, Laurie, United Artists and Verve. EMIR's own U.S.A. label — Stateside — maintained its reputation as one of the strongest American labels in the U.K.

12 HOURS AIRTIME, 25 SHOWS—11 DEEJAYS

EMI SPONSORED airtime on Radio Luxembourg totals 12 hours and 25 programmes a week—and 11 deejays! Several shows are recorded with invited audiences and star appearances at EMI House in the heart of London's West End. Number One British deejay David Jacobs is pictured above (left) with producer Arthur Muxlow (EMI Records General Promotion Manager) and Margaret Stredder. David and Margaret host "Record Roulette," new and novel radio disc game.

BACK TO SCHOOL

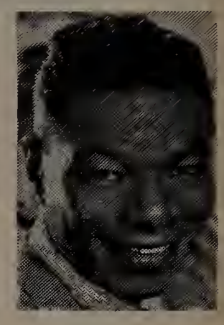
EMIR's own training school for dealers—now in its tenth year—is the only one of its kind in the United Kingdom. Sales staff learn about disc salesmanship and display, visit studios, record plant and distribution depots. Innovation this year was the introduction of a course especially designed for classical retailing.

EMI

THE GREATEST RECORDING ORGANISATION IN THE WORLD

WELCOME VISITOR

AMONG many welcome visitors to Great Britain during the year was Capitol's Nat King Cole. Returning to the U.K. for the first time in several years, he made TV appearances, radio and one-night concerts. The long and successful association with Capitol Records Inc. of Hollywood was further consolidated by a special reception at EMI House with Nat as guest of honour. Highlight of the occasion was the presentation to Nat of his Silver Disc for a quarter-million sales of "Ramblin' Rose".



Cash Box

GOLD

The Beatles strike gold! During the year they won no fewer than FIVE Cash Box International Gold Awards for Top 100 topspots! And Peter and Gordon too claimed one of the coveted awards to bring the EMIR total to a neat SIX.

.....AND SILVER

OVER TEN in the Top Ten! EMIR artists have won ELEVEN Cash Box International Silver Awards—the Beatles carrying off four and the Dave Clark Five three. Striking silver too, were Gerry and the Pacemakers, Rolf Harris, Billy J. Kramer with the Dakotas and Danny Williams.

THEY CAME, THEY SAW .....

AUSSIE Rolf Harris—singer, artist, comedian—scored a huge hit at New York's Blue Angel. Rolf was one of several EMIR artists who followed chart successes in the U.S. with personal appearances. Others included those Beatles of course (seen above), Cliff Richard, Frank Ifield, Billy J. Kramer, Peter and Gordon, Gerry and the Pacemakers, the Dave Clark Five and Shirley Bassey.

IN THE CLASSICAL FIELD.....

EMI RECORDS still lead. The initial success of HMV's Angel series in the U.K. and other parts of the world has been continued and expanded. Success too, from EMIR's release of the famed Epic and Westminster classical repertoire. Individually, one of the biggest disc triumphs in Great Britain during the year has been scored by internationally-renowned maestro Sir John Barbirolli.

PARLEZ-VOUS .....?

'LEARN a Language in Record Time'—that's how EMIR introduced a new disc series. 'Quickie' courses in French, Spanish, German, Italian, Greek and Russian, produced by the Institute for Language Study of New York, come in attractive EP packages complete with textbook.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR

The first thing to say is that during the year under review more gramophone records have been sold in Britain than ever before. Therefore, a few figures before we come to the facts will serve to prime the canvas on which to paint the picture of Britain's record year. The following official Board of Trade figures for 1962 and 1963 speak for themselves.

It will be seen that in 1963 sales, which climbed steadily for the first six months of the year, rose sharply in the third quarter gathering momentum as the year progressed and after a magnificent record buying spree in September, October, November and December, the year ended in a blaze of glory. Total sales for 1963 valued at £21,733,000 were up by a quarter on the previous year. Home sales rose by a third but export sales were seven percent down. 1964 got off to a swinging start with January sales two fifths up on last year and by the end of the first quarter, home sales were already up by a third and export sales by a seventh—and still the boom goes on.

Britain's sales bonanza, like charity, began at home—in Liverpool to be exact, spawning ground of The Beatles and many other groups and artistes who have been instrumental in building up the country's thriving disk economy. Having first conquered the British charts and salted away a sterling fortune the Liverpudlian army crossed the Atlantic to storm the American charts, boost Britain's export drive and earn themselves a billion dollars together with a world wide reputation unparalleled in the annals of recording history. Thus, the pop tide which has flowed consistently and seemingly invincibly across the Atlantic from West to East for years has been spectacularly turned. Not only have British artistes monopolised the charts at home but have, at the same time, successfully invaded the American charts in both cases at the expense of their Western counterparts. A glance at the British Top Twenty for any given week over the past twelve months will find native talent and material accounting for almost 75 percent of the total.

Although our share of the American Top 100 has never reached these heights, nevertheless we did, after the Beatles onslaught and immediate impact in the States earlier this year, manage to have 25 percent of the Top 100. In one week (May 9th), Britain had 26 entries. The Beatles themselves claimed nine of them; the rest going to The Dave Clark Five (4); Danny Williams (1); Billy J. Kramer (1); The Searchers (3); The Bachelors (1); Dusty Springfield (1); The Rolling Stones (1); Chad and Jeremey (1); Cliff Richard (1); The Swinging Blue Jeans (2) and Peter and Gordon (1). Since first reaching No. 1 with "I Want To Hold Your Hand" in January 1964 the fabulous Beatles have occupied that exalted position for a total of 18 weeks with six consecutive hits. At one point in April this year they were to be found at No. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5—a feat never before achieved by any artist. American or otherwise. To date the group's tally of Cash Box International Gold Awards stands at 6 the latest being for "A Hard Day's Night" from the film of the same title. They also won three Cash Box International Silver Awards. In fact, so far this year British artistes have topped the American H.. Parade for 19 weeks out of a possible 30. How much longer will the invasion last before the Americans come up with a weapon powerful enough to beat off the invading forces. Just how tremendous the British impact has been can be seen elsewhere in this issue from the list of British Artistes and Copyrights which entered the American Top 100 during the year. British copyrights numbered 40 as opposed to 9 in 1961/62 and 13 in 1962/63.

From the Artistes column it will be seen that groups predominated—this was also the case in Britain where, besides The Beatles, several other Liverpool born groups from the Epstein stable, had considerable chart success. Gerry and the Pacemakers made it with "I Like It," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "I'm The One" and "Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying" the last two penned by Gerry himself and released on Columbia. On Parlophone Billy J. Kramer and The Dakotas made it with "Do You Want To Know A Secret;" "Bad To Me;" "I'll Keep You Satisfied" and "Little Children" while The Dakotas rang the bell without Billy J. with an instrumental tagged "The Cruel Sea." Another Epstein group, The Fourmost, had two in a row with "Hello Little Girl" and "I'm In Love" on Parlophone. Other groups registered formidably during the year—The Searchers on Pye had four major transatlantic hits with "Sweets For My Sweet;" "Sugar And Spice;" "Needles And Pins" and "Don't Throw Your Love Away." They also made the charts with their albums. The Swinging Blue Jeans more successful on disk than on stage entered cessful on disk than on stage entered the charts with "Hippy Hippy Shake"; "Good Golly Miss Molly" and "You're No Good" on HMV. After The Beatles the most successful group of the year both here and in America from E.M.I. has been The Dave Clark Five. Dave hit the jackpot with "Glad All Over"; "Bits and Pieces" and "Can't You See That She's Mine". Brian Poole and the Tremeloes on Decca consolidated their position with "Twist and Shout"; "Do You Love Me"; "Candy Man" and "Someone, Someone". Freddie and the Dreamers on Columbia with their natural flair for comedy had a zany trilogy with "I'm Telling You Now"; "You Were Made For Me" and "Over You". They also made an impressive screen appearance in "Just For You".

The Shadows with or without Cliff Richard, and despite the Liverpool sound, deservedly remain one of Britain's best selling groups both at home and overseas. Their five singles have all made the Top Twenty—"Atlantis", "Shindig", Geronimo", "Theme For Young Lovers" and "The Rise and Fall of Flingel Bunt", on Columbia. The Merseybeats took the Fontana label into the charts with "I Tthink Of You"; "Don't Turn Round" and currently "Wishin' and Hopin'" whilst The Four Pennies rolled neatly into the charts first time round with "Juliet" on Philips. The Hollies biggest hit on Parlophone was "Stay" and The Miguel Five brought the Jamaican bluebeat or ska to the front with "Mocking Bird Hill" on Pye. Away from the beat and into the old ballads went The Bachelors scoring high selling hits with "Whispering"; "Diane"; "I Believe" and "Ramona". Several new groups with r & b tendencies have come to the front in line with the growing popularity of this kind of music. Manfred Mann entered the parade with "5-4-3-2-1" and "Hubble Bubble" on HMV. The Animals made it first time round with "Baby Let Me Take You Home" and the swift chart topper "House Of The Rising Sun" on Columbia. The Mojos clicked with "Everything's All Right" on Decca and the more pop slanted Applejacks rode high for Decca with "Tell Me When" and "Like Dreamers Do". Of the r & b boys the biggest impact was made by The Rolling Stones who created a long haired image matched by mean sounding music over a heavy beat. The Stones gathered plenty of sales, if no moss, with "Come On"; I Wanna Be Your Man"; "Not Fade Away" and "It's All Over Now." They also hit the album charts. Despite their popularity here they found the antiseptic, crew-cut Americans less responsive to their long haired charms. Surprises of the year were Ken Thorne's "Legion's Last Patrol" and "Maria Elena" by Los Indios Tabajaras and both proved to be one-shot phenomena. Solo artistes, though less in evidence than usual, have been by no means submerged by the avalanche of groups. It's been a particularly good year for the thrushes so, ladies first, alphabetically if you please. The song stylist Shirley Bassay modestly made it with "I (Who Have Nothing)" on Columbia; Cilla Black another Nems protege having tasted chart success with "Love of the Loved" really got her teeth into it with two No. 1 hits: "Anyone Who Had A Heart" and "You're My World" on Parlophone. Dora Bryan found herself a seasonal winner with "All I Want For Christmas Is A Beatle" (Fontana) and The Caravelles soft harmonising duo had a transatlantic hit with "You Don't Have To Be a Baby To Cry" (Decca/Ritz) which also won them a Cash Box International Silver Award. Kathy Kirby with a band-singing apprenticeship behind her attracted the solo limelight and formidable sales with "Dance On"; "Secret Love"; "Let Me Go Lover" and "You're The One" for Decca. 15 year old Lulu from Scotland decided to "Shout" and bubble her way into the charts whilst Jamaican born Millie (Small by name) had a resounding bluebeat ska success with "My Boy Lollipop" on Fontana (another Cash Box International Silver Award winner) followed by "Sweet William". Alphabetically last but by no means least in terms of sales is Dusty Spr..gfield. Since the demise of the group Dusty has gone it alone with singular success as hit after hit has taken her high in the British and American charts. "I Only Want To Be With You" "Stay Awhile" and biggest of all "I Just Don't Know What To Do With Myself" on Philips. To climax her year American disk jockeys have voted her the Fourth Most Promising Female Singer in the Cash Box Annual Disk Jockey Poll. She was also a Cash Box International Silver Award winner for "Wishin' and Hopin'". Solo males also dug their heels in during 1963/64. Still firmly in the lead is Cliff Richard who continues to polish the many facets of his glittering career. Two more Gold Disks for "Lucky Lips" and "The Next Time"/"Bachelor Boy" brought his total to four while his "It's All In The Game"; "Don't Talk To Him"; "I'm The Lonely One" and "Constantly" have taken him high in the charts. At the time of writing he is heading for the top with "On The Beach" from his third and latest box office movie "Wonderful Life". The year has also taken him on a triumphant record-breaking round-the-world tour. Frank Ifield topped with "I'm Confessin'" and registered with "Say It Isn't So" and "Angry At The Big Oak Tree". Both Cliff and Ifield record for Columbia. Adam Faith (Parlophone) made a welcome comeback with "The First Time"; "We Are In Love" and "If He Tells You". Another artiste to return to the charts was Eden Kane with "Boys Cry" on Fontana. Billy Fury parted company with his backing group The Tornadoes of "Telstar" fame and signed up The Gamblers. Together they enjoyed chart success with "When Will You Say I Love You"; "In Summer" "Some-body Elses Girl"; "Do You Really Love Me Too" and "I Will" all for Decca. Mark Wynter on Pye entered hitsville with "It's Almost Tomorrow". Ex-Tornado Heinz made it solo with "Just Like Eddie" and "Country Boy". Established favourites with major hits include Frankie Vaughan on Philips with "Hey Mama" and "Hello Dolly"; Matt Monro on Parlophone with "From Russia With Love". Kenny Ball had trad jazz hits with "Hello Dolly" preceded by "Acapulco 1922". Of the Americans who broke into the British dominated charts one of the most successful was Roy Orbison who, after 12 weeks there with "Blue Bayou" and a modest entry with "Bourne On The Wind", returned for another 12 weeks with "It's Over" and he is still there. He also made a highly successful personal tour of Britain and scored heavily in the album charts for London. Next on the list comes country & western singer Jim Reeves who sang his way into the charts with "Welcome To My World" which gave him a 10-week welcome to ours, followed by a 15-week stay with "I Love You Because". Reeves is currently all set for a long spell here with "I Won't Forget You" (RCA). Reeves also hit hard in the album sellers. Except for "Devil In Disguise" presely failed to impress. However Chuck Berry crested the r & b wave with "Memphis Tennessee" and "No Particular Place To Go" and then came ashore for his first highly successful British tour. He was also a consistent entry in the album lists for Pye. Successful crossings on disk were also made by Gene Pitney with "Twenty Four Hours From Tulsa"; Ray Charles "Take These Chains From My Heart"; Bobby Rydell "Forget Him"; Big Dee Irwin "Swinging On A Star"; Rick Nelson "Fools Rush In"; Tommy Roe "Everybody" and Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme "I Want To Stay Here". Trini Lopez hit the jackpot with "If I Had A Hammer" and his album "Trini Lopez at P.J's". He further enhanced his international reputation by a highly successful personal tour of Europe. Tony Bennett had chart success with "The Good Life" and Louis Armstrong firmly took the lead in the "Hello Dolly" stakes. A number of American larks migrated East headed by Brenda Lee with "I Wonder" and "As Usual". Dionne Warwick beaten to the post by Cilla Black with "Anyone Who Had A Heart" made amends with "Walk On By" and later wooed us in person. Although "It's My Party" by Lesley Gore turned out to be a one night affair Mary Wells really had a ball with the soul and r & b "My Guy" and got her first British chart rating. Doris Day making a rare appearance on single joined the chart riders with "Move Over Darling" from the film of the same title. Group wise the States still retained a chart foothold here particularly with the Phil Spector sound as exemplified by The Ronettes with "Be My Baby" and "Baby I Love You" and by The Crystals with "Da Doo Ron Ron". The Tymes made it with "So Much In Love" and Peter, Paul and Mary kept the folk flag flying with "Blowin' In The Wind". Generally speaking continental artistes still find it difficult to break into the British Top Twenty although during the past twelve months French star Richard Anthony managed it with "If I Loved You" as did the delightful Italian singer Gigliola Cinquetti with "Non Ho L'Eta Per Armati"—her Eurovision winner. However it was Soeur Sourire—The Singing Nun from Belgium who found the greatest glory in our charts with "Dominique" which went to No. 1 as it did in America and earned her the worldly prize of a Cash Box International Gold Award. More and more artistes from overseas are coming to Britain to record not only for our market but their own. By the same token more and more British artistes are recording in foreign languages with considerable success. In this category we name The Beatles (German); Cliff Richard (French, German, Spanish); Frank Ifield (German, Spanish); Helen Shapiro (German); Patsy Ann Noble (French, German); Johnny Kidd (German); Adam Faith (German); Alma Cogan (German, Japanese); The Searchers (German); Petula Clark (French); Kenny Ball (Italian, French); Louise Cordet (French); Dusty Springfield (German, Spanish, Italian, French); Millie (German); The Merseybeats (German, Italian).

There is no doubt that foreign language recordings backed by personal appearances in as many territories as possible, enhance the international reputation of English speaking artistes and reward them with increased record sales. However, it will be seen that in the same way that British artistes dominate the British charts so the territorial charts of Europe favour most strongly the recordings of their own countrymen whether they be cover versions of British or American hits or original local compositions. The year has seen a growing awareness by American manufacturers to these European trends and its effect on the international record scene. This nationalistic trend of the industry has been noted and several major American companies are adopting the axiom that "If Mohammed won't go to the mountain then the mountain must go to Mohammed". Already RCA and CBS have set up large scale operations within Europe which have brought them considerable chart success particularly with local artistes and local material. There are signs that other companies will follow suit as more and more representatives cross the Atlantic seeking suitable sites from which to springboard into Europe.

So much for the artistes and their hits but what of the men behind them. The army of unsung but not unrewarded heros whose tenacity, talent and training have taken Britain's teenage idols to the very top of the transatlantic charts and established them there for all the world to see. The men who, together with the artistes, are responsible for Britain's supremacy in the international recording market of today. First and foremost are the recording managers. In this category, despite the tremendous impact made by British recordings aroung the world, no giant has emerged during the past twelve months, either from within the established record companies or from the ranks of the independents. Therefore the honours list of 1964 varies little from that of last year. First in line for the accolade in undoubtedly E.M.I.'s George Martin, maestro for The Beatles. The partnership so far has resulted in record sales which, if reduced to single units, exceed 100,000,000. In April this year Martin paid his own tribute to the group by recording an L.P. entitled "From Me To You" released here on Parlophone and in the U.S. on United Artists. He did the orchestrations and also conducted the 37-piece orchestra. Martin is also responsible for recording, amongst others, Billy J. Kramer, Gerry and the Pacemakers and Cilla Black. EMI's team is completed by Norrie Paramor who records Cliff Richard, The Shadows and Frank Ifield. Wally Ridley, responsible for The Swinging Blue Jeans, Kenny Lynch and The Black and White Minstrel albums. Norman Newell who records Peter and Gordon, Danny Williams and Alma Cogan and his Assistant John Burgess who waxes Freddie and the Dreamers, Manfred Mann and Adam Faith. The Decca a & r department, under the leadership of Dick Rowe, is responsible for the label's recordings of Kathy Kirby, The Bachelors, Lulu and The Applejacks whilst recordings of their top stars such as The Rolling Stones, Heinz, Billy Fury, Brian Poole and the Tremeloes, P.J. Proby and The Mojos come to them via independent production companies. At Pye senior a & r manager Alan Freeman is responsible for recording The Miguel Five, Kenny Ball, Lonnie Donegan and Petula Clark whilst Tony Hatch records The Searchers and Mark Wynter. The Pye a & r team was recently strengthened by the arrival of John Schroeder. At Philips Johnny Franz fully justified Dusty Springfield's decision to go solo and gave Frankie Vaughan major chart entries. Jack Baverstock on Fontana came up with Millie plus The Four Pennies and all the hits by The Merseybeats. Oriole's senior a & r chief Reg Warburton remains in control and Polydor, now in the production field, have appointed Johnny Francis as a & r chief.

The hard core of established independents continue to gain ground and slowly but surely are winning their sometimes desperate but more often, deserving, fight for recognition. Denis Preston of Record Supervision is investing more time and money into quality albums and specialised merchandise. He is currently building up a catalogue of Elizabethan music and the first albums by American singer Austin Luskell are due in the autumn together with an album of madrigals by The Elizabethan Singers. All will be issued by E.M.I. on the HMV label. Jazz-wise Preston is still active and many new, way-out recordings are about to be unleashed. Bunny Lewis switched his Ritz label from Decca to Philips for release on Fontana/Ritz and during the year has enjoyed transatlantic chart status with The Caravelles and Christine Quaite. From Joe Meek's R.G.M. Sound Studios, Heinz emerged as a solo star with three consecutive hits. Tito Burns, whose independent Lindon Record company leases masters to various majors reports increased activity during the past year. Their a & r team headed by Bill Landis has been responsible for several chart entries including Eden Kane's "Boys Cry" issued on Fontana. Their next charter is expected to come from The Interns with "Cry To Me" on Philips. Robert Stigwood's independent recording activities have been less successful, both Mike Sarne and John Leyton failing to consolidate their positions, though the latter is now fully occupied with films. However, with the appointment of Hubert Patterson, late of Gallo Records South Africa, to the Production Department, plus the launching of a new star Simon Scott, hopes are high for the future. Three new important companies have entered the field namely Ryemuse under the direction of M.D. Johnny Gregory, whose avowed production policy of quality albums is matched by technically perfect studios equipped with all the latest recording refinements. Gregory's independent set-up leases albums to various major labels. With 12 years of musical experience behind him, 15,000 records including backings for 23 hits in the Top Ten, Gregory understands the needs of first class musicians. His studios have been designed to offer them working conditions which are at once compatible and conducive to an artistic and creative temperament.

Another M.D. John Barry whose non-exclusive association with Ember Records has enabled him to open up on his own, actuated J.B. Independent Record Productions Ltd. He will continue to score both for stage and screen. Another newcomer, Strand Records, under the leadership of Peter Walsh with the a & r team headed by Mike Smith (late of Decca) are responsible for the Brian Poole and the Tremeloes string of successes.

A major issue of Britain's record year has been the question of resale price maintenance. The problem which has been simmering away for some considerable time, hotted up during the fall of 1963 as the trading stamp battle gathered momentum and came to the boil in Februray this year when the Government announced its plans to abolish RPM without delay. The industry was quick to react and almost to a man came out firmly against the threat to price structure. Nevertheless the bill received the Royal Assent last week, went into the State Statute Book, and is now law. At the time of writing details of the bill in published form are not available. However, the practice of complete resale price maintenance does not become immediately illegal as the bill provides manufacturers and traders, who seek to justify their restructions, with the right of appeal to a judicial tribunal. As soon as the procedure is made known members of the record industry will go forward, either individually or in consort, to register their existing price arrangements. That done they will be permitted, under the Act, to continue RPM until such time as their cases come up for hearing.

Another bone of contention or rather skull and crossbones has been that of Britain's pirate radio ships. First came Radio Caroline flying the Panamanian flag and operating from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in international waters five miles out. Radio Atlanta soon appeared alongside to fire a second salvo of non-stop pop music from dawn to dusk. The Government signalled its intention to torpedo the venture but got cold feet, hoisted the white flag and, like Nelson, turned a blind eye on the whole affair. Thus, for the time being at least, Caroline and Atlanta rule the waves by day whilst Radio Luxembourg transmits non-stop from 6:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. Undoubtedly these sea-based operations have their repercussions on land resulting in the Government's decision to review the whole question of commercial broadcasting in this country. However, the outcome is largely dependent on the result of the General Election in October which could be crucial for British broadcasting. If a conservative administration is returned it is confidently anticipated that legislation to make commercial radio a reality will be introduced but if a socialist government is elected the consequences in this direction become entirely unpredictable. Meantime, in July, the long standing dispute between the B.B.C. and the Musicians' Union concerning needle time, was amicably settled resulting in permission for the BBC to increase its record playing time from 28 to 75 hours per week. Manufacturers' fears that this might lead to over exploitation to the detriment of sales particularly in the pop field were allayed when the Corporation announced its plans. More than 50 per cent of the increased time will be devoted to classical music thus giving L.P. records a very welcome promotional boost—the Corporation also guaranteed that the extra time given to pops and light music would be subject to careful and selective programming. With this increased time at their disposal it is up to the BBC to ensure that in future British writers and material get a considerably better share of the programmes than in the past. The Songwriters Guild of Great Britain reports that in 1963 the BBC broadcast 49,335 items of American music, 8,299 foreign items and only 37,213 British. Our national writers have never been more prolific or their material so much in demand around the world. So in future let the BBC pay the piper and call the tune—so long as it's British. One plum fell into the lap of British writers and composers during the year in the form of an increase in dues payable by promoters of concerts and cinema managers. In future two per cent of the gross takings will go to the P.R.S. whereas previously they received only one per cent of three-quarters of the total box office receipts.

RECORD COMPANIES

For E.M.I. it has been a year of unqualified success not only at home but all over the world where records bearing the company's newly designed symbol or image have reached an astronomical all-time high. In February shareholders were told that group profits for the current financial year would not be less than £8,000,000 three million up on the previous year due largely to the spectacular success of the Record Division which, for the first seven months of the financial year, showed an increase in world sales of 12 per cent. Three months later, in May, a bonus issue of one ordinary share for each unit of ordinary stock was made. Much of this success of, of course, due to The Beatles who, since their emergence in October 1962 have notched up world sales fast approaching the equivalent of 100,000,000 single units. The group's boost to EMI sales around the world can be gauged by the fact that in one week they topped the charts in no less than eight countries. However, many other artistes, both solo and groups, have played their part in making this such a memorable year for E.M.I. Records Ltd. Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Frank Ifield, Cilla Black, Rolf Harris, Shirley Bassey, Gerry and the Pacemakers, Billy J. Kramer, The Dave Clark Five, The Swinging Blue Jeans and The Hollies to name but a few. On the administrative side it can be said that the high level executive changes within the Organisation made last year "to strengthen still further the company's progress and profitability" have been justified. During the year several new and important labels have been added to their already formidable list. In September the acquisition of the Tamla-Motown-Gordy r & b catalogue gave them Mary Wells who quickly registered with "My Guy". Contracts were also signed with Global, Imperial, Jazz-Press, Prestige and 20th Century Fox. Contracts were extended and renewed with Diamond, Laurie, United Artists and Verve. This year EMI also introduced a new series of language disks and resurrected the Regal-Zonophone label on which they issued the gospel singing JoyStrings and later the Hot Six Pops.

A major event of the Decca year has been the introduction in September last of the new Dynagroove sound evolved by RCA Victor. The first ten L.P. releases came in October of which four were classical and six pops.

England— The Past Twelve Months

A further nine were issued in November. About this time an important move was made by Decca's Promotion Division from their inadequate quarters in Hanover Square to a magnificent new suite of offices in Marlborough Street. The new found accommodation was put to good use in January this year when Decca, with a demonstration of British hospitality at its best, welcomed more than 60 American distributors of the London label to Britain. In terms of anglo-American goodwill the five-day visit was an unqualified success, culminating in a banquet hosted by Decca Chairman, Sir Edward Lewis. Another notable reception hosted by Decca marked the sale of one million albums of RCA Victor's "South Pacific" soundtrack L.P. Composer Richard Rodgers flew in for the occasion and was presented with a commemorative plaque. Other awards went to Sir Edward Lewis and Louis Dreyfus, Chairman of Chappell & Co. publishers of "South Pacific". Further evidence of Decca's promotional progress came in May when the company invited 8 top American salesmen to Britain. The guests were nominated by London Records, America, for selling the most album during "March Is Mantovani Month". During the year Decca artistes have enjoyed increased sales and with them increased chart ratings. Native talent has forged ahead with established stars such as Billy Fury, Kathy Kirby, Heinz, Lulu, The Bachelors, The Applejacks, The Rolling Stones, Brian Poole and The Tremeloes and The Mojos.

Philips have had another good year with a turnover for the first six months of 1964 15 per cent up on 1963. British artistes have enjoyed considerable commercial success on both sides of the Atlantic. Established charter Frankie Vaughan had two major hits the biggest being his current version of the transatlantic smash "Hello Dolly". Dusty Springfield survived the group's voluntary break-up to emerge as a major solo artiste with a string of successes and a brilliant future. Philips has a sensational find in Millie, "My Boy Lollipop" making the charts in England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, South Africa, Australia and, last but not least, the United States of America. During the year the company jumped on the group wagon with The Merseybeats, The Four Pennies and more recently The Pretty Things. A timely arrival on the British scene by Soeur Sourire (The Singing Nun) at the end of 1963 gave Philips one of the country's biggest seasonal sellers with "Dominique". About the same time, Barbra Streisand who, despite critical acclaim, had failed to score with "My Coloring Book" turned the tables with her Barbra Streisand Albums. Philips celebrated the New Year by taking over sole manufacturing and distributing rights of the Mercury label and to mark Shakespeare's quatercentenary launched a point-of-sales campaign for the Caedmon Shakespeare recordings. On Fontana Jazz singer Cleo Laine paid her tribute with "My Friend The Bard". Leslie Gould, General Manager of Philips believes that uncommercial as jazz is in this country it is very important that the great names of the day be recorded for posterity and, in this respect, Philips and Fontana are to be congratulated in building up one of the finest jazz catalogues in Britain today. Looking to the future Gould predicts even greater success for our national products. CBS releases by Philips included the soundtrack L.P. from the film "The Rise And Fall of the Roman Empire" and a Dave Brubeck "Time Changes" album and a single "Nomad" were issued coincidental with the jazzman's British tour earlier this year. Highlight of the CBS year in Europe was their 1964 convention staged at Torremolinos, Spain in May and attended by over 40 licencees and distributors.

Yet another important and progressive year for Pye Records during which the company has increased both its interest and reputation in the world record market. Following their success with Reprise, Cameo-Parkway, Chess, Checker and Argo the company's Managing Director, Louis Benjamin, has made a series of transatlantic crossings resulting in several more major acquisitions. In October 1963 the catalogues of Dimension and Sceptre were added to the repertoire; the former with a roster of artistes including Little Eva, and Big Dee Irwin were issued on the Colpix label while Sceptre with Dionne Warwick and The Shirelles going out on Pye International. In January this year Pye completed a deal with Hickory Records giving the company its own label in this country, and Pye a strong country and folk music catalogue. The latest additions to Pye's family tree are Dot for release on its own label in September and Red Bird recently at the top of the American charts with "A Chapel Of Love". During the year Pye introduced the Top Six label offering six top hits for the price of one, and the celebrated Golden Guinea L.Ps took a classical turn with the Collector series of works by Janacek, Berlios, Hayden and Walton. More and more artistes from Pye's overseas labels came to London to record in the company's studios including Bobby Rydell, Chubby Checker, Sammy Davis Jnr. and Trini Lopez. Pye's British artistes made a great impact in the local singles, L.P. and E.P. charts and in one week claimed eleven out of the Top Twenty L.Ps. In America The Searchers entered the Top 100 in March since when they have taken up permanent residence. Pye also introduced several top line artistes to Britain for the first time with considerable chart success i.e. Bo Diddley, Dee Dee Sharp, Trini Lopez, Big Dee Irwin, Dionne Warwick and perhaps greatest of all Chuck Berry who, at one time, was simultaneously in the singles, E.P. and L.P. charts.

Oriole report that the annual turnover for the past twelve months exceeded anything it had achieved in previous year. Work was started and is progressing on the company's new factory scheduled for completion at the end of the year at a cost of over $400,000. During the year a fleet of mobile vans was added to their independent sales force giving direct manufacturer-to-dealer service. Reg Warburton has been appointed senior a & r manager and the company is now expanding its department by contracting independent producers. Oriole, too, has cashed in on the Liverpool sound and enjoyed good sales especially with their albums "This Is Merseybeat Vols 1 & 2". The company's Realm label which, by nature as by name, embraces all kinds of music from jazz to classics is also a valuable outlet for operatic recordings from the Italian Cetra catalogue. Oriole also enjoyed considerable success in America via their Christine Quaite release "Tell Me Mama".

Shortly after launching their new image just a year ago Ember Records achieved a chart entry with their biggest selling L.P. of all time, the controversial "Fool Brittania". Chad and Jeremy gave them another chart entry with their single "Yesterday's Gone" and are now proving an international hit in the United States, Australia and Scandinavia. Ember saw 1963 out with John Barry's L.P. "From Russia With Love" and kicked off 1964 with his original soundtrack L.P. "Zulu" now released in the States on United States. Under their agreement with Starday, Ember issued the first 12 L.Ps in a special country & western series and introduced continental artistes into their catalogue for the first time notably Maurice Chevalier and Charles Aznavour. Ember boss, Jeff Kruger, reports a marked increase in export trade with the Ember logo now available in 29 territories.

For Transatlantic Records it has been a year of remarkable expansion culminating in the acquisition of three new labels—Storyville, the Danish jazz and blues label which they will license and press in Great Britan; Xtra, a low-priced folk label produced jointly with Folkways of New York: and the MK label of Soviet classical material which Transatlantic will be launching in September. These acquisitions and the reported boom in their other lines, notably Folkways, make Transatlantic an independent with a tremendous catalogue both in range, quality and quantity. Nathan Joseph, the company's Director, claims to be selling 60 per cent of all folk L.Ps sold in Britain. During the past year Transatlantic has doubled its staff to cope with the rapid growth and has also formed an associate music publishing company, Heathside Music.

Nothing but a success report for Argo, specialists in the art of spoken word recordings. Under the guidance of Director Harley Usil the company's home sales are up by 32 per cent and export sales by 33 per cent, with the largest increase in Australia and New Zealand, where the import quota is unable to meet the demand and it has been necessary to press approximately 50 percent of the catalogue locally. In America where the Argo product is now being imported for release on its own label via London Records, royalties for the six months ending 31st March were exactly double the same period last year. Understandably in Quatercentenary Year the best seller in the first batch of releases has been "Homage To Shakespeare". Argo's major achievement has been the completion (on time) of recording all the plays of Shakespeare—the culmination of seven years work resulting in 137 12" L.Ps plus stereo versions of 31 of the 37 plays. So far 350,000 L.Ps have been sold.

Still in the world of spoken word Leomark have now recorded 22 of the 30 12" L.Ps needed to complete their New Living Bible project which they expect to accomplish within the next six months. Four recordings comprising the Act of the Apostles have been added during the past twelve months in which period Leomark have also reduced their price from 36/- to 29/8d and successfully opened up the North American market where distribution is handled by World Records Inc. of Texas. For the future Leomark plan to enter the educational field where their special skill in spoken word recordings, developed over the years, may be further employed.

Delyse Records celebrate their tenth anniversary by announcing a 700 per cent increase in turnover since they added the facilities of EMI's factoring organisation to their distribution outlets in October 1963. Besides EMI the Delyse product enjoys nation wide distribution in this country via all the major factors and has strong representation in the United States, Canada and the Commonwealth. Further expansion in the world market is inevitable and in anticipation of this the company is undertaking an intensive programme of new recordings to add to their unique and specialised, yet varied and commercial, catalogue which it is hoped to double by the end of the year. Meantime, the best selling releases during the past twelve months have been "A Nation Sings" and the mono and stereo series of recordings by the Band of the Life Guards.

Polydor (DGG) subsidiary of the parent company in Hamburg, Germany, also celebrate their tenth anniversary this year and to mark the occasion are entering the production sphere for the first time. Polydor plan to build a roster of British artistes and material both for the home and overseas markets. During the past year the company has basked in a certain amount of reflected glory by releasing several early Beatles singles with marked success notably "My Bonnie" and "Ain't She Sweet".

Melodisc Records, an independent with a strong bias towards off-beat recordings has, in the past year, struck gold with bluebeat which they introduced to this country via "Madness" by Prince Buster—the first major hit to emerge on Melodisc Bluebeat label, to be followed by the same artiste's "Wash All Your Troubles Away". They have also notched up healthy sales with "Telephone" by Derrick Morgan and more recently "Ball and Chain" by Johnny and the Bluebeats. Despite their success with bluebeat Melodisc continue to benefit from their extensive folk music catalogue including the Leadbelly classics whilst English exponents of folk such as Steve Benbow and John Runger remain steady sellers.

Esquire Records continue to issue a quantity of jazz recordings by the world's top artistes but realising that today one cannot live by jazz alone, Managing Director, Carlo Kramer, leans mainly on his subsidiary Starlite label with its catalogue of gospel, strict tempo, country & western and r & b material.

Likewise Collector Records, whilst maintaining their previous catalogues of jazz, folk and flamenco, are expanding their interests, too, into the r & b and country fields. They also plan to build up a folk catalogue from countries such as Mexico, Honduras and Peru.

Ireland's own record company, aptly named Emerald, have just opened new studios in Belfast where again production is slanted at r & b, and folk, with releases already out by local groups, Them, and The Glen Folk Four. The company has also released the first L.Ps in a series of religious music from the American Skylite catalogue.

R & B Records founded in October 1963 by Mr. and Mrs. Isen established dealers of 15 years standing, specialise in pop, jazz and, as the name implies, r & b music. They recently acquired the Prima catalogue from which they released "A Thinking Man's Sax" by Louis Prima and Sam Butera. R & B recently added publishing to their activities with the formation of Reindeer Music managed by Ron Lockyer.

Another new indie, Solar Records, came into being during the year and plan to discover, sign and record British artistes and build a catalogue incorporating all the latest musical trends.

In the low-priced field Pickwick International celebrated their first year's business with a visit from the President, Cy Leslie. Fastest selling lines have proved to be the "Happy Time" 7" kiddie albums and the recently launched Allegro series of 12" L.Ps retailing at 10/-. Ranging from pops to classics the albums are available via regular dealers and rack jobbers.

Over to publishing where, once again, we find British material accounting for 50 per cent of the year's Best Selling Sheet Music. The impact of British recordings around the world has had its repercussions in London's Tin Pan Alley where the publishers of original British hits are much in demand. More and more publishers from overseas have made their way to London during the past year and many lucrative deals have been clinched. Closer liaison between British publishers and their continental counterparts in neighbouring countries have brought about an increasing number of 50/50 deals which are proving far more acceptable and practical than the advance deals of yesterday. This integration of ideas and togetherness is something which American publishers would do well to emulate in their dealings with Britain and the continent. In June this year the 23rd Congress of International Federation of Authors and Composers took place in London hosted by the Performing Right Society who also celebrated their Golden Jubilee. The meeting was attended by over 200 members representing 50 societies in 33 countries. There have been several comings and goings amongst publishing personnel —Jack Heath and Roy Lockyer exited from Good/Baton and Southern respectively. Heath to join the new Rosa

England— The Past Twelve Months

Music Company and Lockyer to manage Reindeer Music in association with R & B Records. Roy Pitt moved from Filmusic to replace Heath at Baton and Peter Callender switched from Mellin to Shapiro Bernstein. Hal Shaper left Robbins to start up his own Sparta Music, Les Conn parted company with Melcher to join the Dick James Organisation as did Kevin Henry from Decca to take over as Press Officer for Dick James. Tin Pan Alley mourned the loss of two major publishing personalities during the year—Lawrence 'Horatio Nichols' Wright, Grand Old Man of Denmark Street, and Reg Connelly of Campbell-Connelly. Tragedy came to Chappell & Co. in a disastrous fire which completely gutted their Bond Street offices and showrooms costing one life and injuring Director, Teddy Holmes. The Rank Organisation discontinued their publishing activities and withdrew from Film Music and Harry Lewis' Marlyn Music was taken over by Aberbach. Once again the title of 'Publisher of the Year' must go to Dick James who celebrated his second anniversary by moving his rapidly growing empire into a new suite of offices. His fantastic success in the British charts was repeated in America. Out of the 28 British copyrights which entered the Cash Box Top 100 during the year 12 were originals from within the Dick James Organisation. In April when the Beatles had the American Top Five his organisation published four of them. Other transatlantic hits included Peter & Gordon's No. 1 smash "A World Without Love"; "Bad To Me" by Billy J. Kramer and "Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying" by Gerry and the Pacemakers. American covers of British originals brought him further rewards notably Ella Fitzgerald's "Can't Buy Me Love". James also had considerable success on the continent where copyrights have been waxed by top artistes including Claude Francois, Sheila, Johnny Hallyday and Richard Anthony. From England Dick James created via The Searchers recording of "Needles and Pins" a world wide hit for Metric Music with whom he has a joint association in Britain with Liberty Records. Pursuing the policy of associating with progressive American companies James clinched a representation deal with Melcher Music and California Music thus bringing many notable film scores under the Dick James banner. Southern Music have also been fortunate in having a continuous string of hits—a large percentage of them being British compositions and recordings. They, too, had success overseas notably with "Chin Chin" (originally a British song "Cheat Cheat" by Charles Blackwell). Contract writer Geoff Stevens has emerged as a hit writer for Southern with "Tell Me When" waxed by The Applejacks on Decca to his credit. Major hits of the year have included "Good Golly Miss Molly" by The Swinging Blue Jeans, "Just Like Eddie" and "Country Boy" by Heinz and "Not Fade Away" by The Rolling Stones. Southern is currently happy with The Beatles "Long Tall Sally", "Tobacco Road" by The Nashville Teens and "How Can I Tell Her" by The Fourmost. Francis Day & Hunter, Feldman, Robbins group have also had a good year. F.D. & H. had a winner with "Atlantis" by The Shadows and more recently with "Ramona" by The Bachelors whose Decca recording has given the 1927 copyright a new lease of life. They also had a success with "Song of Mexico" by Tony Meehan on Decca and Frank Ifield's "Say It Isn't So". After 35 years with the company Ray Thackeray retired and was succeeded as a Director and General Manager by David Day. Ben Nisbet, General Manager of Feldman was also appointed a Director of that company which had some notable successes during the year, two from Freddie and the Dreamers "I'm Telling You Now" and "If You Gotta Make A Fool of Someone". Feldman also published the book "How To Write A Hit Song" by composer Mitch Murray. Robbins had their biggest hit with "I Think Of You" by The Merseybeats and also won an Ivor Novello Award for the year's outstanding orchestral and instrumental composition "Carlos Theme" by Ivor Slaney (second place in this category going to F.D. & H. for Jerry Lordan's "Scarlett O'Hara". Despite the disastrous fire Chappells had another hit packed year. Showwise they handle the scores of "She Loves Me" and Drury Lane's latest spectacle "Camelot". Although "Hello Dolly" is not due here until later this year the Chappell group have had one of its biggest hits ever with the title song led by Louis Armstrong's version. From the screen came the score of "The Finest Hours" and picking a few random plums from the Top Twenty we come up with "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Gerry and the Pacemakers; "It's Over" by Roy Orbison; "No Particular Place To Go" by Chuck Berry; "My Boy Lollipop" by Millie and "I Only Want To Be With You" by Dusty Springfield. Ardmore & Beechwood, EMI's publishing house have enjoyed many chart entries on both sides of the Atlantic. The Beatles brought them a double with "Love Me Do" and "P.S. I Love You" whilst two more major hits came from The Dave Clark Five "Bits and Pieces" and "Can't You See That She's Mine". The Swinging Blue Jeans gave them "Hippy Hippy Shake." During the year the pubbery's chief Sid Coleman paid his first visit to the United States. Ardmore & Beechwood also formed a subsidiary company, Artistes Promotion Ltd. headed by Chris Peers for the purpose of finding new recording artistes and d.j's etc. Its been another year of expansion for the Burlington Palace group of companies, Decca's publishing outlet. In October John Merrit was appointed Promotion Manager for the group. B sides have proved financially rewarding whilst commercially they have enjoyed long term successes with Brian Poole and the Tremeloes "Someone, Someone" and the two Jim Reeves hits "Welcome To My World" and "I Won't Forget You." Currently they are pinning their hopes on Roger Miller and his original American smash "Dang Me." Following the death of Reg Connelly a certain reorganisation change has taken place within the Campbell-Connelly group. Roy Berry while continuing as General Manager was appointed to the Board of Directors as was Miss L. Young, for many years Personal Secretary to Reg Connelly. Another appointment was that given to George Seymour who becomes a Director of Cinephonic Music. Berry recently visited America acquiring and placing material and on his return set up in the disk production field with a new company Cee Cee Productions. Mike Collier who recently returned after an eight year spell in America has been appointed a & r manager. During the year Ivy Music, a subsidiary of the Campbell-Connelly group had a major hit with "Glad All Over" by The Dave Clark Five. During the past twelve months

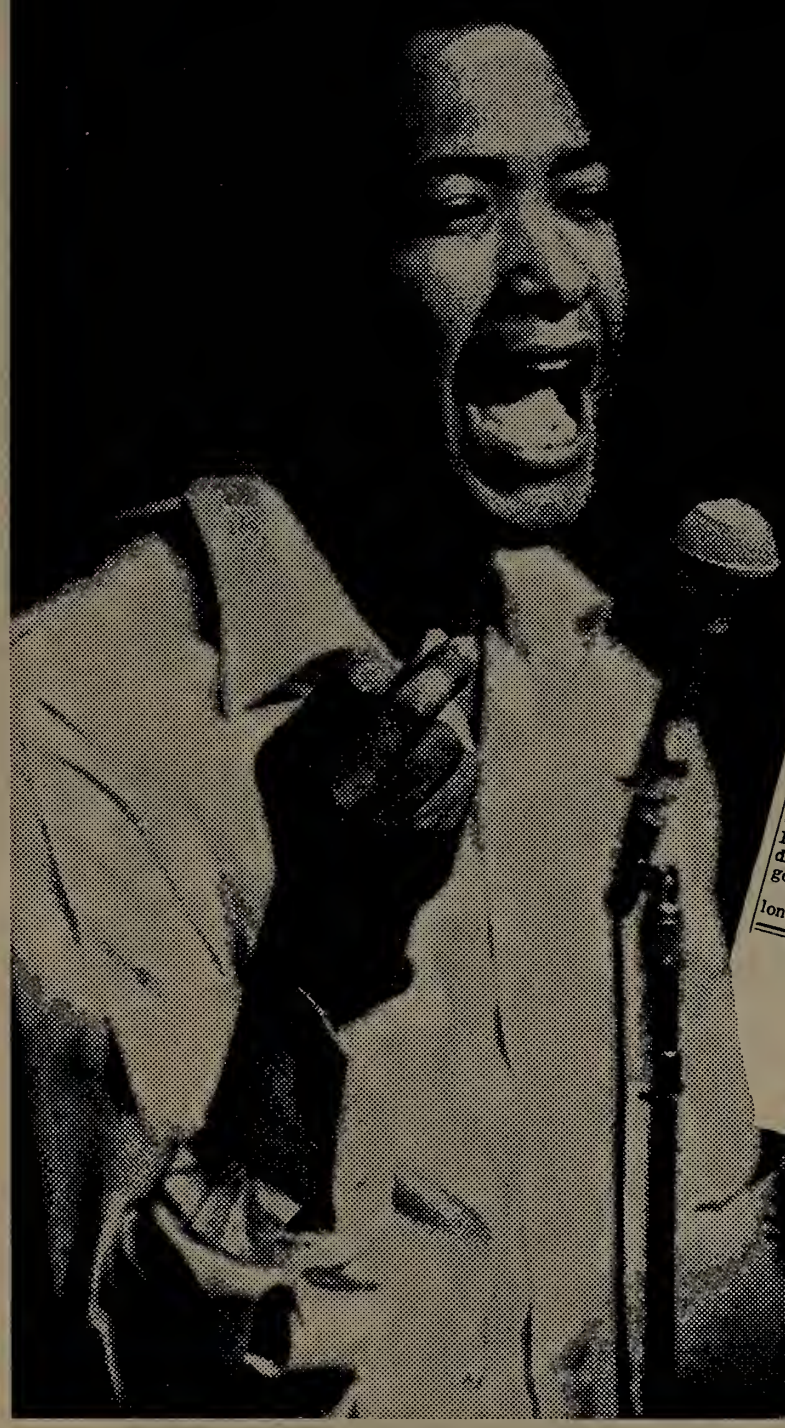
SAM COOKE



THE NEW YORK TIMES, TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1964.

Sam Cooke Mixes Rhythm and Feeling

Young Singer Appears at the Copacabana

By ROBERT ALDEN

"Man, that cat makes a riot at the record counters," was the way one youthful enthusiast of contemporary music described Sam Cooke. "He's a dreamy bit of merchandise, real wild and real big. RCA has latched on to a winner."

If the description is not fully understood, it remains serviceable. Mr. Cooke is a hot item. In the last year and one-half, he has made eight recordings. All of them sold in the top ten. The result was a riot at the record counters—total sales of more than 10 million copies.

Most of the elders will not have heard of young Mr. Cooke. But he is gunning for them.

"You know those old cats," Mr. Cooke says. "They don't go out much. A lot of them are lonely. They need records. They need them worse than anybody. I'm going to sell them."

Ending 2-Week Stand

Mr. Cooke may sell the elders. He is now winding up a two-week stand at the Copacabana —hardly a teen-age soda fountain. Considering the season, it has been a successful run. Mr. Cooke puts on a good show for the sunburned patrons of the room.

Mr. Cooke is on the big, shiny nightclub floor for just short of an hour. A thin talent becomes transparent in all that space of time. Mr. Cooke's talent stands the test. It may surprise, but he has dignity, humility and feeling to go with a strong voice.

The performance is not by a long shot all good. Mr. Cooke shuffle-rhythms his way through "Grandfather's Clock," the sad song about the faithful clock that stopped running when the elderly grandfather died. The way Mr. Cooke sings the number a person who does not understand English would assume that it was a song about a little girl hippity-hopping down to the candy store to buy herself a lollipop.

The empty style is not so much a question of Mr. Cooke lacking compassion for old men as it is of his loving the shuffling rhythm more. It was shuffling rhythm, not compassion, that sold all of those records. Rhythm, the shuffling beat and the big beat, are strong points for Mr. Cooke. But as the program moves along another ally is discovered. Mr. Cooke, the son of a Baptist minister, is a man steeped in the Negro spiritual tradition. He is at his very best when he sings those spirituals. In them Mr. Cooke blends rhythm and feeling.

As for Mr. Cooke's popular items, he can sing a rocking-socking twist with the best of the leather-lunged set. He can call upon a falsetto style that would inspire teen-agers present. shrieks were teen-age Like the heart of an artichoke, Mr. Cooke has a leaf for everyone. He even sings Bessie Smith's "Nobody wants you when you're down and out." It is a creditable, if not memorable rendition and carries a philosphy to which most of the Copa patrons would subscribe.

In the years to come, more will be heard of Mr. Cooke. His is a talent that can grow.

On the bill with Mr. Cooke is Lee Allen, a talented tap dancer and a resourceful comic, well seasoned in the borscht belt, spiritual home of many of the best funny men in the business.

"I don't mind if you eat," Mr. Allen says to a man whose face is buried in his shrimp cocktail. "But please try to chew in my direction."

To round out the show there are the Copa girls—shining, radiant, ever-smiling. The girls do not appear to change much with the years. There are always beauties among them. Right now the temptress, second from the right in the rear row, is a dimpled fantasy. If her name were known it would be inscribed here to mark her for immortality.

England— The Past Twelve Months

Shapiro Bernstein have counted amongst their major hits "I (Who Have Nothing)" by Shirley Bassey, "White On White" by Danny Williams and three Billy Fury numbers "Like I've Never Been Gone"; "Do You Really Love Me Too" and "In Summer" the latter written for him by The Avons. The number has also been recorded in many countries of the world including France where it was a very big hit for Claude Francois entitled "En Revant A Noel" and selling over a half a million copies. Another Shapiro Bernstein copyright which Francois took into the continental charts was "Every Day I Have To Cry." Sidney Bron enjoyed a second-time-round hit with his "Dance On." Originally an instrumental charter for The Shadows it returned to the charts as a vocal hit for Kathy Kirby. Bron also had an American chart entry via Bobby Shafto's single "She's My Girl" published in the States by Lenny Hodes. Bron also entered the independent recording field by setting up D. B. Productions Ltd. headed by Gerry Bron and M. D. Syd Dale. Bron also won an Ivor Novello Award for The Second Most Broadcast Work of the Year "Dance On." Jimmy and Bill Philips of K.P.M. after an excellent year which included charters such as "Diane" by The Bachelors and "Sweet William" by Millie have just had their biggest hit of all with The Animals No. 1 charter "The House Of The Rising Sun." Sales are now getting on for the million mark. Harold Geller's newly formed Lynn Music got away to a good start with "Johnny Janvier" recorded by Sonny Blake on Ember. The number is also coming out in Germany where it will be published by Minerva and in Italy where it is published by Curci. Besides publishing Geller's activities expand into the management and recording fields. During the year Lionel Bart's Apollo Music, under the management of Leslie Paul, clinched a deal with the Italian publishing house of Cielo Girl to handle their copyrights in the U. K. Bart is currently pre-occupied putting the finishing touches to his latest musical "Maggie May." Dominion Music and its subsidiary companies under the direction of Noel Rogers has removed to new and spacious offices in Knightsbridge. During the year his major hits have included "Do You Love Me" by Brian Poole and the Tremeloes and the Aldon copyright "I Want To Stay Here" by Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme. Freddie Poser of Poser Music paid his first visit to the United States and at home enjoyed a visit to chartsville with Adam Faith's "The First Time" and "We Are In Love." Last but not least he had a big hit with Gene Pitney's "That Girl Belongs To Yesterday." Marquis Music came up with their first chart entry "Not Too Little Not Too Much" by actor/singer Chris Sandford. Marquis also entered artist/management the first signing being The Zombies who have recorded for Decca. The Phoenix group of companies also entered into artist/management. Their first signing being a group called The U.K's who record for Columbia. Mellin Music had a long and sustained hit with "Twist And Shout" and Essex Music acquired an equal partnership interest in the publishing houses of Jazz Music Ltd. and Key Music Ltd. owned by Johnny Dankworth. Essex had a major hit with "If I Had A Hammer" by Trini Lopez. The Lorna Music group expanded with the formation of three new companies, Woodside Music, Laurel Music and Trident. Lorna Music was founded four years ago on behalf of Wilhelm Jansen (Denmark). Leeds Music has once again enjoyed continued chart success with the Cliff Richard hits in the catalogue of their subsidiary Elstree Music. The latest being "On The Beach "from his "Wonderful Life" movie. In the same group Welbeck Music had two hits by The Searchers "Don't Throw Your Love Away" and "Sugar and Spice." Aberbach went to the top with Cilla Black's "You're My World" and Belinda (London) climed high with "Little Children" by Billy J. Kramer and "Wishin' And Hoping" by The Merseybeats in England and Dusty Springfield in the United States. Jack Mills paid his annual and welcome visit to England. A commendable transatlantic hook-up has been established by Ambassador Music London and Gil Pincus America. A hands-across-the-sea exchange of material has paid handsome dividends—The Beatles for Gil Pincus and The Surfaris "Wipe Out" for Ambassador, who continue to enjoy the sweet smell of success with "A Taste Of Honey." And on that anglo-American note we close Great Britain's annual review for the year 1963/1964.

GERMANY—The Past 12 Months

The last year in Germany has been one of constant change and fluctuation. The trends of the last few years toward higher sales on LP product and less singles production and sales, stronger independent production, stronger small labels, etc., continued.

Foreign product had a big year in Germany as the "Liverpool Sound" moved in and picked up top sales with groups like The Beatles, The Searchers, The Swinging Blue Jeans, etc. Several of the groups even recorded in the German language and did very well saleswise. German music had a bad year in export. No new pop tunes from Germany made the charts all over the world and only the old Polydor productions of Tony Sheridan with the Beatles were able to rack up respectable sales figures outside of this country. The last year was a year of new names as the old favorites of the past lost ground in sales and brand new singers took over top chart positions. A nightclub in Hamburg, The Star Club, became a hotbed of recording activity as 4 of the major labels did "live" recording dates at the club and many of the groups booked into the club signed recording contracts here in Germany and began to turn out English and German speaking discs. The independent production firm Hansa Record Productions from Berlin with young Peter Meisel and Christian Bruhn accounted for almost 10% of the total singles sales in Germany with their product. The firm turned out productions for 4 labels. For a look at Germany, here is a month to month accounting of the last year as reported in Cash Box:

AUGUST

The sticky summer weather brought the usual slow summer but sales continued along normal lines as a few singles brought the buyers into the shops. "Sukiyaki" in German by the Blue Diamonds began to move well with 50,000 sold in two weeks. Teldec Records did a "Country and Western" month with several LP releases and lots of promotion. Warner Bros. signed Werner Mueller, who became the first German artist to sign a direct agreement with a major U.S. label. Bert Kaempfert followed suit later and signed directly with Decca in the States. Electrola reported its greatest season ever with 5 of the top 10 records being with the firm for the first time in Germany. Hans Ritter joined the Eurodisc line of Ariola leaving DGG as A&R man. He now heads up the South German A&R department for Eurodisc. The German Radio-TV-Phonograph Fair started on the 30th of August and Radio Berlin played over 3 hours of stereo radio to celebrate the affair. Record firms joined together for the first time and saved themselves 400,000 dollars over last year's costs by doing so. The firms had one stand for the record industry. This one stand took up an entire building, however. Almost every record artist in Germany visited the fair to appear on the daily TV and radio shows being broadcast from there and such foreign artists as Peter, Paul and Mary and many others also made the terk. The Chubby Checker tour also visited Berlin on the last day of the fair. Philips picked up distribution of the Audio Fidelity label. CBS gave a press party at the fair with CBS president Goddard Lieberson, veep Harvey Schein and European mgr. Peter De Rougemont present. Dynagroove was introduced to the German public by Teldec at the fair. AFN celebrated their 20th anniversary on the air. Publisher August Seith celebrated his 60th birthday. The Radio-TV magazine Hoer Zu started a new LP service with Electrola and Teldec bringing out 3 or more LP's a month and advertised them in the mag which has over 13 million readers. Retail shops and post order took care of sales. The service is still going strong.

SEPTEMBER

Electrola kicked off the Angel label here. Albert Mangelsdorff and his quintet, did a jazz tour of the far east for the Goethe Institute and also did their first LP for CBS. Chubby Checker picked up a golden music box for Ariola. Marlene Dietrich was in Germany, Austria and Switzerland and was the best selling foreign artist for Airola. Marlene Dietrich was awarded the "Golden Edison Prize" in Holland for the best record of the year for her German recording of "Where Have All the Flowers Gone" for Electrola.

Other American stars at the Berlin fair included Little Peggy March, Roy Orbison and Bob Moore. All did productions here for Teldec in German. The Hully Gully started its move to pick up on the twist and slop. Sales reports were issued for the first ½ year of 1963 and showed that singles sales dropped 20.6% over the first half of 1962 and LP's jumped 55.5% over 1962 sales. EP's and 10" LP sales also dropped. In all, dollar volume rose 5.8%. Classical sales were 28% of the total business here. Singles production releases dropped 23.5% and LP productions increased 41.8%. Stereo sales also increased 55%, and stereo LP sales increased a whopping 84%. The "Annie Get Your Gun" original German cast LP on Philips sold over 22,500 copies in the first week of release. August Seith and Chappell Music publishers moved to new headquarters at Sendlinger Tor Platz 10 in Munich. Rolf Budde picked up Mills Music for Germany. Karlheinz Busse of International/Italia Records picked up the festival catalog of recordings from France for distribution here. Metronome handles the labels here. Frank Chacksfield came to Munich for the "Week of Light Music." The German record firms displayed for the first time at the Frankfurt book fair.

OCTOBER

Dynagroove from RCA got a big kickoff at press conferences by Teldec and the first 5 records were released. New German releases came out by Peter, Paul and Mary, The Everly Brothers, Pat Boone, Neil Sedaka, Little Peggy March, Chubby Checker, Bobby Darin, Rita Pavone and Cliff Richard. Only the Pavone and Richard disks made the big time, but the Boone disk also did well. In October, the top 10 hits were divided between 6 record firms which showed more diversification than ever before. DGG celebrated its 65th birthday. DGG is Germany's biggest record firm and is one of the oldest record firms in the world with affiliates now in England, France, Italy, Austria, Greece, Sweden, Japan and Mexico and is represented in 110 other countries. Cliff Richard's "Lucky Lips" in German passed the 75.000 mark in no time and began to roll. Electrola did an exhibit of its Capitol Records' product in 11 cities.

NOVEMBER

Ariola released a documentary record of "Germany from the ashes" covering the period after the second world war. RCA in Argentina also picked up the distribution of Ariola's classical label Eurodisc. Bert Kaempfert came back from the States to report that his hit "Danke Schoen" had over 28 recordings including the top hit by Wayne Newton. The Los Paraguayos did a tour here after being awarded a gold disk by Philips for sales of over 2.5 million LP's all over the world. Dr. Walter Betcke of DGG and president of the International Federation of Phonographic Industry celebrated his 65th birthday. CBS A&R chief Gilbert Obermaier left the firm to go into indie production and indie A&R man Gert Schmidt joined the firm in his old position. CBS picked up Gordy, Tamla, and Motown records for Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Movie star Elke Sommer switched labels from Teldec to Philips. Her new contract pardner is indie producer Karlheinz Busse. At the end of November, Hans Gerig Music publishers led the German charts with all three of the top three in Germany.

GERMANY—The Past Twelve Months

the first record artist to be awarded a special postal stamp in Austria for his Xmas LP. December was a strong travel month as Polydor's execs Haertel and Voigt visited the U.S. and Mexico and Electrola execs Batzem and Dr. Veder also took to the road and covered the U.S. and Canada. President Kennedy's tragic death brought a standstill to record sales, but sales on LP's moved briskly shortly before Xmas.

Electrola picked up the Imperial label for Germany. Trini Lopez started selling like crazy and went on to become one of the biggest artists here over the next 6 months. The year ended the Electrola controlling the top 3 slots in the hit parade with Cliff Richard, Gitte & Rex Gildo and Paul Kuhn holding down the slots. Department stores put racks outside the store to sell low priced LP's, for Xmas. Singles sales were way down, LP sales up. Freddy Xmas LP went over 100,000 sales in 14 days, but no Xmas single made the grade.

JANUARY

The German trade paper Musikmarkt listed the top hits and artists for 1963. 24 songs were listed, 14 of local origin, seven of American origin. Of course, Sukiyaki from Japan, one tune came from Holland, and two from England. All of the 24 records except two were sung in German language. The two that weren't were both by Elvis Presley. Top artists of the year 1963 were Freddy, Rex Gildo and Billy Mo as the top three males with Elvis coming in 5th. Connie Francis was the top female vocalist with Gitte from Denmark and Manuela finishing second and third. England's Petula Clark took 4th place and France's Jacqualine Boyer took 5th. Renate and Werner Leismann took first place among the vocal groups with the Tahiti Tamoure's finishing second and the Blue Diamonds coming in third. Not one single instrumental record made the top hit list in 1963. The first "golden" record of 1964 was given out to Petula Clark for reported sales of 1 million records on the song all over the world. German Vogue was the record firm handling the hit and Hans R. Beierlein was the publisher of the tune. The Ariola-Sonopress GmbH. Changed it's name to Ariola-Eurodisc GmbH. Teldec released the Victrola low priced LP series here. Little Peggy March made her first TV appearance on the Caterina Valente show here.

The Automatenmarkt trade paper listed the results of its jukebox favorites poll for 1963. The list varied somewhat as Elivs Presley finished first under the male vocalists with German Rex Gildo, Gus Backus, Gerd Boettcher and Martin Lauer following. Connie Francis won the female poll with Petula Clark, Manuela, Caterina Valente and Siw Malmkvist following. Strangely enough, Germany's top record seller, Freddy, was missing from the poll. All of the top 10 juke box hits for 1963 were vocals and all were sung in German. Five of the tunes were penned here and 5 were of foreign origin.

FEBRUARY

The fan magazine Musikparade listed the readers favorites for 1963. The poll was divided between foreign and local artists. Musician of the year in Germany was Max Gregor and the foreign musician of the year award went to Ray Charles. The local favorite dance orchestra was Werner Mueller with the foreign award going to Billy Vaughn. Favorite male singer locally was Freddy and the foreign award went to Elvis Presley. Female honors went to Caterina Valente and Connie Francis. Ariola renewed their pact with Reprise Records. Rudi Von Der Dovenmuhle and Nils Nobach won the German "Song For Europe" contest and their entry sung by Nora Nova represented Germany in the contest in Copenhagen in March, but failed to place.

Ralf Bendix toured the U.S. as did Jimmy Makulis. Trini Lopez had 2 of the top 10 on the hit parade. American music had a revival here and 5 of the top 10 tunes were of U.S. origin. Young CBS had its first number 1 hit with "You Can Never Stop Me Loving You" sung by Bernd Spier. Trini Lopez was awarded the Golden Musicbox by Ariola as the firm's best selling foreign artist. The last award from the firm went to Chubby Checker. Austroton Records signed Hans Uwe Schneider and Britta Martell to exclusive contracts. DGG director Helmut Haertel celebrated his 60th birthday and Teldec boss Hans Lieber celebrated his 65 birthday. Karlheinz Busse signed San Remo Festival winner Gigliola Cinquetti to an exclusive contract for his Italia label and the festival tune "Non Ho L'Eta" went on to sell over 150,000 records. DGG divided its organization and formed a Germany Department with their pop label Polydor and the local advertising falling under the department.

The Radio Luxemburg "Hit Parade" show for Germany came to an end after many years. The Ariola classical label, Eurodisc, celebrated its first birthday. The Beatles wave helped export sales as "My Bonnie" from Tony Sheridan and The Beatles recorded here in 1961 went wild on the Cash Box Top 100 and sold more than 300,000 records. Mr. Acker Bilk toured Germany. The Beatles cut their first German sides and went on to sell over 1 million records of their product here. The German record alone passed the 350,000 sales mark. Billy Mo from Trinidad was given a special award for sales of ½ million records of "I'd Rather Buy A Tirol Hat." The award was made at the winter olympics at Insbruck.

MARCH

Duke Ellington and his Orchestra toured Germany. Work started on the 4th German Pop Music Festival to be held in June. A Tour of the Red Army Choir stirred up some excitement in Switzerland as several cantons including Berne, Basel and Zurich refused to let the Russian group perform arguing that this sort of propaganda for a totalitarian system has no place in their concert halls. Paul Anka toured Germany. Heinz Lucas joined Philips in the radio promotion head slot replacing Fred Weyrich who took over as publicity director for Esther and Abraham Ofarim and later joined Marbot Music to head up their promotion and newly formed record production department. DGG signed a long term exclusive pact with Herbert Von Karajan. Austroton and Elite Special records topper Hans Oestreicher celebrated his 25th anniversary in the business. The firm announced strong growth plans for the German market. Mercury's Dick Whittington visited indie producers in Germany to look for strong material for the U.S. Teldec has a left field smash hit with the old folk tune "Clementine" retitled "Oh My Darling, Caroline" and sung by indie producer newcomer Ronny. The record passed the ½ million sales mark to become one of the really big tunes of this season. A new publishing group made up of the 5 most powerful one-stops and juke box record dealers was formed. The firm is called Transatlantik Musik and joins Globus Record Central, Frankfurt, Michael & Co., Duisburg and Munich, Loewen Automaten, Bingen, Ed. Kuepper, Stuttgart. The firm is managed by Karl Karthal and Hans Beierlein and headquarters were set in Frankfurt.

APRIL

Sales figures for 1963 were released and showed that singles sales dropped over 20% in the last year. On the other hand 12" LP sales rose a whopping 37% and dollar volume overall sales rose 4.4%. Exports rose 5.8% mostly in the LP field and imports also rose slightly. TV became an even more important factor as almost 9 million TV sets were registered in Germany, a 12% increase over 1 year ago. "With The Beatles" was number 1 on the LP hit parade sales and stayed there well into the summer. Deutsche Vogue brought out a new low priced LP line called Mode. The Liverpool sound took hold here and 8 Beatles singles started moving well for Electrola. Vogue did well with The Searchers, and The Swinging Blue Jeans racked up top sales with their "Hippy Hippy Shake." CBS got hot with the world champion ice skating doubles team Marika Kilius and Hans Jurgen Baumler. Each had a single selling over 100,000 records and a duo recording came out later which passed that mark. The RCA Victor C&W tour featuring Jim Reeves, Chet Atkins, Bobby Bare and the Anita Kerr singers toured Germany. Polydor renewed their pacts with Command and United Artists. Polydor started building a new recording studio in Munich. Ella Fitzgerald and Oscar Peterson toured Germany once again. Swedish lass Bibi Johns signed with indie producer Alfred Jacob. Jerry Lee Lewis did a live LP at the Star Club for Philips. DGG and the Vienna Newspaper Express held an opera singer competition in Vienna. Trini Lopez did a German language single. Gus Backus flew to Nashville for German recording dates and his first English session in several years. The English date didn't get off the ground in the USA but went on to sell 200,000 records in Japan.

MAY

Polydor production chief Kurt Richter left the firm and his duties were taken over by Polydor-International chief Heinz Voigt. Van Cliburn toured Germany. The largest fan magazine here, Bravo, with over 600 weekly readers had its yearly popularity poll. First place on the male singer poll was Cliff Richard beating out Freddy, who had won for the last 4 years. Freddy finished second and Rex Gildo took third place. Elvis Presley finished 4th, American Gus Backus, who has lived here for the past 5 years, took 5th place and the Beatles entered the poll in the number 6 position. Cliff needed over 81,000 votes to win. Other foreigners to place were Sacha Distel in 8th place, Trini Lopez in the number 10 slot, Pat Boone—12, Chubby Checker—14, Paul Anka—18, Fats Domino—23, Rick Nelson—25 and Frank Sinatra—30. Connie Francis won the female singer poll for the 3rd straight time with over 65,000 votes. Germany's Conny took second place and Italian lass Rita Pavone entered the poll in the number three slot. Berlin teenager Manuela finished 4th, Denmark's Gitte took the number 5 position, Caterina Valente finished 6th and other foreigners to finish in the top 30 were Sweden's Lil Babs—8, France's Francoise Hardy—9, Little Peggy March—10, Petula Clark—11, Greece's Nana Mouskouri—12, Brenda Lee—14, Israel's Carmela Corren—13, Esther Ofarim—16, Sweden's Anita Lindblom—17, Italy's Mina—18, Helen Shapiro—22, Soeur Sourire—23, Dalida—24, Jacqueline Boyer—25, Siw Malmkvist—26, Audrey Arno—28 and Bibi Johns—30. Although most of the artists to win positions were foreigners, all of the gals in the top 30 record in the German language and only Fats Domino, Rick Nelson and Frank Sinatra under the males have failed to come up with a German language disk. Cliff Richard toured Germany. Promoter Karl Buchmann reported that all of the big name pop tours in 1964 including top German attractions, international stars such as Paul Anka, the RCA C&W Show, etc. had lost money.

JUNE

Independent pop productions controlled the market at this time with 4 of the top 10 tunes coming from indie groups. Big time A&R men Kurt Feltz and Gerhard Mendelson who had produced exclusively for Polydor for a number of years began to turn out productions for other firms. Feltz took over Caterina Valente for Teldec and Mendelson recorded Leslie Gore for Philips to start their new activities. The artists that they have controlled until now will stay with Polydor and the two top A&R men will continue to produce them. The Swinging Blue Jeans visited Germany and did their first German recordings. Karl Breuer left Hans Sikorski Music and publicity and promotion head of Vogue Records Gunter Geyer took his place. Larry Yaskiel took over Geyer's job at Vogue. The London Symphony Orchestra did concerts in Duesseldorf.

Religious music took over in Austria as Chaplain Alfred Flury topped the hit parade there with his EP and Soeur Sourire took 3rd place with Dominique. The German Jazz Federation made their awards for the year. CBS-Germany won the award at the European CBS convention for the most single records sold. The German Pop Music Festival took place in Baden-Baden and was won by Siw Malmkvist for her recording of "Liebeskummer lohnt sich nicht" (It Dosen't Pay to be Lovesick). The record went on to become the hot summer hit. The number was written by indie producer Christian Bruhn, who also produced the disk for Metronome. Second place went to Nana Mouskouri and third place was taken by Rex Gildo and Gitte. Intro, Schaeffers and Gerig published the winning tunes respectively. Deutsche Vogue signed a pact with Red Bird Records and also picked up the exclusive distribution of The Rivieras. Polydor signed up Dart Sales and its Constellation label.

JULY

The small independent labels picked up strength and held down 8 of the top 10 slots in the hit parade. Metronome led the field with 4 chart winners. Teldec joined the Bertelsmann Record Club and it looked like they would dissolve their contract with the Readers Digest Record Club. German Vogue moved its headquarters from Frankfurt to Cologne. Plans were made for the 4th annual German-American folksfest in Berlin for charity and over 20 recording artists pledged their services free of charge. Paul Anka had his first big German language hit.

The hot summer months started and record sales slowed down although a few hot singles, especially tunes from the Pop Festival kept the record shops in business. Record productions and new releases slowed down to a standstill. That's how the record picture looked over the past 12 months in Germany. The new picture with the LP increasing in volume, no records making the million sales mark and a really top hit just getting to the ½ million mark doesn't look too good. The market is spreading out and independent producers and record firms are looking for an even bigger slice of the market in the year to come. There will be new and interesting developments in the next 12 months in Germany and Cash Box will be on hand with a week to week picture of the record business as it happens.

GERMANY—Vital Statistics

POPULATION: (West Germany) 60 million with 19.2 million households
PER CAPITA INCOME: 180 dollars (720 marks) monthly
HOMES WITH RECORD PLAYERS: 7.9 million

RECORD SALES—1963:

SINGLES	24.2 million	(1962—30.4 million	1961— 32 million)
12" LP's	7.8 million	(1962— 5.7 million	1961—4.45 million)
10" LP's	1.9 million	(1962— 2.0 million	1961—3.1 million)
EP's	8.4 million	(1962— 9.2 million	1961—3.9 million)

The German Phonograph Record Industry has released sales figures for the entire year of 1963 and the results show that once again, singles took a terrific beating and LP's zoomed up in sales. Total sales in dollar volume rose 4.4% due only to LP sales. Here's how sales figures looked compared to 1962.

Category—1963	Sales	% gain or loss	Category—1962	Sales
Singles	24.2 mil.	—20.4%	Singles	30.4 mil.
EP's	8.4 mil.	— 8.7%	EP's	9.2 mil.
10" LP's	1.9 mil.	— 9.5%	10" LP's	2.1 mil.
12" LP's	7.8 mil.	+37.0%	12" LP's	5.7 mil.

Although 10.8% less records were sold, the LP increase more than made up for the singles decrease. The main gain in LP sales was in the pop sector and in stereo sales. Stereo LP's accounted for 9.5% of total sales as against 5.9% in 1962. The sales of records in record shops as compared to other outlets (department stores, etc.) decreased from 90.3% to 86.8%. Classical sales on the other hand dropped from the previous year. Here's the division between pop and classical sales for 1963 as compared to 1962.

Category—1963	Pop Sales	Classical Sales	Category—1962	Pop Sales	Classical Sales
Singles	23.5 mil.	0.7 mil.	Singles	29.4 mil.	1.0 mil.
EP's	5.9 mil.	2.5 mil.	EP's	6.4 mil.	2.8 mil.
10" LP's	0.9 mil.	1.0 mil.	10" LP's	0.9 mil.	1.3 mil.
12" LP's	4.2 mil.	3.6 mil.	12" LP's	2.6 mil.	3.0 mil.

These figures are of course rounded off to the nearest 100,000 and therefore there is sometimes a difference between total sales and division of sales. Classical sales account for 18.4% of total sales hut of course, their percent of LP sales is much higher. Germany sells a higher percentage of classical records than any other country in the world. Export sales rose 5.8% mostly in the LP sector which had a 41.4% increase in export. Here's how export sales looked as compared to 1962.

Category—1963	Export Sales	Category—1962	Export Sales
Singles	4.5 million	Singles	5.1 million
EP's	2.0 million	EP's	1.9 million
10" LP's	0.3 million	10" LP's	0.4 million
12" LP's	4.1 million	12" LP's	2.9 million

The record industry reflected the change in trends in their production and pressing figures. Here's how they looked as compared to 1962.

Category	1963 production	1962 production
Singles	28.8 million	36.0 million
EP's	11.8 million	12.9 million
10" LP's	2.5 million	3.3 million
12" LP's	12.5 million	9.3 million

Import figures are not as exacting as the others because they only refer to the firms who are members of the German Phono Industry Organization. Here's how import figures stacked up.

Category	Import—1963	Import—1962
Singles	0.28 million	0.34 million
EP's	0.43 million	0.30 million
10" LP's	0.95 million	0.68 million

The last chart and one of the most important shows the sales of Stereo records LP wise in Germany. This chart was issued in units, with 1 unit given for singles, 2 units for EP's, 4 units for 10" LP's and 6 units for 12" LP's. Here's how that chart looked.

Category	Total Units—1963	Stereo Units—1963	Total Units—1962	Stereo Units—1962
Classical	21,759,090	4,619,244	18,206,268	2,852,574
Popular	25,240,974	3,719,268	15,825,500	1,663,854

This shows that 21.2% of all units sold were stereo in the classical department as against 15.6% in 1962 and the pop sector showed 14.7% of all sales in stereo as against 10.5% in 1962. This composite picture of the record business in Germany in 1963 should give a good insight into the record picture here.
The importance of television as a factor in record sales is shown in the new record number of TV sets registered for 1963. Last year, 205,000 sets were registered in January of 1963 and this year 247,766 sets were registered for an increase of 20.6%. As of February 1, 1964 there are 8,786,336 sets registered in Germany, an increase of 1,367,459 sets over the February 1, 1963 figures.

ITALY—The Past Twelve Months

Looking at the past twelve months in the Italian market, the year 1963/1964 could be split in two clearly separated parts: a first period of nine months during which a strong expansion of sales—even greater than in the same period of 1962/1963—took place reflecting the huge success, first of the Summer records, second of Christmas product, third of Sanremo hits; a second period of three months, that usually represent the prelude and the development of the Summer sales, during which sales decreased to levels as low as any in the past. We already expressed our opinion on this and now, two months later we can confirm that—unfortunately—we were right when we affirmed that the main reason for this serious situation was to be found in overproduction heaped on our market for the Summer season from nearly all the Italian Record Companies. Unfortunately a sort of general blindness seems to have pushed the record industries into an unreasonable overproduction, while a general economic crisis involving all the Italian branches of activity would have indicated sacrificing "quantity" on behalf of "quality." Nearly 250 "Summer records" have been issued of various types, like "Cantagiro," "Un disco per l'estate," the Venice Contest, the Pesaro Contest, etc., not to mention all the other new records not included in promotional campaigns. The result of this policy has been a complete misleading of dealers and of public, and consequently, a lack of best-sellers that seasonally lead the charts with strong sales, originate the strongest general outlets, and give the market a definite shape (by the way, at the moment of writing these notes, by the end of July, nobody could bet which the best selling records of this season will really be). It seems inconceivable, but we never heard so many record companies toppers wishing success to their competitors. Our TV State Company has stopped any live broadcasts, except one (the latter will end by the end of June), so excluding the record industries from the possibility of launching their new records by the usual and most efficient media. This is, perhaps another reason why so many records have been produced for the above mentioned special manifestations, since this was the only way to have their artists appearing on TV screens.

We should like to end this picture of 1963/1964 with a positive consideration of the Sanremo Contest of this year. Our readers will surely remember that we often criticized, from the point of view of its industry use, this Contest, saying that, practically, its formula satisfied only one half of the Publishers and Record Companies taking part in it, with the sole result of nearly paralyzing the market in general for a three months time. Well, this year, maybe because of its new formula and the participation of international talents, the results caused us to change a little our point of view. As a matter of fact, we must say that the sales of records issued in this contest have reached a figure of over 3.000.000 marks, which, if seen from the point of view of their potential, can be considered as "additional sales" that would have not been made otherwise. In this connection, we wish sincerely that the new Sanremo Contests may cause us to change our opinion. This is in the general interest of our Record Industry.

The little "queen" on the Italian record scene is Rita Pavone: Her recording "Cuore" is at the top of our charts. This is the fifth consecutive disk by the young RCA star to hit the first place on our hit parade. The first LP by Rita Pavone, issued by RCA went immediately to the top of album sales only 30 days after its release. It's the first signpost of the expansion of our market in the album sales.

In the meantime, during the month of August there were the first results of the Summer battle: first Summer releases to appear at the top of our charts: listed among the first ten titles in that month were "Stessa Spiaggia E Stesso Mare" recorded by Mina on Italdisc (this is the last success of the songstress on the label). The same title also brought to the public the name of Piero Focaccia. The singer, pacted by CGD performed "Stessa Spiaggia Stesso Mare" on the stage of Saint Vincent during the 1963 edition of the Saint Vincent Festival.

Other titles listed among the ten are "Abbronzatissima" by Edoardo Vianello on RCA, Se Mi Perderai by Nico Fidenco on RCA too, I Tuoi Capricci, an original Italian tune interpreted by Neil Sedaka, also on the RCA label. American talent was awarded in Rome in August, with the second gold record for two million records sold on our market: A great part of the success of Neil was due to two Italian authors who penned for him tunes like "La Terza Luna," and this Summer smash "I Tuoi Capricci" both records sold together more than 1.000.000 copies. These figures gave a good idea of the fast growing market at that time.

For the first time on our charts appeared the names of two unknown talents: Michele, a discovery of the indie producer Nanni Ricordi, pacted by RCA, and John Foster. John Foster is a music critic, who made his debut as a singer on the new label Phonocolor, produced by the firm Cellograph Simp. Thanks to his interpretation of the Italian version of the Ray Charles' hit "I Can't Stop Loving You" which put his label on the charts.

Coming back to the subject of Michele, he took part in the "Cantagiro 1963" the second edition of the singing tour: he was the winner of the "B" team: thanks to his recording "Se Mi Vuoi Lasciare," became a great smash, and was among the best sellers of the past twelve months.

In the month of August there were also two French talents appearing suddenly on the Italian music scene: Richard Anthony (EMI Italiana) and Francoise Hardy (SAAR). Richard Anthony became known by singing in Italian his French hits "Donne Moi Ma Chance" and "J'Entends Siffler Le Train." The record will be listed among the first ten titles on our charts, but it will serve only as introduction to the real success of Richard, who at the beginning of the Summer 1964, will reach the top of our hit parade with his big hit "Cin-Cin."

Francoise Hardy, was at the moment the "queen" of the French disk scene: Her Italian version of "Tous Les Garcons Et Les Filles" under the title "Quelli Della Mia Eta" completely opened the way to success. The SAAR record in fact went immediately to the top of our best seller list, and will remain among the best sellers of the last twelve months.

The same title "Quelli Della Mia Eta" served in the same month of August to introduce also another unknown talent, Catherine Spaak: The Belgian film actress made her debut on the Italian record scene recording this tune on Ricordi label, and got a good reaction on the market. She had another success with an original song "Prima Di Te Dopo Di Te," released in August.

During this month two original Italian titles rode the charts in the USA: "More" (originally published by CAM—CAMPI) and "I Who Have Nothing" (Uno Dei Tanti) whose original publisher was Ricordi.

SEPTEMBER

The most interesting development of the month concerns the announcement made by ATA, the Society which organizes the Festival of San Remo. The head of the organization is Gianni Ravera, one of the most well known impresarios of Italy. Two changes introduced in the organization were: the most significant was the decision to have foreign talents perform on the Casino's stage, but the most interesting results reached by the new plans stemmed from the decision by some of the organizers to strictly cooperate with the record industry execs that are invited to have a primary role in the organization of the big show. Reviewing the events of the next months: let's say in any case, that thanks to these decisions, the San Remo Festival has been regarded as the main event of these twelve months on the Italian musical scene.

In the month of September a young Italian company RI.FI entered the classical field, adding in Italy the distribution of the American lines Westminster, Command and Grand Award. They also distribute Time Records. It's a further clear sign of the fact that the Italian market is still expanding and the classical field too is offering more potential to the Italian disk producers. But we will take into consideration any policy adopted for classical releases by the Italian producers.

In September it was possible for Cash Box to come to some conclusion as to the change of policy adopted by the leading record firms in the pop field: In the present market situation the strength of the disk firms depends on the distribution and promotional sections. The tendency to utilize the indie producers is fast developing and as a result there is a discharge of work in the production and artistic sections. Thanks to the indie producers all the principal firms are devoting their efforts to create a stronger promotion and distribution set-up, this eliminates all the small companies, which in past years were formed only by the independent record men. Now these men can find complete assistance for their production from the great companies which offer them the best promotional media and the best and fastest distribution. The first Italian record firm which adopted such a new system was RCA Italiana, which made two years ago a contract with the lyric writer Franco Migliacci, who was the first indie producer in our market. A discovery of Franco was the young voice of Gianni Morandi. After RCA signed Teddy Reno and had in his talent roster the wonderful talents of Rita Pavone. Recently a pact was signed by Nanni Ricordi who also introduced to RCA Michele, which was followed early in 1964, by Oscar and Riccardo Del Turco. Nanni Ricordi also produces Luigi Tenco and Enzo Iannacci for SAAR.

Now all the firms are adopting this new system: these are CGD which at that time signed a contract with Alfredo Rossi: the well known publisher who made his debut as an indie record producer, and Fonit Cetra.

David Matalon, who is the prexy of Italdisc (that recently changed its name to Ducale record and publishing firm) signed a contract as an indie producer with Phonogram.

The end of September was highlighted by the celebration of the tenth anniversary of RCA Italiana, held in Rome. Present were RCA Victor prexy George Marek, and some other personalities of RCA International including Frank Folsom, Charles R. Denny, C. G. Dailey and the entire staff of RCA Italiana.

OCTOBER

Most music fans are composed of young people: which is shown by summer record sales. An extraordinary number of new young talents have gotten good exposure during the 1963 Summer season. Particularly Rita Pavone, Francoise Hardy, Michele, Catherine Spaak, Remo Germani, Fred Bongusto who are the most outstanding examples of successful young talents in our industry. This cast of artists, many of them less than twenty years old have gradually rejuvenated flavor.

At the beginning of this month, following the celebration of the 10th RCA Italiana's Anniversary, there was, in Taormina, one of the most famous tourist centers of Sicily, the first convention of RCA Italiana.

During three days in a warm and cordial atmosphere the execs of RCA Italiana stressed the results of their summer promotional campaign with Gino Paoli (Sapore Di Sale), Nico Fidenco (Se Mi Perderai), Edoardo Vianello (Abbronzatissima), Neil Sedaka (I Tuoi Capricci), Gianni Morandi (Ho Chiuso Le Finestre), Sergio Endrigo (Se Le Cose Stanno Cosi') and so on. In conclusion, the summer of 1963 represented much success for RCA Italiana. They captured a 50% of the total Italian market. At Taormina, RCA introduced a competition opened to all the public entitled "Festival In Casa" (Festival At Home). This competition was devoted to the winter production which included 15 new decks. Conclusion of this competition was held in Rome at the end of March 1964.

In October, there was the announcement by Alberto Carisch of the establishment of his own record firm called MRC (Milano Record Company). Alberto Carisch, a well known personality in the music world, was the president of Southern Italiana, is also prexy of the new company. General manager of the newly formed disker is Piero Gallotti. A pact for the distribution of the new product was signed with Decca Italiana. MRC reached an immediate exposure with Bruno Filippini, young talent found at the Castrocaro Contest (A Festival devoted to debuting singers) on the San Remo stage, where Bruno sang "Sabato Sera".

NOVEMBER

Many initiatives have been taken during 1963 for the promotion of classical music in Italy. Disk manufacturers want to reduce the price of classical albums: this measure says positive results in the market and gained a lot of new buyers for classical product. RCA Italiana is selling its albums at the lowest market price. The RCA series "K" is sold at the price of Lit. 1.980 (about $3.30) but the most successful promotion in the classical field was conducted in 1963 by Emi Italiana, with its special series "Invitation To The Music". This series includes 50 different releases and every album has a price of Lit. 2.200 (about $3.65). But another firm has had success in the classical market: we refer to Decca which was the first one to introduce on the market some years ago a special series called "Ace Of Clubs" that brings together more than 200 different albums, at a price of Lit. 2.300 each one (about $3.80). Of course other record firms followed such examples, and about all the firms that have classical catalogue have released a special low priced series. This is also the case of Phonogram, with some classical releases of DGG, and RI.FI too, with their series "Mosaico" sold at the same price as RCA.

An interesting event concerning the classical promotion of RI.FI: The wellknown orchestra conductor Herman Scherchen was guest of La Scala in Milan for a concert in the famed theater. The Herman Scherchen recordings are distributed in Italy by RI.FI thanks to their agreement for representation of the entire Westminster line.

At the end of the month of November, Cash Box reviewed the situation of our production on the foreign markets: Much interest has been shown by some foreign record producers in our pop talents: On the German market Intervox released German recordings with Peppino Di Capri (Carisch) and Betty Curtis (CGD). Peppino Di Capri was on the German charts with his recording "Slop in Capri." A pact was concluded between Tony Dallara and Polydor for waxings in German language. Mikulski promoted the female talent of Cocki Mazzetti (RI.FI) and there was of course also the pop talent of Rita Pavone (RCA) who is produced in Germany by Werner Mueller for Teldec. Adriano Celen tano (Clan) is released in Germany by Deutsche Vogue, by an agreement concluded for him by Krikor Mintangian of Durium. Michele who was the #1 singer in Italy during the month of November, released his first German recording, thanks to an agreement with his producer Nanni Ricordi, his label RCA, Teldec, and Edition Montana of Munich. Michele was strongly promoted on the German market along with other RCA artists like Nico Fidenco, Edoardo Vianello, and Gianni Morandi.

Italian artists were also popular in other markets besides Germany. This is the case of Rita Pavone. In the month of November it was announced that the young songstress would be promoted in the States. Also Michele who appeared on the market of France and Benelux with heavy exposure, of Adriano Celentano, who had top reaction singing in France, and recorded in November his first Spanish decks for Discos Vergara in Spain and Fermata in South America.

The list of our singers promoted in the foreign countries continues: Fausto Papetti (Durium) who is one of the top sellers in Canada. It seems our artists have the flavor of the International public, and they can be the best ambassadors of our musical production, and in some countries, particularly in Spain and South America it's not unusual that Italian artists appear on the charts, but our industry is just beginning to introduce its artists on a strong basis on the International market: a lot of hard work must still be done.

On the other hand almost all our leading record firms are promoting foreign artists in Italy: they have opened to many stars the way to the Italian market. This is the case with Paul Anka, Neil Sedaka, Richard Anthony, Francoise Hardy, Petula Clark, Gene Pitney, and so on. In order to promote in a strong manner these artists in our country the Record Industry and the Organizers opened to them the doors of San Remo. The results for example are Paul Anka. Thanks to his participation at the San Remo Festival he is perhaps the first foreign talent to have sold in Italy one million copies of an Italian recording "Ogni Volta". Also unexpected result derived from the performances of Gene Pitney and Bobby Rydell.

In November was created the new company CGD Internazionale, owned by Ladislao Sugar, under the management of Joe Giannini. CGD Internazionale was tapped to handle the catalogs of Reprise, Ascot, Carlton, Everest, Festival, MGM, Cameo-Parkway, 20th Century Fox, Parker, United Artists, Verve, & Palette. The new firm will also exploit abroad the lines of Sugar's record labels CGD, GC, Acquario and Juke Box.

At the end of November there was another event that must be mentioned: top songstress Mina, left Italdisc to sign a new contract with RI.FI Records: her first record waxed under the new label, was the Italian version of "It's A Lonely Town", with the title "La Citta Vuota." It was among the best selling disks of the last twelve months. Later, Mina repeated her success with the Italian version of another American title, "He Walks Like A Man": The first title was published in Italy by Aberbach, while the second was issued by Connelly.

DECEMBER

The first artist in the list of the Hit Makers in December was Adriano Celentano; he is another of the astonishing phenomenas of our disk market: Adriano left Saar to start his own diskery Clan: while experiences such as Carosone, Dallara and Sentieri demonstrated that when an artist leaves his first record company there is a decrease in record sales, Celentano proved the opposite: The sales figures of the Adriano Celentano's company amounted at the end of 1963 to 2,500,000 records sold. In the month of December he was first in sales with his etching of "Sabato Triste": he will be on the charts during the first months of 1964 with "Ciao Ragazzi," and in the middle of the Summer season 1964, he will be once again at the top with his Italian edition of the English number "If You Gonna Make a Fool of Somebody" published by Sidet.

Celentano has increased his activities: He is now the proprietor of two publishing firms, Clan and Star. He formed them with Curci Publishing Group, and their record firm Carosello-Cemed, an organization for the record sales. The organization, called C & C, is employing 24 salesmen, and it's one of the most active on the market. Celentano also opened a center of indie Record Production, an organization for direct sales to the Juke Box Operators, and a firm devoted to the Shows production. All Adriano's firms are managed by his brother Alessandro.

Along with Celentano other artists are enjoying much success during this first winter period: Neil Sedaka on RCA with another Italian original tune penned by Bacalov and entitled "Adesso No." The song is one of those presented at the RCA's Taormina Convention. There is also another song of the contest "Festival in Casa" listed in the winter best selling list: this was "Non E' Facile Avere 18 Anni": by Rita Pavone. Again there is on the top ten Francoise Hardy (Saar) with "L'Eta' Dell'-Amore" followed by Ricky Gianco (Jaguar) singing "Ti Cerchero" and by the Durium artist Little Tony doing "T'Amo E T'Amero'."

This last title served also to introduce on our market the voice of Peppino Gagliardi, pacted by Saar. He made his debut waxing this tune for a little independent diskery: he then signed a contract with the Gurtler's firm. His further success was "Ascolta Mio Dio" and seems to be one of the most promising talents of our record scene.

JANUARY

The year 1964 started with an encouraging result: as reported by the disk retailers during the short period of the winter holidays, the demand for LP's has increased. This means that the Italian market was still increasing and it was becoming a good market also for the albums whose sales represented until now just a 13% of the total record sales: The optimistic opinion about the expansion of our market was confirmed during the last month of 1963, and during the month of January by an increase in the singles sales too. Other good news comes from our Radio and TV, who seem more inclined to cooperate with our industry: Radio responsibles decided in fact to make quicker the system of examination of the new recordings presented for broadcasting by the record industries. Thanks to this modificaton it's possible now to have a disk on the air a few days after its release, while some time ago it was necessary to wait for weeks and sometimes months before a new recording was "classificated" for broadcast.

With the new formula "2 f/A" that means two "A" sides on a single, Ricordi/CBS took part to the winter promotional campaign. Among the records promoted we recall "Mes Amis Mes Copains" recorded on the Ricordi label by Catherine Spaak. The list includes also one of the first singles of Bobby Solo, completely unknown at the moment (Blu E' Blu—Marrone).

Among the interesting events of the month of January, was the visit to Italy of the wellknown orchestra conductor Andre Kostelanetz. Ricordi CBS promoted the conductor. Kostelanetz taped a TV show for Oct. telecasting.

Ettore Stratta International A/R manager of CBS supervised in Milan (Teatro Nuovo) the Italian production of the successful musical "My Fair Lady" with Delia Scala, Gianrico Tedeschi and Mario Carotenuto. The orchestra was conducted by Maestro Migliardi.

In January Italy released the first Italian version of a "surf": "If I Had A Hammer," was the title chosen by Rita Pavone, who waxed it under the Italian title "Datemi Un Martello" for the RCA label. Original version of "If I Had A Hammer" was released by CGD Internazionale, with Trini Lopez on Reprise. Both recordings will be listed among the top ten places of our hit parade, and this is the only "surf" beat tune, that saw chart action in our country.

Also in the month of January the well known publisher Alfredo Rossi made his debut as an indie record producer starting his activity under the mark "Produzioni R con S" and introducing on the market Bruno Lauzi. His first recording, "Ritornerai" (published by Ariston) issued under the CGD label, made the charts, and made Lauzi a success.

Among the new steps taken in the Italian disk industry, Luciano Villevieille Bideri, who started his own record production under the label Edibi, formerly distributed by Messaggerie Musicali and distributed by Phonogram at the end of January. Also Joe Sentieri, the pop artist, starts his own record activity with the "Greenstar" label.

FEBRUARY

The San Remo Song Festival can be considered as the main event of the last twelve months on the Italian music scene: The contest this year confirmed its extraordinary promotional power. While in the past editions the manifestation seemed to suffer from a lack of interest by the great part of the public, and a lack of strength as a promotional medium, thanks to the new formula this year the Festival of San Remo not only returned to be the main attraction on the national scene, but also was considered one of the main events on the world scene.

It's necessary to recognize the merit of this to the ATA Organization and first of all to its head, Gianni Ravera; first reason for such a positive result derives from the cooperation asked by Gianni Ravera from the record industry: while in the past edition the protagonists of the manifestation were the publishers, this year, the record firms are offering their full support to the organizers. Thanks to this cooperation, the participation of foreign talents at the Festival was possible. Also, thanks to this cooperation, the quality of all the songs presented was extremely good, and made possible the full exploitation of the event as the strongest promotional media. The manifestation adhered to the real situation of the market, where the record industry is now covering a role of first importance: this does not mean that the publishers have completely lost their preeminence on the market but their activity is now strongly connected with record activity: this was demonstrated by the 1964 Festival: to note in fact that the best hits of the San Remo 1964 were produced by the most experienced pubberies, which are at the same time also record producers. This is the case of the greatest San Remo hit, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso," published by Ricordi and waxed by Bobby Solo under the Ricordi label. As it's known this is the first single that went over the million sales mark, and this in less than two months! This is also the case of the San Remo winner "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti" published by Sugarmusic and waxed by Gigliola Cinquetti for Mr. Sugar label, C.G.D. On the other hand, there is also the example of another strong hit produced by a firm which first started as a record firm, and after, he brought into his activity publishing. This is the case of "Ogni Volta" recorded by Paul Anka under the RCA label and published by RCA Italiana. This record too passed at the end of March the million sales mark. Another similar example is that of "Quando Vedrai La Mia Ragazza," another of the big hits of the Festival: The song was produced by the Durium pubbery, and recorded under the Durium label by Little Tony. This number had as a foreign performer also Gene Pitney of CGD International: both recordings sold together more than 800,000 copies.

In total more than 1,700,000 records containing the new songs of the San Remo Festival were sold at the end of February in Italy: this was the first positive result of this manifestation. 15 of the 24 songs presented on the Casino stage were listed among the first 30 songs of our best sellers list. This never happened before, and was a confirmation of the high quality of the material presented. In February, we said that the total sales of the San Remo disks could easy reach a total amount of 2,500,000 disks. Now we can say that we have gone above the figure of 3,000,000. The recordings which formed such a figure were, along with "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" by Bobby Solo (Ricordi) and the winning song "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti" by Gigliola Cinquetti (CDG), "Ogni Volta" by Paul Anka (RCA), "Quando Vedrai La Mia Ragazza" by Little Tony (Durium) and Gene Pitney (CGD Internazionale), "Motivo D'Amore" by Pino Donaggio (EMI Italiana), "La Prima Che Incontro" by Fabrizio Ferretti (RI.FI), "Sabato Sera" by Bruno Filippini (MRC), "Stasera No No No" by Remo Germani (Saar), "Un Bacio Piccolissimo" by Robertino (Cemed-Carosello), "Che Me Ne Importa A Me" by Domenico Modugno (Fonit), "Ieri Ho Incontrato Mia Madre" by Gino Paoli (RCA), "Come Potrei Dimenticarti" by Tony Dallara (Saar), "Passo Su Passo" by Claudio Villa (Fonit) and "L'Ultimo Tram" by Milva (Fonit).

Among the young new talents who revealed themselves through the San Remo Festival, we wish to mention, along with the winner Gigliola Cinquetti and Bobby Solo, already noted, are the names of Fabrizio Ferretti of RI.FI who gained a strong popularity thanks to his performance of "La Prima Che Incontro," Bruno Filippini of MRC, who put his recording of "Sabato Sera" among the first ten on the charts, followed by Remo Germani of Saar, who performed "Stasera No No No." There was also the young talent Robertino, recently pacted by Cemed Carosella for our country, who was not so well known in Italy, and who reached a good exposure on our market thanks to the performance of "Un Bacio Picolissimo." The same song served also to point out the name of the American talent of Bobby Rydell (presented by CGD Internazionale), while it's also necessary to point out the wonderful performance of Gene Pitney, the other young American talent (also presented by CGD Internazionale) who enjoyed, thanks to his performance, a strong popularity on our market.

Of course, the new San Remo material changed immediately the situation on our charts: but there was a record not presented on the San Remo stage, which entered the charts, resisting the San Remo wave and placing itself among the top best-sellers of this twelve month period: we refer to the Italian version of the American hit "It's a Lonely Town," the first Mina disk waxed by the pop songstress under the RI.FI label. The disking was entitled in Italian "La Citta' Vuota."

During the month of February, there is also another entry on the charts, in spite of the San Remo revolution: we refer to "Please Please Me," the Beatles recording, which signalled the start of the Beatles craze in our country, too. Unfortunately, since the top English group was unable to be presented on our TV screens, they never reached the top spot on our charts: In any case there is a positive and astonishing result: the Beatles' disk is the only one sung in the original language that entered the charts in the past twelve months.

Among the initiatives taken in this month is the release by Durium of a complete anthology of the Neapolitan music issued under the title "Napoletana." Eight months of work were necessary for the release of the first four albums of this production. It was a patient work of research of all text and songs from the 11th century until today: Interpreter of the entire work is Roberto Murolo, one of the best Neapolitan singers.

Another interesting release of the month was the package issued by RI.FI for the classical series, "Scala Reale," containing the five famous Beethoven concerts recorded by the famous pianist, Badura Skoda, with the Orchestra conducted by Hermann Scherchen. In the pop field we wish to mention the release of the second single sung in Italian by Richard Anthony (EMI Italiana): "Cin Cin" (Cheat Cheat) c/w "Un Momento Ancora." The disk entered the charts at the end of the spring and reached the first position on our hit parade. Also in the same month, another disk by Adriano Celentano: "Ciao Ragazzi." The record was listed among the first ten best sellers in our hit parade.

MARCH

At the beginning of the month of March, RCA Italiana announced the creation of a new record label. The name of the new mark is Arc and it's completely devoted to young people. The event was not only limited to the presentation of new series of disks, but, as stressed by the RCA General Manager Giuseppe Ornato, it can be considered as the creation of a new independent record firm in the bosom of the big RCA Italiana operation. This means that the production of ARC will be handled independently from the production of RCA Italiana, and will be promoted and delivered through new channels.

The production of the new label will be released through the experienced system of indie producers: Nanni Ricordi, Carlo Rossi, Teddy Reno, Franco Migliacci, and Gianni Morandi are cooperating with the firm.

During the month of March there is another interesting initiative that seemed to open a new strong promotional way to record firms: EMI Italiana inaugurated in Milan the first Club 45, founded to create mutual interests between the young public and its favorite singers and between the industry and the buyers. The move seemed to have an immediate success: the direct contact between the public and the industry seemed to be a new promotional media, but it's still too early to say which are the real results of such an initiative.

In the month of March, for the first time an original Italian recording made the charts in Japan: the disk is "La Novia" performed by Tony Dallara (Saar). The name of Tony Dallara becomes popular in that country. He is invited to record in Japanese his latest success presented in San Remo: "Come Potrei Dimenticarti."

In the meantime, another pop artist Edoardo Vianello (RCA) is enjoying a strong popularity in South America: two of his summer hits of 1963 are the best sellers of the summer season in Argentina: "I Watussi" and "Abbronzatissima." Both titles published in Italy by Leonardi, have been promoted in Argentina by Ediciones Fermata. The list of the Italian artists' successes abroad continues with the name of Gigliola Cinquetti, whose recording of the San Remo winner, "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti," enters the charts in France and Mexico. Gigliola Cinquetti was invited to represent Italy at the Eurovision Contest in March: the young Italian songstress conquered first place, confirming the value of her great talent.

APRIL

Gigliola Cinquetti, the young discovery of CGD, the winner of the San Remo Festival with the song "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti," has won also the great annual European TV Contest: this is the first time that Italy reaches the first place in this contest. Gigliola Cinquetti confirms her charm and grace. It's also a confirmation of the fortunate marriage between the flowing melody of "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti" and the young, pretty talent, who presented the song on European TV screens. The song is published by Sugarmusic.

Just when, at the beginning of April, we are concluding our inquiry on the Italian market, announcing that during the last year the percentage of increase in record sales is about 30% of the previous year, we noted the first symptom of the crisis that will fast develop in the next months. The Bobby Solo San Remo recording, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso," has reached at the beginning of the month the fabulous figure of 1,000,000 records sold: it's the first time that such an event happens on our market. We put also the accent on the increase in the sales of both classical and pop Lps, but we noted that after this period of big emphasis that immediately followed the San Remo Festival, the Italian record market comes to a standstill. "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" as recorded by Bobby Solo (Ricordi) is always at the top of the charts, but the general demand by much of the public is decreasing. It seemed that this was a natural pause on our musical market just before the beginning of the battle for summer sales: all record producers are restless as they prepare new recordings for the next "hot" season. Musical shows and song-contests are announced: the greatest one is organized by our sole Radio TV Company, in cooperation with the record firms.

ITALY—The Past 12 Months

It's entitled "A Record For The Summer." 42 new recordings have been prepared for participation in this contest. Also announced are the yearly "Cantagiro" (Singing Tour), The International Show of Pesaro, and the Song International Festival of Venice. All these manifestations will be televised and broadcasted. Every event has therefore a promotional power: completely new material is required. Every company is working on the "summer sales operation."

Among April's interesting news is the announcement made by Alfredo Rossi concerning the opening of his own record activity under the Ariston mark. Alfredo Rossi is the proprietor of a record moulding factory, too.

MAY

Examining the present situation in our market we must say that a great number of TV contests have been organized during this season in Italy, Cantagiro, Pesaro Contest, Venice Contest etc. This is because of the great number of new releases that have been introduced in our country, increasing the market just at the beginning of a crisis and therefore disorientating the buyers. First in the list there was "A Record For The Summer" that presented 42 new different releases. Of course, there was a positive result in such matters as we saw in the month of June. In our opinion this does not compensate the efforts done by the record industry to organize and take part in the manifestation: the most interesting result of this contest comes from the fact that it opened the way to a more intimate and profitable cooperation between our record industry and our Radio & TV industry. This was, in fact, the first time that a TV program was so scheduled for being a support to the record promotion. All the songs presented were broadcasted for two months and were presented on our TV screens for three nights from Saint Vincent (in the Alps). We hope that this will represent the first step for a deeper cooperation between the record and Radio TV industries.

The accent now must be put on the success that some of our artists are enjoying in the foreign markets. The top female discovery of the San Remo Festival, Gigliola Cinquetti entered the charts in many different countries with her big hit the winner of the contest, "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti": The record is #1 in France, #1 in Germany, #1 in Spain, #2 in Mexico and #4 in Switzerland, Belgium and Denmark.

Rita Pavone left Italy for a one-month stay in the States, where RCA Victor prepared a strong promotional campaign on this young lark. In the month of June the first single waxed in the States by Rita made the charts: The title was "Remember Me" Rita recorded it in English.

On our charts we must note the new entries "Cin-Cin" (Cheat-Cheat) waxed in Italian by Richard Anthony (EMI Italiana) will soon reach top place of our hit parade. Also second Mina's 2nd disk, waxed under the RI.FI label, the Italian version of the American song "He Walks Like A Man," looms as one of the solid sellers of the summer period. Tune's Italian title is "E' L'Uomo Per Me."

The Month of May ended with the focus on RCA's Meeting In Rome held as a conclusion to the label's winter contest, Festival At Home, and to present the new disks of the summer promotional campaign. It was revealed that the Festival At Home drive resulted in a sales total of 2.5 million disks including the strong success of Neil Sedaka ("Adesso No"), Rita Pavone "(Non E' Facile Avere 18 Anni"), Jimmy Fontana ("Non Te Ne Andare") and Edoardo Vianello ("O Mio Signore"). All these titles are included among the best sellers of the last twelve months period.

JUNE

RCA Italiana's artist Edoardo Vianello was the new million seller of the month. He received a gold record in Rome for his first million disks sold: Edoardo proved himself during the summer of 1962 and 1963. He was considered the hottest best summer hit maker. He reached the top many times of the best seller list with titles like "Il Capello," "Siamo Due Esquimesi," "Pinne Fucile Ed Occhial," "Guarda Come Dondolo," "Abbronzatissima" and "I Watussi." Edoardo was also one of the stars of the winter season thanks to his performance of "Oh Mio Signore," which was for some weeks on the top of our charts. All the songs were penned by Vianello himself along with the strong promotion campaign on him by RCA Italiana, we must mention the considerable help he received on the way to his success by his publisher, Franz Leonardi.

The month of June really impressed the public in Italy with Los Marcellos Ferial, the pop trio who record for the Durium label. The crew entered the Italian charts in June with a nice pop ballad, a tribute to the famous Anzio Battle (1944), and tabbed "Angelita Di Anzio": Immediately after that they were the winners of the "Record For The Summer" contest at Saint Vincent. Also the group's recording of the Summer song "Sei Diventata Nera" immediately reached the #1 position on our charts. Both numbers "Angelita Di Anzio" and "Sei Diventata Nera" are published by the Durium pubbery.

Among the entries on charts during the month of June which we wish to mention are Neil Sedaka's Italian recording of "La Notte E' Fatta Per Amare" (RCA Italiana). Sedaka proved himself as always to be one of the big stars of the summer record season. Also listed in the charts was a recording performed by Adriano Celentano and the mysterious Clan Girls singing "Eh Gia'". The list of new entries continues with "In Ginocchio Da Te," the new recording by Gianni Morandi (RCA Italiana) that should soon reach first position among the best-selling records and Amore Scusami: also with this title, also presented to the TV contest, "A Record For The Summer" by the name of John Foster and his label Phonocolor reached the first time, the top place on our hit parade.

Immediately after "A Record For The Summer" two international contests were held, one in Pesaro and one in Venice. The list of the stars at both these include the names of Francoise Hardy (SAAR), Michel Paje (SAAR), Daniel Gerard (SAAR), Pierre Barouh (SAAR), Audrey (Ariston) and many other foreign talents. In Venice, there was Richard Anthony (EMI Italiana), Petula Clark (SAAR) and the young American talent of Kenny Rankin (CBS). On this artist Ricordi/CBS prepared a strong promotional campaign. During his stay in Milan, he recorded his first Italian disk, which was immediately introduced on the market.

JULY

In this month we were obliged to put the accent on the crisis that seemed to confine the Italian record market. As we have already noted, the crisis was not unexpected but, on the contrary, it was a certain point of view, awaited like the normal consequence of the general economic crisis presently in effect in our country. ITALY—The Past 12 Months we said at the beginning of our review such an alarmed situation arrived; however, it hit the record field some months later than other industries, since as we have explained in this editorial our record area benefited during the last period from a really strong expansion. Until the month of May there was not a major reduction in the volume of sales, but suddenly the crisis was in full swing and the sales figures were decreasing. Several record shops located in various cities indicated in some cases, a decrease in the business volume of 70% in comparison with the situation of the same period during last year.

Execs of the Italian Record Industry put a pessimistic accent on the phenomenon but in order to give a clear judgment on the situation it's necessary to look deeply into the current position of our record market. Two years ago in our Anniversary edition we stressed the alarmistic cry "too many new releases": the situation was not different than the present situation. In 1962 and 1963 we observed a fast decreasing in the number of releases with an improvement of the technical and artistic qualities. The Italian industry concentrated its production in two seasonal programs, Autumn/Winter and Spring/Summer, and the biggest hits derived from a small number of preselected releases. Now, just when the crisis creates a heavy situation in our market, the record firms are adopting an extended policy. The summer 1964 is characterized by an enormous number of new releases (enormous of course, in comparison with the real consistence of the market). Why this? First reason is probably due to the optimistic condition created by the fast expansion of our record market, but another reason is from the great request of new material by part of the great number of special contests scheduled all over Italy for the purpose of promoting artists and recordings. These affairs are the only available promotional media, offered to the record industry. Almost all such contests require new material, and this is the reason why so many records were released during this summer: Let's do a little approximate calculation: 42 new records were presented at Saint Vincent contest "A Record For The Summer"; 28 at the International Show of Pesaro, 35 at the International Show of Venice, 15 new recordings were presented at the RCA Show at Hilton Hotel, and now the Cantagiro (Singing Tour) held in the month of July concluded the series with 31 new recordings presented. To this number we must add the other records included in the different summer promotional campaigns held by the single companies. This brings the total of the summer releases up to nearly 250 new records! In this situation it's easy to talk about a crisis. We only hope that this crisis will not be so heavy and that it would be only a transistory phenomenon.

BELGIUM—The Past 12 Months

There have been few changes in the field of records sales in Belgium, compared with last year's figures. Apparently however, there has been a slight gain in the sale of LP's.

One nevertheless notes a rising sale of Flemish songs, a trend that first came to light on the Belgian market at the beginning of last year and boosted by Will Tura.

Popular—particularly in the Walloon country in Belgium—are French language versions of American hits. Specialists in this field of course are Richard Anthony, The Surfs, Johnny Halliday, Claude Francois and a few others. Flemish people who are naturally inclined to prefer English and more so than the Walloons, mostly go for the original English language versions.

Let us now consider, firm by firm how business stood this past year.

GRAMOPHONE N.V. is naturally still very enthusiastic about their Belgian discovery Adamo. The latter has been tops as far as salesfigures are concerned for the last twelve months Richard Anthony and then The Beatles. An important box-office addition has been Enrico Macias. Numerous English stars have appeared over here on TV: Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Freddie and the Dreamers, Patsy Ann Nobel. New brands with Gramophone are Charlin and Bartok (classics) and Garrett (variety).

INELCO still boasts toppers like Elvis Presley, Sylvie Vartan, Sacha Distel, Alain Barrière and recently those American country performers like Bobby Bare, Jim Reeves, Chet Atkins and The Anita Kerr Singers. This group has been seen on TV (both Flemish and French-language stations) which earned them excellent press reviews. The coming of Paul Anka, who is still very popular in Belgium, has done a world of good for the sale of his records.

SIEMENS (Polydor) have had banner year as far as their Flemish hits are concerned. Their Polydor-attraction John Larry has been at the top a long time with "Alleen" and later with "Dicht Bij Jou Chérie." Tunes by Connie Francis and Brenda Lee are still in great demand. The lion's share of success of course cosists of the famous classical repertoire of the Deutsche Gramophon Gesellschafft, with prodigous names like von Karajan. Meanwhile in recent months a new Flemish discovery has been made who has a promising career ahead of him. His name is simply Ricky (21).

SHOW have known a successful year, the most productive at any rate. Jules Nijs has succeeded in expanding his rather small business and it has now grown into a company which distributes twenty labels from all over the world. Added to this, he distributes the Italian CGD in Benelux and he acquired Gigliola Cinquetti of "Non ho l'eta" fame. His own top performer, Alberto Cortez, has recently married and now lives in Spain. The firm has now acquired larger premises and expanded its staff.

Fonior has in a way distinguished itself by appearing ahead of everybody else with French and Flemish language versions of American top tunes. Once a French version was on the market even before the original American product had come out. Without neglecting the top performers of the London group, much has been done to boost its own production, a number of prominent indigenous names having been added to the repertoire.

Artone Records has now become the Belgian affiliate of the head-firm with the same name in Holland. From the start, it has produced outstanding toppers like Trini Lopez, and the fact that internationally famous people like Checker, Wells, Berry, Sinatra, Martin and other internationally famous people have been contracted, ensures high places on the hitparade. The establishment of Artone-Belgium brings about the disappearance of Socodisc, but Mrs. Robiéfroid continues to head the firm.

Philips has composed most of its repertoire of French top performers like Halliday, François, Sheila and numerous others. However, a trend has come to light to develop a proper repertoire. Liliane, for example, is a cert on the Belgian market. As far as promotion is concerned, it must be said that this firm stands very strong, with the future secure.

Sobedi used to be the firm that produced popular Flemish lore. But this year, the Sobedi people inspired to concentrate on promotion of Kalinka and Jean-Marc Bertrand, two Sobedi stars who were on the Belgian team competing at the European Cup for Song Recital at Knokke. Bertrand has even been on a tour of Canada and has just been awarded First Prize at the first festival of French songs at Spa (Belgium).

Discobel, on its own Discostar label, has produced some impressive successes. Special promotion efforts were made for Ciska Peters, Netherlands' star of MMP. Gert Timmermans is still tops with this firm as far as Dutch songs are concerned. Discobel has further more succeeded in selling a lot of records abroad while in Belgium itself its EP's went like hot cakes, which is a remarkable feat in this country.

Moonglow has, on the whole, known an excellent year, partly due to its top performer, Rocca Granata. Louis Neefs has remained a great asset to this firm. Moonglow, which is now distributing a number of foreign labels has been lucky with a recording of "My Boy Lillipop," not in Millie's original version, but which was quick to appear on the market.

Ronnex has made an interesting discovery this year which may be an important addition to this firm and for its business abroad. It has indeed secured The Shake-Spears, a rock-group of North Rhodesia who have recorded a number of disks. The firm's whole promotion campaign has been centered around them. Also successful were a number of Flemish tunes.

Vogue has known another top year, not only with stars of the French repertoire but especially with American greats like Dionne Warwick. Marva, a young Belgian lady crooner has produced a number of Flemish hits for Vogue. Meantime, Petula Clark, Michel Paje, Salvador and a number of others have remained firm assets and will continue to do so. The active, fighting spirit of Guy Kaveshian has had a lot to do with this favorable development.

Anvers Radio has done exceedingly well on its own Arsa label with some Flemish numbers rendered by Joske Harry and Eddie Wally. But, of course, the ABC-Paramount label still is the backbone of this firm. Ray Charles and Fats Domino being as brilliant as ever before in spite of what has been said. Anvers Radio is very satisfied with the sales of LPs this year. On Ducret-Thomson, Les Missiles have proved a real asset.

Discotrade distributes the very strong Festival products (France). Apart from its successes with prominent people like Nino de Murcia, André Verchuren and others of the Discotrade people have done excellent business with Cinquetti (Non Ho L'Eta). This firm always has one or more hits circulating; presently, it is the case with Les Surfs and also with Marie Laforet, two bestsellers on Festival. Sales of EP's also have been impressive.

CBS naturally lists a great number of American top named who have had their measure of success in Belgium. Barbra Streisand, Tony Bennett and Bobby Solo (especially the latter) have really scored heavily on singles. As sales figures of American hits have gone down slightly, it is understandable that CBS has not produced any hits. But golden times, generally speaking, are sure to come back.

JAPAN—Jan-June—1964

If a question was asked of what type of records became hits in Japan, the answer would be two types. One, music from the motion pictures and two, songs popular in the United States. In Japan then, how are the rankings on the hit parade decided? Unlike the United States not by the number of times played on the juke boxes, nor the sales of records, nor times featured by disk jockeys over the radio.

The rankings are primarily decided by the number of requests by postcards sent to the various radio stations. The senders of these postcard requests are usually between 15 and 20 years old, in fact 85 percent of the total requests comes from boys and girls in this age group.

The Japanese teen age group on the whole mostly favor music from the motion pictures. In the first half of 1964 the following movie music was ranked among the top twenty in Japan's hit parade. . . .

55 Days At Peiking—(Brothers Four)
East Of Eden—
(Victor Young & His Singing Strings)
Live Young—(Troy Donahue)
Charade—(Jack Jones)
From Russia With Love—
(The Village Stompers)

Songs such as shown in the above list once appearing on the hit parade would stay in the top twenty for at least two months.

However, from about four years ago, it has become an established fact that a song making the headlines in the United States would also be a hit in Japan. In other words, a song not listed on Cash Box's Top 100 would not make the grade here in Japan, too. Of course, there are at times, exceptions, but a Top 10 tune as listed on Cash Box will also be a top ranker here in Japan.

The top song for the first half of 1964 was the Village Stompers' recording of "Washington Square," which stayed on the number one spot for ten consecutive weeks. The following is a list of the songs appearing on the Best Ten from January to June of 1964.

Washington Square—
(The Village Stompers)
Be My Baby—(The Ronettes)
Blue Velvet—(Bobby Vinton)
Dominique—(The Singing Nun)
I Left My Heart In San Francisco—
(Brenda Lee)
Marshmallow—(Johnny Cymbal)
Memories, Memories—
(Joanie Sommers)
Sugar Shack—(Jimmy Gilmer)
Let's Make A Memory—
(Cliff Richard)
Bossa Nova Baby—(Elvis Presley)
Lana—(The Velvets)
Short On Love—(Gus Backus)
Please, Please Me—(The Beatles)
Talk Back Tremblin' Lips—
(Johnny Tillotson)
Southtown U.S.A.—(Dixiebelles)
I Want To Hold Your Hand—
(The Beatles)
Where Have All The Flowers Gone—
(The Kingston Trio)
She Loves You—(The Beatles)
Navy Blue—(Diane Renay)
Hello, Dolly!—(Louis Armstrong)
Viva Las Vegas—(Elvis Presley)
Poetry In Motion—(Johnny Tillotson)
Only The Lonely—(Roy Orbison)
Twist & Shout—(The Beatles)
Suspicion—(Terry Stafford)

The above list is made up according to the period of popularity of the songs. While the rule, "popular in America, popular in Japan" is true in most cases, as can be seen, the song "Short On Love" sung by Gus Backus ranked second only to "Washington Square" in the sales of records. Also "Memories, Memories" sung by Joanie Sommers in Japanese succeeded in garnering a large number of fans. As for the Beatles, their appearance on the Hit Parade was about a month later than the United States. That 80 percent of their fans in Japan are of the fairer sex shows that Japanese girls are no different from girls of Western countries in their likes.

Looking again over the first half, 1964 Hit Parade in Japan, the Beatles appear quite conspicuous. This might be termed natural considering the headlines this group has made worldwide. However, unlike the United States or other countries the rage is only confined to their songs, no Beatle haircuts or shirts have yet to come in vogue. And in fact fans of twenty years or over seem to have little likes for the Beatle records.

For the most part, songs with beautiful melodies like "Washington Square," "I Left My Heart In San Francisco," "Where Have All The Flowers Gone" remain the longest on the hit parade. Also the fact that recently among young singers, fans of Johnny Tillotson are increasing and his songs from the Cadence Record period are selling quite well is interesting.

In the popular music entertainment world of Tokyo it is possible to see many shows featuring internationally known artists at almost any time of the year. Shows which even in the United States would be almost impossible to see. And these shows can, not only be taken in readily but are all priced at popular prices.

One of the biggest hits of this current year was Ella Fitzgerald. Jazz fans from all parts of the country flocked into town to see this great vocalist in person. Many of Japan's own singers were in the audience every performance to hear and learn. Also in spite of her busy schedule, Ella invited and looked after the many orphans from the Elizabeth Sanders Home. This and other acts of kindness on the part of Ella has completely endeared her in the hearts of the Japanese people.

Another singer to completely win over the Japanese popular fans was Pat Boone. Pat was everything that advanced notices had made him to be, cheerful, sincere and a good family man. Probably no visiting artist has ever made a more favorable impression on the Japanese press and magazines. It might be pointed out that on his arrival in Haneda 50 thousand fans crowded the airport.

Incidentally, Pat, while in Japan, became a great fan of the national sport, Sumo. And of course on Sunday mornings he never missed going to church. The LP record "Pat Boone In Japan" taken directly from one of his concerts had become a best seller.

Other vocalists making their appearances during this period in Tokyo were Julie London, Anita O'Day, Frankie Laine, Yvette Giraud, and Milva, to name but a few. Julie's husky voice won over the audience and her LP record too issued on her performance in Japan is on the best selling list. Timi Yuro and Damita Jo were also in Tokyo.

Among chorus groups appearing on the Japanese stage in the first half of 1964 were the Trio Los Panchos, Trio Los Delphines, Platters and the Four Freshmen. Also riding on the popularity of folk songs the Brothers Four and Peter, Paul and Mary drew enthusiastic crowds at all their concerts. Two other groups that drew much comment were the Four Dads and Paul and Paula. Their recordings sung in Japanese, especially Paul and Paula's "Wedding Veil" and "Let's Look For Our Star" are on the Japanese hit parade.

Next, turning to orchestras, three of the most popular bands via records with Japanese jazz fans, Glen Miller, Sid Austin and Harry James played to standing room only crowds during their appearances over here. Also the Village Stompers, whose recording of "Washington Square" is well known in Japan, proved a great hit with the younger set. Western music fans also had their day with the personal appearances of Hank Snow, Little Jimmy Dickens, and Roy Acuff. These three cowboy song singers too issued memorial records of their tour in this country.

Other well known names highlighting the 1964 first half popular music stage in Japan were the Dave Brubeck Quartet, Benny Goodman Orchestra, George Lewis and His New Orleans All Stars, Oscar Peterson Trio, Duke Ellington Orchestra, Jerry Mulligan Quartet to name but only the best known. And one of the best drawing cards was the drum session featuring four of the world's greatest drummers, Shelly Mann, Jo Evens, Max Roach and Roy Hines. A show like this, needless to say, would draw and excite jazz fans in any part of the world.

CANADA – Looking Ahead

1963-64 must certainly be looked upon as Britain's year in the world of wax. Can Canada's year now be far off? Many of the leading lights in the record industry in this country are certain that it is very close. Moreover they are backing up their theories in this regard with positive action. Barriers that once seemed insurmountable are being overcome. Costs in many areas of record production are still way out of line with the size of the domestic market. For that reason the majority of Canadian record firms have contended themselves with representing American and foreign labels in the Canadian market. This has placed heavy demands on their production, promotion and merchandising facilities. However, many of them, wisely realizing the outstanding talent potential in Canada, have made it their business to allocate at least a part of their endeavours to the discovery and development of home grown talent. This now increases almost daily, with the direct result that the calibre of Canadian talent on record is definitely on the upswing. Often these efforts are disenchanting for the record company involved, to say the least. But the fact the work continues on an ever enlarging scale points up the fact that Canada is about to arrive in her place in the sun as far as records and recording artists are concerned. Geoffrey Racine, Executive Veep of Capitol Records Of Canada Ltd., indicates that his firm's activities in the field of development of home grown talent and resulting Canadian produced record product have been extremely successful, both from an artistic and a financial point of view. A long list of albums produced by his firm in Canada, by Canadians, albums that held their own at the retail level, backs up Mr. Racine's claim. He goes on to say that it is the intention of Capitol to continue searching for Canadian talent in the company year. George Struth, Production Co-ordinator at Quality Records Ltd., points out that one of the most difficult tasks facing the producer of good Canadian record product is getting exposure for his product. Canadian record product must compete with the high calibre releases originating in quantity in the U.S., and now Britain as well, for an exposure. Many Canadian broadcasters are cooperating to the full extent of their facilities in this regard. However, there are still far too many who hold Canadian produced record product in utter contempt. We do not ask for special favours in the air exposure of Canadian produced records, merely consider the product on its merit alone. Don't play it because it's Canadian, play it because it's good, commercial, potentially-successful record product. Quality records have been successful over the past year in, at least in a small way, reversing the trend of American produced records flooding the Canadian market. Through the fine efforts of such top-notch artists as Diane Leigh, Loreen Church, The Chummingbirds, Maury Logan and numerous others, Canadian record product is being picked up for American distribution by major American firms. This is begining to pay off in a new awareness of the potential source of new talent and resulting sales that is just waiting for the American producer with enough foresight to take a long hard look at Canada. Here again the problem of exposure shows up. The American producers have little or no idea what potential does exist in this country. The Compo Company enjoyed tremendous success with the English language disk debut of a long established French singer, Pierre Lalonde. The Apex release of Pierre's "Louise" was a big seller right across Canada. It sold in sufficient quantities that it deserved the American release it finally did get, but not soon enough to cash in on the potential that the side was packed with. Phil Rose, Apex Division topper at Compo, says:

"The Beatles did much to break down the U.S. Vinyl curtain however, I feel the Canadian industry's main contention in relation to its U.S. counterpart is not necessarily that of obtaining U.S. releases of its recording efforts. Were we to obtain an evaluation of our sales efforts, and have those reflected in the U.S. trades, that problem would resolve itself. The proximity of our markets and the similarity of our sales patterns clearly demands the inclusion of Canadian activity in trade reporting. Only when we are no longer looked upon as an overseas 'foreign' market by the U.S. industry, will we be able to reap the full benefits of our creative, promotional and sales abilities, both on American records distributed here and our own Canadian product." The facilities for top notch recording do exist in Canada. As Mike Doyle, National Sales Promotion Manager for RCA Victor, points out, his firm has only recently re-equipped its Montreal and Toronto recording studios as well as the plant at Smiths Falls at a cost in excess of 1,500,000 dollars. Canadian record men, one after another, are confident that their efforts over the years are about to begin paying off in a big way. All we lack at the moment is a similar awareness in record men the world over.

SWITZERLAND—The Past 12 Months

Switzerland, a nation made up of 60% Swiss-German, 34% Swiss-French and 6% Swiss-Italians and Peto-Romantsch, is a unique and particular record market. The country now has about 5,700,000 inhabitants and in comparison to its population has the highest number of immigrants from other European countries. In fact there are now about 800,000 foreigners (one worker in every three) employed in agriculture, industry, hotels and the construction of new national highways. 600,000 of these workers are Italian—the rest made up of Greek, Spanish or German—and together they form a new and important mass of buyers. This is one explanation for the enormous success of Italian singers in Switzerland and for the fact that Zurich now has an important Italian Song Festival "Zurich Greets San Remo." The 30,000 English speaking people (mostly Americans working for the international organizations in Geneva) living in Switzerland also represent an interesting group of buyers with money to spend. As far as records are concerned according to the majority of Swiss record companies they favor the European hits with American jazz and American singers proving extremely popular. Sales of nationally produced records of local popular music, yodelling, mountain and country bands, fifes and drums from Basle etc. are confined almost entirely to the very considerable tourist trade. Of the 5,500,000 visitors who holidayed in Switzerland in 1963 it is estimated that 700,000 were British and 600,000 American. The greatest demand in local recordings is for L.Ps and E.Ps.

Electromusic, an independent publisher of Swiss folklore music in Basle, reports that sales of local recordings in the last twelve months have been greater than ever before, with a sharp rise in orders from record companies overseas, particularly America. As 1964 is the year of the Swiss National Exposition which takes place once every twenty five years it is expected that the demand for local recordings by Swiss communities abroad will reach an all time high. All these facts have to be taken into consideration when assessing the Swiss record market. It must be stated that in Switzerland unlike England and America there is no central office which can establish the real state of the record market or set up a weekly or monthly list of best selling records based on concrete figures and returns. This is practically impossible because manufacturers, publishers and dealers are not obliged to communicate any sales figures and are reluctant to give precise information.

However, this year Mr. Hans Oestreicher Jnr. of Turicaphon (the only pressing plant in Switzerland) reports that in the last twelve months his company had an output of 3,000,000 records. The number of 12" L.Ps increased by 30 per cent over the previous year. Oestreicher also reports that the Italian million selling hit "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" by Bobby Solo sold over 30,000 copies in Switzerland on the Ricordi label published by Flora Music. From this figure it can be seen that if a record sells 50,000 copies in Switzerland it is a very big hit indeed. A really sensational hit could, of course, notch up approximately 100,000, but this is a very rare occurrence. There is a growing tendency on the part of distributors to make catalogue deals with overseas companies which call for releases on their own labels. This tendency primarily concerns American companies. For example, Finsterwald and Cantacuzene (Vogue) will shortly introduce the Dot label to Switzerland. These recordings were previously sold under the London label. The same distributor has recently concluded similar contracts with Scepter, Wand, Peacock, Red Bird and Rust which are being added to more than 45 international lines which the company is already representing.

The Swiss National Exposition in Lausanne which can always be relied upon to spark off a series of patriotic movements and events, this year produced something of interest and import to the record industry. The Swiss Musicians Association in conjunction with The Swiss Sociey of Composers and Publishers (SUISA) and the Swiss Television and Broadcasting Company have issued an "Anthology of Swiss Music" comprising 30 12" L.Ps pressed by Turicaphon and selling on subscription at the price of 70 dollars. This new and magnificent Anthology contains a selection of some 100 works dating from the 9th century to the present day by more than 80 composers from the monks of the Irish Convent of Sankt Gallen to Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Arthur Honegger and many living composers. To accompany the records the Swiss Music Library (New York Office 444, Madison Avenue) have compiled a catalogue of Swiss composers together with a list of Swiss compositions as recorded by the country's best artists and issued on world famous labels including Columbia, H.M.V. Elite, Decca, D.G.G. London, M.G.M. and many others. It is important to note that in this first "Anthology of Swiss Music" only Swiss soloists, conductors, orchestras and choirs were engaged. These include the Orchestra de la Suisse Romande with conductor Ernest Ansermet and the Swiss German Radio Orchestra of Beromunster. There is today a noticeable revival of Swiss musical life which is being encouraged and financially helped by private and public associations. Many new works have been specially created for the Swiss National Exposition and of these particular mention must be made of the "Symphonie of the Machines" by Rolf Liebermann—a strictly way-out work written not for musicians but for machines employing typewriters, telephones, computors, lifts, hooters, fire alarms, bells etc. etc. More and more Switzerland means music but the demand is greatest in the classical and folk lore field.

Pop wise progress is not so good and this is attributed mainly to the very strong increase in the cost of living during the past twelve months. Regular radio shows by d.j's in the various speaking territories play an important part in Swiss record promotion.

Local artistes from the French section to establish popularity during the year include Les Neuf de Choeur, Les Four Shakers and Les Relax, the latter two groups being discovered by Heinz Liechti, Director of Sidem, the publishing house in Geneva which handles the 'Big Three'—Robbins, Feist and Miller, and MPCH. The Swiss German section has also produced some new stars of which perhaps Ariola's Hillbilly singer Peter Hinnen is the most important. On the distaff side another Ariola artiste Swiss-Italian singer Anita Traversi won the Baden-Baden song festival with "Ob in Rio Ob in Bombay." Another popular singer in Switzerland is film-actor Vico Torriani.

From artistes to sales. First and foremost Musikvertrieb A.G. of Zurich headed by Maurice Rosengarten report their biggest sellers of 1963/1964 have been "Oh My Darling Caroline" recorded on Telefunken by Ronny who, only twelve months ago, was a technician in the company's recording studios in Bremen; "Shake Hands" by jazz musician turned vocalist Trafi Deutscher; Bobby Solo's million selling Italian hit "Una Lacrimo Sul Viso" on Ricordi; "N'y Pense Plus Tout Est Bien" by Hughes Aufray on Barclay and "Non, Non, Non" by Les Neuf de Coeur on Decca. Besides being the exclusive Swiss representative for Decca London, RCA, Warner Bros, Capitol, Barclay etc. this active company has, during the past year, also acquired the Ariola label. Musikvertrieb is also extensively engaged in the wholesale distribution of radio, television, tape recorders and juke boxes etc. A major event of the Musikvertrieb coin machine year was the large scale Seeburg International Sales Convention hosted by Maurice Rosengarten in October 1963. Attended by over 200 Seeburg executives, representatives and distributors from all over the world the 'Think Big, Sell Big' theme of the event was backed by a full range display of Seeburg's latest music and vending equipment.

Another major company also situated in Zurich is Philips who had tremendous success during the past year with Soeur Sourire (The Singing Nun) and "Dominique"—a No. 1 smash on both sides of the Atlantic. Another semi-religious recording to notch up healthy sales for Philips was "Ich Will An Deiner Seite Gehen" by Chaplain Flury a catholic priest from Zug. Philips also report an increase in sales in the French sector where their best sellers have included Johnny Halliday, Sheila, The Four Shakers and Claude Francois. In the classical field Philips had a top seller with Bach's "St. Matthews Passion" recorded under the direction of Curt Redel. Lastly Philips also noted an increase in the demand for popular Swiss music and in this respect their many 12" L.Ps "Holiday in Switzerland" proved popular.

Jecklin & Co. of Zurich who also have one of the finest record shops in Switzerland report considerable success with British artistes notably Cliff Richard, The Shadows, The Beatles and Acker Bilk. In the German language the most popular records have been "Liebeskummer Lohnt Sich Nicht" by Swedish singer Siv Malmkvist; "Drina-Marsch" by Jorgen Ingmann and "Jetzt Dreht Die Welt Sich Nur Um" by Gitte and Rex Gildo. From France the best sellers came from Edith Piaf, Richard Anthony and Dick Rivers whilst Italy has been represented by Tony Dallara, Adriano Celentano and the 16 year old winner from the Eurovision Song Contest Gigliola Cinquetti.

Over to Basle where Hug have acquired two new labels in the past year, Monitor from American and the French label Musidisc which now take their place alongside HMV, Electrola, Star etc. Biggest sales have been achieved by Gilbert Becaud, Marlene Dietrich, Camillo Felgen, Rex Gildo, Conny Froebus and especially popular with the Italian immigrants "Ohei Paesano" by Rita Pavone.

A strong list of best sellers from Siemens (DGG) reveal hits by Freddy, Brenda Lee, Sacha Distel and Peter Alexander. From America both Connie Francis and Gene Pitney had success with Italian recordings Connie with "Il Primo Bacio" and Pitney with "Quando Vedrai La Mia Ragazza." More and more labels are providing Italian records for the Swiss market including Polydor, MGM, United Artists and Fonit.

Finsterwald and Cantacuzene, Vogue S.A. and Editions de Belmot group of companies report a very satisfactory and successful year particularly with the Reprise label which they acquired for Switzerland in 1962. In addition to Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr. and Count Bassie, Trina Lopez scored a bulls eye with "If I Had A Hammer" and Dionne Warwick with "Walk On By." Cover versions in French, German and Italian of top American songs have proved very popular, and this sometimes results in a new lease of life for the English versions. Finsterwald and Cantacuzene have also enjoyed considerable success with French recordings by British star Petula Clark and by that country's top group, The Searchers. The company has also done very well with Francoise Hardy, Henri Salvador, Daniele Garard and Michel Page.

Phonag AG, situated at Winterthur, just outside Zurich has been a distributing firm since 1959. The major event of this company during the past year has been the taking over of the CBS label in October 1963 which got off to a good start. The Directors, Mr. Bischof and Mr. Kolbe, report excellent sales in the classical field by Isaac Stern, Brailowsky, Francescatti, Robert Casadesus and Bruno Walter. 'Pop' wise they have been very successful with the German productions of CBS Frankfurt by Bernd Spier and Marika Kilius; Mitch Miller has also enjoyed good sales in Switzerland. Artistes who have appeared in Switzerland with considerable success include Casadesus, Brailowsky, Francescatti and Percy Faith. Phonag have recently acquired the Saba label of Germany.

Anton and Jane Peterer of Edition Melodie and Edition Coda of Zurich have obtained the distribution rights of the new Pick label which they will launch in September with a catalogue of ten L.Ps including new titles by jazz-guitarist Pierre Cavalli. Coda handled the winning song from the 1964 Baden-Baden Festival "Liebeskummer Lohnt Sich Nicht" by Siv Malmkwist. To cope with the growing demand for background music Coda have recorded 14 South American titles especially for radio and television. Furthermore, Coda controls all music from the Swiss films released by Urania-Film.

The newly formed Flora musikverlag in Uster got off to a good start with "Drei Musketiere" by Conny Froebus on Electrola and "Wenn Ich Ein Junge War" by Italian star Rita Pavone.

Editions Helbling of Zurich were the publishers of Switzerland's entry in the Eurovision Song Contest "I Mieu Pensieri" (My Thoughts).

Over the past four or five years Switzerland's most important distributors have noticed a steady but marked increase in the sales of classical music and happily report that this is not only confined to the older generation of record buyers. The teenagers, too, are becoming classical minded. A top seller for Musikvertrieb ever since 1961 has been the celebrated international pianist Van Cliburn. Also popular in the classical field are recordings by Wilhelm Backhaus.

Editions Sidem enjoyed a string of hits by top American, English, French, German and Italian stars including Trini Lopez, The Beatles, Charles Aznavour, Gitte and Rex Gildo and Adriano Celentano. Sister company, Mondiamusic is primarily engaged in handling film scores from leading continental films.

To sum up Switzerland is a very music conscious nation with a public taste which ranges from pop and jazz to classics. During the past year Switzerland has welcomed many world famous artistes including The Modern Jazz Quarter, Oscar Petersen, Humphrey Lyttelton, Duke Ellington, Paul Anka, The Thelonious Monk Quartet, The Max Roach Quartet, The Red Army Choir and many top German variety shows, all of whom have been very warmly received.

Yes, Switzerland really is a land of music . . . .

SCANDINAVIA—The Past 12 Months

JANUARY

It started with the Beatles at the top of the charts in Sweden with "She Loves You," Suzie on Sonet in Denmark with "Johnny Loves Me," Beatles again topped in Finland with "Twist And Shout" and Cliff Richard held the top position in Norway with "Don't Talk To Him." . . . The strike among artists against radio and TV in Sweden continued for a second month. . . . In middle of the month the Beatles also conquered Norway and topped the charts with "She Loves You." . . . At the end of January, government-owned Suomen Television in Finland bought the independent commercial Tesvisio Oy, giving monopoly to the government company. People in record biz in Finland didn't sound too enthusiastic about the affair.

FEBRUARY

When the month started, the Beatles had made it in Scandinavia. They topped the charts in Sweden and Norway with "I Want To Hold Your Hand" and in Denmark with "She Loves You." Finland had its own dance craze called the Jenka, and "Doin' The Jenka" with Jan Rodhe and The Adventurers on Sonet was a top seller. . . . Local Song Festivals took place in Denmark, Finland and Norway, but Sweden had its strike and no Song Festival this year. Winners were "Sangen Om Dig" (The Song Of You) in Denmark, "Laiskotellen" (Being Lazy) in Finland and "Spiral" in Norway. . . . Arne Bendiksen, former co-owner of Egil Monn Iversen A/S in Norway, bought out his partners and changed company name to Arne Bendiksen A/S. . . . AB Svenska Manu-Music entered the Swedish market bringing Norwegian label Manu to Sweden.

MARCH

John Leyton on HMV topped the Danish charts with "Beautiful Dreamer," Finland had its "Doin' The Jenka" for the second month as top seller, Norway preferred The Swinging Blue Jeans on HMV with "Hippy Hippy Shake" and the Swedes didn't refuse to buy "All My Loving" with the Beatles. . . . British label Pye changed its distributor in Denmark and was taken over by Morks Musikforlag. . . . The strike among artists in Sweden suddenly came to an end March 20th, giving Swedish TV viewers a chance to see and hear the Eurovision Song Contest from Copenhagen's Tivoli the next day, a great victory for Italy and Gigliola Cinquetti singing "Non Ho L'Eta." The well arranged show was Denmark's farewell to international competitions. . . . I.S. Dansk Grammofonpladeforlag in Copenhagen took over the Czechish label Supraphon for Denmark.

APRIL

"Sangen om dig" (The Song Of You), Denmark's Eurovision entry, topped the Danish charts with Bjorn Tidmand on Odeon, "Hippy Hippy Shake" continued for a second month at the top of Norway's charts, as did "All My Loving" on the Swedish listing . . . Hootenanny is what people are talking about. A number of groups appears but with few exceptions, the hootenanny isn't creating any sensations in Scandinavia. . . . EMI in Sweden awarded a silver disk to The Streaplers from Gothenburg, having sold 50,000 of their "Diggety Doggety" on Odeon. . . . Local lark Wenche Myhre went to top at Norwegian charts with "La meg vaere ung" (Let Me Be Young) on Triola. It was a song from Norway's local song festival in February and observers feel that it should have been that song representing Norway at the Eurovision Song Contest in Copenhagen in March. . . . The Beatles contracted for concerts in Copenhagen in June, and everybody is happy until the Copenhagen police say no. They say; too many riots, too much chaos. Copenhagen will do better without the British idols. The matter went to Dept. of Justice in Denmark and at the end of April came the message that the Danish government had removed the decision by the police and said okay to the Beatles. . . . Blue Beat is the latest craze here and the first records appear on the market. . . . Sonet in Stockholm signs contract with Marshall Chess, bringing Argo, Checker and Chess to the Swedish market. . . . During RCA Victor's Nashville country & western tour, Jim Reeves and Bobby Bare were awarded Silver Disks in Norway for having sold 25,000 each of "Detroit City" and "Adios Amigos." . . . Sammy Davis Jr. to Stockholm for the UNICEF concert April 25.

MAY

"Non Ho L'Eta" with Gigliola Cinquetti on Triola topping the charts in Denmark, The Beatles and "All My Loving" is a top seller in Finland, "La meg vaere ung" with Wenche Myhre on Triola holds top position in Norway and Beatles are doing it again in Sweden, this time with "Can't Buy Me Love." . . . Philips in Norway introduces their Bergen Beat series of records showing that if Britain can find talents in Liverpool, Norway certainly can do so in Bergen. . . . New in record biz in Norway is Jorg-Fr. Ellertsen A/S presenting labels Troll (pop) and Kritsne Toner (religious). . . . In the middle of the May, Jim Reeves on RCA Victor moves to the top of the charts in Norway and Sweden with "I Love You Because." . . . Cliff Richard and The Shadows touring Scandinavia, while most artists coming here appear in Sweden only, or in Sweden and Denmark. . . . In Sweden a delegation from record manufacturers andmusic publishers discusses the chances of airing more local songs in radio and TV with SBC-TV. . . . Gunnar Bergström of Sonet, Sweden, back from the U.S. with new labels, this time Red Bird and R.I.C.

JUNE

The Beatles came to Copenhagen, caused the usual riots and noise and continued on a world-wide trip to Amsterdam, Hong Kong, Australia and New Zealand, with regular reports of more riots dropping in. Gothenburg in Sweden declared that all those reports had convinced them that the town had no interest in any concerts by the British idols. . . . Al Hirt on RCA Victor topped the Danish charts with "Java," Jim Reeves on same label continued at the top in Norway with "I Love You Because." Millie on Fontana was top seller in Sweden with "My Boy Lollipop" and Finland had The Beatles and "All My Loving" at the top for a second month. . . . Swedish lark Siw Malmkvist winning the German Song Festival at Baden-Baden. . . . The Beatles to Stockholm at the end of July is the latest news. Stockholm needs events, it is said, but in some circles it is understood that July is the wrong time. Sweden in general is a 'closed country' in July, when everybody is away somewhere on vacation. . . . A report from Finland says that the Finnish record buyers are becoming more 'international'—a record usually had to be in Finnish if it had any particular chance to be a top seller.

JULY

Millie on Fontana with "My Boy Lollipop" is top seller in Denmark, "All My Loving" and Beatles for third month on the top in Finland, Jim Reeves on RCA Victor continue at the top in Norway with "I Love You Because" and Alma Cogan on Columbia is the top seller in Sweden with "Tennessee Waltz." . . . Pianist Kewe Wickman is getting deeper engaged in music biz by starting publishing house Kewe Music and Wide World Records in Sweden. . . . The summer is reported being very good saleswise in Sweden. . . . Sonet in Scandinavia signs contract with Specialty Records. . . . "Long Tall Sally" with The Beatles to the top of the Danish charts in the middle of the month.

SWEDEN—1963

The sale of records in Sweden during 1963 shows an increase of 169,792 records more than during 1962. The majority of the increase was LP's which also means that it did not add much profit to the trade itself, since it was mainly the record-like sale of the UNO record "All Star Festival" that was responsible for the increase.

The sales figures show a total sale of 3,872,341 (against 3,862,493) singles and EP's in 1963—an increase of 9848 records, and 865,824 (against 705,880) LP's in 1963. However, of the LP's, 169,400 of them were the "All Star Festival." Deducting the sale of this record from the statistics, it is obvious that the LP sale in Sweden in 1963 dropped with not less than 9456 items compared with the year before. It can't, of course, be estimated how many people would have bought other LP's if the UNO record had not been available, but on the other hand, it is obvious that a lot of people who usually never bought any LP, did so for the first time when the UNO record was offered to them. Chances are that those people became future LP customers, something that in the long run will help to add profit for the trade.

Biggest profit of 1963 went to the government, which collected not less that 5,961,613 Kronor in luxury taxes for records sold. It is a sum corresponding to $1,192,322. This luxury tax is one Krona (20¢) for singles or EP's and three Kronor (60¢) on LP's. The government collected its luxury tax also for the UNO record, but this money was handed over to the UNO by the government.

There is at the present a new tax system being investigated by the authorities. This includes among others that records (and several other things on which there are heavy luxury taxes) should be tax free. The record trade here has promised that if the government withdraws its taxes on records, prices on the same will drop with sums corresponding to the taxes.

Sweden's Tape Recorder Problem

STOCKHOLM—Each year, some 60,000 new tape recorders find their way to buyers in Sweden, writes Dr. Sven Wilson, head of STIM (Sweden's ASCAP) in a small booklet titled "På Begäran" (Upon Request).

It is no secret that those tape recorders are to blame when speaking about the drop in sales figures from all record companies, Dr. Wilson thinks.

If a group of ten teenagers buys ten tape recorders, they will not buy ten records with their idols. They buy one record at the most. Often, they don't buy any records at all. They hear it on radio and tape it.

According to Dr. Wilson, the authorities were aware of this problem when the present Copyright Law was written in 1956, but it wasn't judged too much of a problem at that time. But since then, the sales of tape recorders have increased enormously, and suddenly it has become a problem. According to Wilson, it is obvious that the authorities must find one or another way to solve the problem, which becomes more and more gigantic, with less and less phonograph records sold as a result.

As a comment to the above, it can be mentioned that various solutions of this problem have been mentioned from time to time. One of these solutions is that each owner of a tape recorder should be registered and pay a certain sum each year, something like the licenses for having radios or TV. The money coming in from those licenses on tape recorders would be used to compensate record manufacturers for their losses, another part to compensate composers/authors for their loss, etc.

Dr. Wilson writes that STIM reached a peak of 9,500,000 Kronor in 1963 against 7,500,000 Kronor in 1962 ($1,900,000 against $1,500,000). About 5 per cent of the money came from radio and TV. STIM does not collect any mechanical licenses. It is a Performing Rights Society only.

The next and second Swedish copyright reaching the charts was "Grindslanten" (The Gate-Money) with Sten & Stanley at Decca in end of July.

NORWAY'S BEST SELLERS

Norway has got its share of The Beatles, at least on records, during 1964. However, local copyrights has done very good, too, particularly thanks to record-breaking nightingale Wenche Myhre, who did it with "La meg være ung" (Let Me Be Young) on Triola, topping the charts two months, and among the Top 10 for more than four months. Also the satirical "Dagligliv i Folkehjemmet" (Daily Life In The Welfare Country), a Norwegian "The First Family" appeared among the top three.

A breakdown of the top three month by month follows below:

January:	1	Don't Talk To Him (Cliff Richard/Columbia) Belinda (Scandinavia) AB
	2	Detroit City (Bobby Bare/RCA Victor) Belinda (Scandinavia) AB
	3	*Dagligliv i Folkehjemmet (Ragnhild Michelsen-Rolf Just Nilsen/RCA Victor)

FINLAND—The Past 12 Months

As a record market, Finland is or at least has been a country where Finnish-language records never had any trouble competing with foreign language recordings. Finland is also the market where domestic copyrights usually dominate the charts.

However, this might come to an end as Finland seems to be becoming a teenager's market, and for some reasons, teenagers seem unlikely to "accept" their own language on records—at least in Scandinavia. So far, anyhow, with the exception of the Beatles, a Finnish version of a record with, for example, Elvis Presley, is doing better than the original one. A good example of this is "Seinillä on korvat" with Eino Grön on Scandia, a Finnish version of "The Walls Have Ears". The Elvis Presley version did not create much noise at the Finnish market, but the local version was on the charts for at least three months.

Also, popular songs sung by the Beatles, have been recorded in Finnish with good results, but in those cases, the original versions have been taking the big money.

A typical example indicating the future outlook of the Finnish market was recently shown by the popular broadcast program "Eight In The Top," of which there are two versions, one for Finnish recordings and one for foreign. The Finnish "Eight In The Top" usually included recordings in Finnish language only, but in June 1964, such a program had only two of the eight records in Finnish, two were instrumentals, and the other four were sung by local artists in English.

In any case, Finland is still a country where a local composer of pop music can do very good in competition with imported records. It is a comparatively small market, but there are campaigns going on to increase the market, among others to stimulate more people to buy record players.

SPAIN—The Past 12 Months

The past year has been a continuation of the initial "boom" in the Spanish record industry, but we can note many changes. First of all, the "kings" of the business (Paul Anka, Dúo Dinámico, Elvis Presley, Connie Francis) have been (almost completely) forgotten. In their places the fans of modern music have created many new names. These new hitmakers have a shorter life and the market is, of course, more active.

The new names are: Les Surfs, vocal group from Madagascar who got a tremendous success with the Spanish version of "Be My Baby;" Trini Lopez, with his hammer and also with "La Bamba;" Gigliola Cinquetti, winner of San Remo Festival and also Eurovision; Rita Pavone, the dynamite Italian girl; Gino Paoli, also from Italy, who has sold a lot of copies of "Sapore Di Sale;" Françoise Hardy, Sylvie Vartan, Edoardo Vianello, Charles Aznavour, Luis Aguilé, Enrique Guzmán, and, of course, the Beatles. Beatlemania has reached Spain not as strongly as other countries, but has reached the country with a big impact. In less than four months, Odeón, the firm who handle Beatles here, has released around ten E.P.'s.

As a repercussion of Beatles success all over the world, Spanish groups have changed in their techniques, approaching to the Beatles style. Now the groups have a great importance in record business. Odeón reports that records from a Spanish group, the Mustangs, sell more than Beatles. Almost every company has at least two or three groups under contract. This importance is due to the fact that musicians were on strike for a long period, during which record companies recorded with little groups or with background music imported from other countries. Beside this, groups seem to be the trend now in Spain. The standard type is a singer solist, two guitarists, a bass and drums. But there are a lot of different groups in other styles.

Among the hot Spanish are: The Mustangs, Lone Star, Pekenikes, Flaps, Tonys, Relámpagos Sirex, Sonor, Javaloyas, Extraños Continentales, Idolos, Pumas, 4 Jets, and many more. There is also a trend with some of the groups that consists of doing instrumental versions of Spanish traditional music, mixed with a very strong beat. The initial recordings of this "Spanish Sound" began just a year ago with two foreign groups: The Jokers, that recorded new tunes such as "Gypsy Moon," "Little Gypsy" and ancient hits such as "Marí Dolores," "La Paloma," etc. and The Black Magics who recorded "Surfin Gypsy" and "La Hora." At the beginning of 1964 The Pekenikes recorded "The Four Mule Skinners" (Los Cuatro Muleros"), a very old Spanish theme, with electric guitars and a strong beat. They had a big success, followed by Los Tonys with "La Cucaracha." After this, "El Vito" and "Zorongo Gitano" and "Don Quijote" were new attempts to create the "New Sound From Spain."

Zafiro has begun with a new label, Novola, that will be dedicated to these young groups and singers. They have told Cash Box that they will try to get a new sound with a strong Spanish personality and an international beat.

As usual, the Spanish market is at the moment an E.P. market. But the first serious attempt to singles were registered last month. The main promoter is Zafiro, who is releasing everything in sight. Vergara and Belter have released some singles. These attempts, together with the increase of prices of E.P. (from 85 to 95 pesetas) and the promotion of L.P. with low priced series, will, perhaps, change the Spanish market in little time. But, for the moment, Spain is an E.P. market.

Sales have increased about 20-30 per cent in almost every company. Everybody expects a more spectacular growth, because of the increased number of record players, the general economic boom of Spain and the big promotion that Radio and TV now mean for the record business. It is undoubtedly true that everytime an artist has a personal appearance on TV his records sell more. Beside this, Spain is going to have a second TV channel with a different program. Radio speakers are going more and more to the disc jockeys field and journalists are writing about records in the main newspapers and magazines of the main cities of Spain.

However, Spain figures are not very high. You can sell easily 1,000 copies. If you sell 10,000 you have a big hit. When the sales figures reach 30,000 it is the same as a million-seller in the United States. We are speaking about E.P.s because there is not yet a single market in Spain.

Another important conclusion in the development of the record industry last year is that any song that was a hit was sung in Spanish (with the exceptions of Beatles hits and "La Mamma" by Aznavour). As far as the exceptions are concerned, we can be sure that if Aznavour had recorded "La Mamma" in Spanish it would have sold three times more. It is very important for foreign artists to record in Spanish, not only due to the Spanish sales, but also for the Spanish-speaking market of America.

An important piece of news this year concerning record business was the contract signed between Zafiro and Decca (London) for the world distribution of the Spanish material of Zafiro. Also, the contracts of Reprise and AZ with Hispavox. Time and Kapp, now distribute here by Vergara. Command will be distributed by Hispavox. RCA has recently signed with Dot. Zafiro has the representation of Orfeón.

Concerning new artists contracts, Belter has signed T.N.T., Mina and Dallara. Hispavox, through the International label, has inked Peppino di Capri. Discophon has signed an important TV artist Juan Pedro Somoza. Raphael signed with Hispavox. RCA signed Manuel Torres and Elena Duque.

MEXICO—The Past 12 Months

The musical situation in México during the past twelve months, as in past years, hasn't changed much. The artists of the "new wave" are still the most popular among the people but are not the best sellers. The bolero rhythm in México is almost passe, and the music of trios is the same. The folk music (rancheras) and the new folk style (bolero ranchero) is as strong as in the past two or three years but never as popular as it used to be by Jorge Negrete and Pedro Infante (both of them died many years ago). The record business in México is getting better each day and there is a great future for it, if the record manufacturers give the people what they want and invest as much as is needed.

The publishing business in México is very active and some new publishers have appeared. The creation of the AMPEM (Mexican Association of Promoters and Publishers of Music, S.A.) has helped much on the international scene and in this country, and is collecting more money from various entertainment establishments.

In the past 12 months the most popular artists in México were: Enríque Guzmán, Jose Alfredo Jiménez, Javier Solís, Angélica María, Lola Beltrán, Los Apson Boys, César Costa, Alberto Vázquez, Lucha Villa, Sonia López, Sonora Santanera, Antonio Aguilar, Los Hooligans, Marco Antonio Muñíz, Hermanos Carrión, Los Locos del Ritmo, Los Panchos, Carlos Campos, Cuco Sánchez, Flor Silvestre, Alvaro Zermeño, Hermanoz Záizar, Los Rebeldes del Rock, Vianey Valdéz and others. In the international field, the most popular figures in México were: Gigliola Cinquetti, Edoardo Vianello, The Persuaders, Steve Lawrence & Eydie Gorme, Palito Ortega, Ray Coniff, Rocío Dúrcal, Marisol, Connie Francis, The Blue Diamonds, Violetta Rivas, Rita Pavone, Al Caiola, Elvis Presley, Bobby Vinton, Trini López, The Ventures, The Beatles, Neil Sedaka, Jorgen Ingman, The Beach Boys and some others.

AUGUST 1963.—Los Hermanos Rigual were invited to the San Remo Music Festival, where the winner was "Non L'Eta Per Amarti" sung by Gigliola Cinquetti who later cut this song in Spanish, a smash hit. The Untouchables arrived in México to perform in theaters. World known Mexican composer Agustin Lara started a tour through the United States accompanied by his orchestra. Fifth National Jazz Festival opened with the assistance of the best Mexican musicians. Two new labels were introduced in the Mexican market: "Campei" and "Astro." Dancers and singing performers Los Yorsys appeared at the Hollywood Palladium. Pedro Vargas performed at the "Chez Paree," New York. For the first time, at the Palace of Fine Arts, a Mexican jazz group appeared; it was the group and ballet of Tino Contreras. Jayne Mansfield arrived to perform at "Terrazza Cassino."

SEPTEMBER 1963.—Connie Francis released her first big hit in Spanish. A composition of Augusto Algueró tagged "Gracias." The Zavala Brothers returned to México after more than two years of performances in Europe, Asia and the United States. Dyno informed us about his success in Lima, Perú. Peerless introduced a new singer the named Beto Cañedo. Dorothy Dandrige came to México to perform. Andy Russell was working in Spain. A big hit in México were the Los Carrión voices, "Magia Blanca." Lorenza Lori returned to her second home. Cuco Sánchez left to perform in Chile.

OCTOBER 1963.—Los Yorsys returned from Argentina. First performance of the Zavala Brothers on Mexican TV in more than two years. César Costa recorded at RCA "Remember Me, Diana." Vocal duet Sonia and Myriam arrived in México to record and perform. Coffee places are getting popular in México with shows played by groups of the "new wave." Jose G. Cruz moved from Peerless to DUSA's A&R. First youth festival to benefit the Institute of Rehabilitation took place at the Palace of Fine Arts with the participation of artists of the "new wave." Silvia Pinal began a brief stand at Terrazza Casino. The Paris Sisters are performing at El Patio night club, just reopened. Connie Stevens came to spend her honeymoon. Gamma Records began distributing the Vougue label. French singer Charles Trenet started to work at Los Globos night club. Luis Bastón flew to Australia.

NOVEMBER 1963.—One of the founders of the record industry in México, Sr. Guillermo Kornhauser died at the age of 68. A beautiful new singer hit with her versión of "Copetón"; her name: Malú Reyes. Luis Arcaraz Jr. signed a contract with RCA Victor. Helmuth Haertel (DGG) and Heinz Voigt (Polydor) arrived in México to supervise DUSA label. Lucho Gatica went on tour. La Sonora Santanera went to S.A. From Argentina returned Dyno. Carmen Cavallaro came to México City. Enríque Guzmán had a new hit with "The Cry Of The Century." From Buenos Aires returned Los Ruffino. María Félix flew to U.S. accompanied by Agustin Lara for a series of performances. A Latin American disk jockey convention took place here. The Platters were in México. BRAZIL—The Past 12 Months

Everybody is familiar with the very difficult moments that this country went through during this past year: until about three months ago, we could only witness a constant political and financial crisis, contributing to a vertiginous devaluation of the Cruzeiro, a startling raise in prices, restriction of credits and total distrust in the good outcome of a corrupt and subversive government. To top it all, the country went through a bloodless revolution which overthrew the government and empowered a new one. Although people look with more optimism to the future, the nation is still suffering the results of long years of misgovern. It is more than natural that the record industry has felt deeply these circumstances, not allowing the expected progress, if we consider the rising interest of the public for the music in general and the phonograph business in particular. We have to consider that a few of these twelve months, were completely negative for the record sales, when people saved their money for goods of first necessity and did not even dare to buy records. However, we can safely say that it is the beginning of a new era in this country, concerning the production and sales of phonograph records: even with all the disadvantages appointed above, there was an unitarian increase of about 10% approximately. We can estimate the sales having reached the Cr$15.000.000.-000,00 (Fifteen Billion Cruzeiros) mark.

We have to consider other factors which were equally responsible for not allowing a greater expansion. For instance: the breakable 78RPM-10" records suffered a decrease in sales of approximately two million unities and the preference for the 33RPM-7" singles, in spite of having had an increase in sales of about 142%, did not succeed to reach the levels formerly attained by the traditional 78RPM-10". This happened for two main reasons: firstly, there are still, especially outside the big cities, a great number of old-fashioned record-players, with only one speed (78 RPM); secondly, because the companies started an unsuccessful launching of the 45RPM-7" record, many people are still convinced that they need a specially built phonograph with large cylinder. Slowly, the record companies are elucidating the big public and we predict that, within one or two years at the most, the 33RPM-7" single will take over completely the market. There was also an increase in sales of the "double-compact," also a 33RPM-7" record with two numbers on each side, somehow like the American little-LP. The same record with one band on each side is known as "single-compact."

The phonographic event of the year was the "III Latin-American Congress of the Record Producers" which took place this time in Mexico, after two, respectively in Brazil and Perú. The Brazilian industry was strongly represented by Henry Jessen (Odeon) who is also the General Secretary of the Latin American Association, J. Rahmi (Chantecleer), Nilo Sérgio (Musidisc) and Emilio Vitale (Copacabana). The matters discussed in this important meeting, having in view to facilitate the negotiations between all Latin American countries, will be of great influence in the near future. Considering that the musical tastes in the LA countries has a similar origin, there is no reason why the records produced in one of the countries should not have a good acceptance in all the others and, with the customs problem solved and a good mutual promotion made, the markets will enlarge and the record producers will have their efforts compensated.

Also the meetings being held monthly by the A.B.P.D. (Brazilian Association of Record Producers) will help to achieve a better understanding between factory and public, as well as a better promotion of the local products outside the country, through a joint effort by all the record companies. The new President of the ABPD, Sávio Carvalho Silveira (Continental) and the Board of Directors—J. Rahmi (Chantecler), S. Bastos (Audio-Fidelity) and A. Midoni (Imperial)—have important plans to achieve these goals: the promotion of a Record Fair, congregating all Authors', Composers' and Artists' Societies, as well as Musicians', record factories and shops; they will also try to lessen the guarantees required by foreign labels, giving a greater period for promotion in order to diminish the risks of the local companies, all this in order to incite a better and closer colaboration between local and foreign companies. Another plan of the Association is to intensify the promotion of the Brazilian music and record industry, through the foreign press and the periodic release of an LP, which will be sent all over the world, containing one band of each record company, to show the new developments in interpretations and technical qualities of the local industry.

It is obvious how the popular Brazilian music is in constant evolution. We can consider that the Brazilian most representative music—the Samba—is being divided in three categories: Traditional Samba, Modern Brazilian Music (the successor of Bossa Nova) and what we can call the Progressive Samba. Although the adepts of the more traditional style consider that the new Samba is too influenced by the American jazz, we see it differently: there is not one doubt that both musics have the very same origin and were brought to the two countries, where they gradually developed to what they are now, through the very same vehicle—the African slaves of colonial times. It is only too natural that, with the natural approximation between the two countries due to faster transports, cinema, television, radio, etc., the two tendencies meet again. And this way, a new Samba was born with completely different arrangements and instrumental solos, new sounds and interpretations, but always with the native local rhythms and beats.

Many new names of inedited artists have appeared this year: singers, musicians, instrumental and vocal groups never heard before, appear suddenly to the public through new waxings that have sometimes a sudden success. Next to these, the already consecrated artists, feel the need to renew their style, in order to please the new taste for a different style. Television has a definite influence in the promotion of artists for the record industry. Probably two of the only exceptions are Jorge Ben and Altemar Dutra, who started on the record with enormous success and later appeared on TV shows. Moacyr Franco, is a typical example of the popularity through TV: after appearing for years as a comedian, he suddenly became one of the most successful chanters in the country, although his voice is not to be compared with that of many others. Also Richard Chamberlain and Vincent Edwards have been for quite a while on the first places of the charts, due to their popularity as the TV Drs. Kildare and Ben Casey. Another sales phenomenon in Brazil is Ray Conniff who, with his soft dancing rhythm, is a sure name to hit the charts with every new release. In the teen music style, many groups appeared and reached a good quality that can compete with foreign groups: The Jet Blacks, The Clevers, The Jordans, The Bells, and others. Songsters in this international new style are also among the best sellers: Ronnie Cord, Demetrius, Roberto Carlos, Tony Campelo and many others.

But probably the most important internationally speaking, are the interpreters of the Modern Brazilian Popular Music, who are being represented all over the world through João and Astrud Gilbreto, Luiz Bonfá: the first couple cut the new hit in the US with Stan Getz, heading for first place rapidly, while the second cut that international hit LP with Caterina Valente, with his own music and lyrics by Maria Helena Toledo. Herbie Man, also recorded Brazilian music, serving as a good promotion vehicle in U.S. And the French idol Brigitte Bardot, after a long vacation in the country, came out with numbers on one of her latest LP's sung in Portuguese. The language barrier was finally surpassed with BB and Caterina! Maysa also decided to make personally the promotion of the Brazilian music in a country where it was practically unknown—she opened a restaurant-night club in Madrid, Spain, where she sings herself daily and intends to bring to that country the most representative artists of the MBM (Modern Brazilian Music). Other well liked singers have toured Europe, Latin America and USA with great success, like Agostinho dos Santos, Giane, Elisete Cardoso, Angela Maria, Tamba Trio, Os Cariocas, Sérgio Mendes, Lucio Alves, and many others, which helps to bring the Brazilian popular music back to an important position it had somehow lost after the famous Carnegie Hall Concert. Also in the country, the constant promotion of new concerts, where the best of the modern generation are directly in contact with a public that is growing more and more enthusiastic, surely helps improve the figures on the sales of all the companies.

BRAZIL— The Past 12 Months

But there is still another occurrence which was probably the one which influenced most the record industry and specially its sales in these past twelve months: the unbelievable invasion of the modern Italian music! One can safely say that the modern generation of Italian singers took the place that was occupied by the North American idols of the youth before, repeating what had already happened some twenty years ago, with Carlo Buti, Benjamino Gigli, Tito Schipa, etc. Only, this time is was even easier through that wonderful promotion means that is the television. When the Brazilian market started giving signs of a preference for the Italian modern music, their interpreters started pouring in (mostly through the TV and Theater Record), and the record sales of that type of music skyrocketed. First there was Peppino di Capri, followed by Nico Fidenco, Emilio Pericoli, Sergio Endrigo, Edoardo Vianello and culminating with the great little Rita Pavone, which was probably one of the greatest successes in the last times. From the 12 top hits, a good 50% started to be Italian. And each company would launch a new singer, and they all sold well. Even Connie Francis had a come back, with her "C. F. a la Italiana." Local singers are recording Italian numbers, both in Portuguese version and also in the original . . . and they all sell well. . . . At the present time, for instance, Rita Pavone is on the first spot in all categories and half of the first fifteen best-sellers are Italian numbers. And it seems that Italians are here to stay.

On the erudite music field, Brazilian artists and Brazilian music had a very good year outside the country, and that is reflecting on the sales of the records on this specialized kind. Guiomar Novais, Ana Stella Schic and Madalena Tagliaferro have been touring on Europe and the Americas and there is a great request for their albums. Also Antonio Carlos Barbosa Lima has been giving concerts in South America and his great production of records is having good reception internationally. But one of the Brazilian artists who is higher on the esteem of the international public is probably the opera singer João Gibin, who is living in Italy and is considered among the very best in the world today.

With all the very little we mentioned above, with an optimistic perspective of the political and economical situation in the country, together with the obvious interest that the public in general are devoting to the recorded music, it is to be expected that the Brazilian phonographic industry will have probably the greatest impulse ever in the years to come.

ARGENTINA—The Past 12 Months

It seems to be customary to start this yearly column stating that "it has been a tough twelve months period" . . . and, unfortunately, once more, we have to start it this way. Sales have been falling consistently for the last three years, and, although everybody hopes that a stabilization will come soon, up to now there are only hopes. However, the situation, inside the ondustry, has changed a lot since July 1, 1963, and now we'll try to explain the how and why of it.

First of all, let's look into prices. In a country with an inflation rate of roughly 25% a year, there is no doubt that record prices must follow the trend: standard LP's have jumped from 545 pesos ($3.95) to 630 pesos ($4.50), although the dollar exchange rate (because of government control) has remained at 138 pesos. But there isn't doubt that these prices are too high for the average customer, and companies and dealers agree on this point. Once again (as it happened in 1962), "promotional" or low priced albums are appearang, and now Sicamericana reports the release of a new series at 450 pesos ($3.15). Prices of these LP's, at first much lower than regular ones, have been increased and now the difference is relatively small; the new releases seem to be a new cycle. For the near future, a new diskery, RM, plans to market LP's at 295 pesos ,($2.20), and it has been selling 7" records through newsdealers at 100 pesos (75¢), in what has been described more as a "rackjobbing" deal than the release of singles. Incidentally, these outings carry eight tunes instead of two, but with cover versions.

Then, there is also the appearance of top local artists: Palito Ortega and Leo Dan became big stars in no time. Now it's far more difficult to sell foreign product in the country than two years ago. Ortega and Dan have been hitting consistently the charts during the past months, and the latter has been in the Top Fifteen with all his singles, seven up to now. Violeta Rivas, Juan Ramon, Johnny Tedesco, Chico Novarro and Chicote Lopez are also top names, and now Beto Fernan will probably have to be added to the list.

Among foreign artists, it has been a good year for Italian stars Rita Pavone, Edoardo Vianello and Gigliola Cinquietti, American artists Trini Lepez and Neil Sedaka, and, of course, British Beatles. But very few more could be also included: eight or nine artists have taken practically all the major places on the lists during these months.

Folk music, a very strong item last year, is now rather weak, although standard artists are selling as well as before; there is a sort of lack of new hit titles. On LP's, the only outstanding titles are "Coplas del Payador Perseguido" by Atahaulpa Yupanqui, which is selling well, and "Martin Fierro," based on a book by Horacio Guarany. One the tango side, record producers find it very easy to sell the recordings in other countries (like Japan, Colombia and others), but not so easy to local customers; as a result, all tango recordings are made with an eye kept on the international market.

There are some diskeries, and several new ones are planning to appear in the near future. Ricardo Mejia's RM Productions is applying ideas not used before, as selling to newsdealers; however, the first one to start this operation has been Editorial Abril, magazine publishers that entered the field with flexible thin records. RM's releases are 7" ones. Several publishers have also started releasing records reportedly for promotional purposes: after Julio Korn's Latino Records, Tempo started the Principe label, and lately Perroti is marketing the Ciclope mark. Old Inter Bas has been transformed into Fenix, through financial operations. There are no independent producers yet, although RCA presses and sells records for several other labels (Ariola, Fermata and Amadeo, among them), which have an independent structure.

Few representation deals have been arranged. The most interesting one is probably Disc Jockey's contract with Barclay of France, started with Charles Aznavour's "La Mamma." Sicamericana has also inked Roulette, Seeco and Orfeon, which tried as an independent company three years ago and failed. RCA has Columbia Española and Montilla, while CBS' European deal with Hispavox and Ricordi allowed it to start its releases here.

Regarding the volume of sales, unofficial figures estimate a monthly 75 million pesos amount, which would mean about 900 million pesos a year (about $7 million). Practically there is only one speed, 33 rpm. Sizes are 7, 10 and 12 inches, with one to eight tunes on each side. Most recent addition has been RCA's "half LP," with three songs on each one. Ten inch LP's were started again after a long time by Disc Jockey, which seems to be happy with this decision; some other companies have followed it. 78 and 45 rpm records do not exist practically; stocks of old shellac are still a problem for several companies.

Recording and pressing facilities are being steadily increased; in fact, there is an excess of pressing availability. Sicamericana has started using its new recording equipment, while Disc Jockey and HyR joined forces and opened a new pressing factory. High cost for raw material (about $1.10 per kilo, or about 50¢ per pound) is also still a problem.

Another trend followed by diskeries is the start of new pubberies, operated by them. RCA has opened Ediciones Relay, while CBS works now with Melograf and reportedly Philips is also opening its publishing house. Odeon has an organization administrated by Julio Korn. It seems that regular publishers are not very happy about this idea (recommended at the Latin American Federation of Record Producers' convention in Mexico), but it is too early to see their reaction to it, if there is one.

Another point commented by a publisher to this representative was an interesting fact: most diskeries don't release certain types of music (e.g. Brazilian), because they consider it uncommercial; however, night-club fans like it very much, and club owners import Brazilian LP's to play them at their places, and thus "sambas" amount in some cases to 30% of the play time. The publisher added that there must be a gap between these potential record buyers and the regular trade. Although there is no import of records, travelers to other countries very often bring certain records unavailable here; foreign radio stations also create an unsatisfied demand, which in some areas (like Mendoza, or the south part of Buenos Aires) sometimes becomes important.

The question about advanced payments remains without answer in some cases; the latest practice among some local publishers is to reject directly all offers of European and American tunes were an advanced payment of more than $50 or $100 is requested; this means, of course, increased interest in local production in several cases, since local composers receive no advances. Strang ideas about the size of other markets generally included in this area (Uruguay, Chile, Brazil and Peru) also affect foreign publishers. Brazil is taken in most cases as an independent deal, but the combined population of Chile, Uruguay and Peru is only 22 million (Argentina has other 22 million) and their royalty organizations aren't as good as here. During the past two years, these other countries have helped to finance the investment made by the local pubbery when buying a song, but in some cases the original publishers ask too much for the whole area, and the deal has to be broken. Besides, it is still considered very difficult to get royalty payments from South American countries outside Argentina and Brazil.

The future of the record industry in Argentina, as one year ago, depends mainly on the improvement of the standard of living in the country; a stabilization of the situation would undoubtedly bring an increase in volume and earnings. Everybody from the desk of . . .

JOE ORLECK
OF
Cash Box

August 15, 1964

Dear Friends:

The year 1963-1964 saw, among other advancements, two major developments: The greater exchange of coin machine equipment among the countries of the world, and, the expansion of vending machine operations among the nation's operators of music and coin machines.

Looking back as we do at Anniversary time each August, Cash Box takes great pride in having helped bring about both of these developments.

There was a time when our readers, for the most part, were U.S.-based companies. The equipment manufactured, distributed and operated was of the basic juke box-amusement game variety. Neither of these two characteristics exist today just as the industry itself is not limited in these respects. Our mail from far off ports is an accepted part of the daily routine. Likewise, we speak of music, amusement and vending in the same breath. This has been the evolution of an industry which has grown and will continue to grow in a healthy and robust manner.

Cash Box intends to continue to play a vital part in this growth. As the industry changed, Cash Box changed. As the industry grows, Cash Box grows with it.

We proudly present to our readers and our advertisers this 22nd Annual Coin Machine & Vending Directory, the largest and most comprehensive ever published, and take this opportunity to thank the members of this industry for making possible our position of leadership in the industry today.

"THE BEST INVESTMENT IN THE COIN MACHINE FIELD"

Symplay Introduces S100 'Wunderbar' To English Coin Market

LONDON — Symplay Ltd. United Kingdom distributors for Th. Bergmann & Co. of Hamburg, Germany, have just introduced the S100 "Wunderbar" Luxus Stereo Phonograph to the British Isles. The box has been hailed as the company's greatest achievement to date. Major features include automatic Top Pop selection or Automatic Top Pop selection and any number of individual choice. The machine can be operated with two remote selection boxes—plugin fitment, no wiring necessary. All components are interchangeable with simple pull-out plug connectors. A very important feature is that the box has complete accessibility to all parts for easy servicing.

Symplay have also released another Bergmann winner the Safari Electronic Gun, the world's smallest upright shooting gallery. Animals bob up and down quickly enough to beat the most efficient sharp shooter. Scores are automatically shown on the electric scoreboard and the gun is proving extremely popular particularly with arcade owners.

Yet another new machine being handled by Symplay, is the Libramat book vending machine. Elegantly designed, the vendor is capable of holding and dispensing 48 paperbacks which are selected by experts. The Libramat also fulfills a long awaited amenity for the better class hotel. It is completely automatic and therefore wage saving and provides a 24-hour point of sale service from small and compact units.

Parliament Amended '63 Gaming Law To Cover Unforeseen Loophole

LONDON—Early in July it was decided that part of the Gaming Law of 1963 dealing with gaming machines in clubs, did not, in fact, mean what it was intended to mean or what everybody assumed it meant. What Parliament thought it was decreeing was that the maximum amount of money that could be staked in any one game was 6d—but the Lords decided that all the act said was that the SMALLEST amount staked should not exceed 6d and that so long as those who wanted to limit their stake to 6d could do so there was no legal reason why those prepared to stake more should not be allowed to do so. The discovery of this loophole was a distinct blow for the Government as it was completely contrary to what had been intended when the law was made. In the ordinary way it could have taken a considerable time to introduce an amending legislation but as it happened there was already a bill before Parliament to change the present law in certain other respects, and the Government was happy to seize the opportunity to insert another amendment to deal with this particular point.

The new bill (The Betting Gaming & Lotteries Act 1964) was passed and became law in record time. It provides very clearly and unambiguously that 6d is the most that can be staked at any one playing of the game. This effectively reverses the Lords judgement and makes impossible the introduction of multi-slot machines which otherwise could have legally been operated.

ANALYSIS OF 1963 ANNUAL COIN MACHINE EXPORT VOLUME REPORT

GENERAL

The rise in dollar volume to the 1963 total of $40 million came about gradually with each quarterly period improving on the previous volume and ranging from $8.5, to $9.8, to $10.7 and finally the $11.5 million which was recorded during the final Oct-Dec quarter. Phonos dipped in the third qtr. but rebounded in the 4th for a $16.3 total against $12.4 in 1962. Games zoomed from $3.9, to $4.3, to $5.9 to $6.6 winding up a record year with $20.8 million against $12.6 in '62. Vending machines dipped almost $2 million from 1962 when they had started to show signs of life.

In spite of restrictions in certain areas, the latest of which may come about in the form of a revised Betting and Gaming Act in England, amusement games fared very well.

West Germany ranked no less than fourth in each category coming in second for phonos behind Belgium. Japan moved to the number four spot in the vending class and number three in music. The effects of the West's "leisure" life was in no small way a contributing factor here.

Europe is still the big receiver of imports with about $30 million of the $40 million going into ports such as Italy, France, UK, Germany and Belgium.

At year's end, the new machines were steaming ahead and the shortage of used machines was a greater problem. The business has grown, in five years, from $20 million to $40 million and this does not include American equipment made in Europe.

Music machine manufacturers were introducing phonos simultaneously here and abroad. Games manufacturers who were not permitted to do business in America were spending more time and money cultivating the export field. And the vending industry just didn't seem to be making much headway. Next year? Based on the track record everyone looked for continued growth.

PHONOGRAPHS

Music machines exported from the US to ports around the world totaled 28,486 and they were sold for a total cost of $16,390,667. Last year's figures were 25% less than the 1963 total and so it appears as though there is no question as to the superiority of the American juke box. Even late model phonographs are swept out of distrib showrooms and onto European bound shippers where no less than $12.8 million arrived for duty last year. Biggest user in Europe is Belgium which racked up $5.3 million in imports. Next was W. Germany with $3.7. Japan at $1 million and Canada the only nation taking more than $1 million.

Venezuela saved So. America from a bad show, taking 661 phonos. Belgium turned its $3.3 million to $5.3 million for a neat year's business on music, leading Europe from top to bottom. West Germany added a half-million to its total import for a $3.7 million gross. Italy, Switzerland and the United Kingdom bought more than 1000 phonographs each adding to the huge figure for Europe.

Japan steamed ahead from $161 thousand to a whopping $1,022,854 for 2,224 machines. The Asian market is more important than ever now that Japan is shooting ahead and northwest coast exporters are working harder to woo the yen from the Japanese.

There is little sign of prosperity for our export marketers in the land down under. Australia just hasn't grown in music machine business as expected. The total import figure for the twelve months during '63 was short of $100 thousand for a handful (195) of machines.

Ditto for Africa where not even games are making headway. In all, the juke box industry can thank the world markets for $16 million in business it otherwise wouldn't have had and the limit was not in sight.

AMUSEMENT MACHINES

The 1963 export figure for games hit $20 million nearly doubling the "paltry" $12 million of '62 reflecting a business in American amusement machine exports the like of which this industry has never seen. The total coin machine export volume for 1958 was on a par with the games figure alone for 1963, an amazing increase. American manufacturers have turned to Europe and elsewhere looking for markets for the upright, the bingo, the pingame, and similar equipment which cannot be sold in some US cities. Europe bought $17 million in games during 1963, certainly a record number. France led the way with pingames taking the greatest toll. No less than 11,571 games were shipped to France, a market which bought less than 8000 machines last year when the country was moving away from restriction levies. The UK, a market which was restricted four years ago, but boomed during the following years, bought almost 10,000 games in '63. Unfortunately, it appears as though the revisions in the Betting and Gaming Act, which are expected to be made public within one month, will slash this figure following restrictions placed, once again, on the amount of prize money awarded to a single player.

In spite of legislative problems, Belgium bought $2.4 million in games, while West Germany was not far behind with $2.1 million. Italy and Switzerland ranked neck and neck in games with approx, $1 1/2 million each. In Asia, Japan tripled its quota, taking twice as many games (1768) at a price three times the former amount ($716,172 in 1963) indicating that Japan too is buying more new equipment than ever before. What the future games export business will bring only tomorrow can tell. More European amusement machines are being shipped here than ever before, as witness the "Arizona" gun from Germany, the "Scopitone" machine from France and the "Football" games from Germany and Belgium. With the UK awaiting the outcome of the gaming amendments who can prophesize. On the brighter side, at this moment, American interests are pleading the case for pinball in Belgium, a market which can use much more than it has imported. Italy and France are still highly fertile. Japan is a lucrative market still in its infancy, and the figure for 1964, judging from what has gone by, could be even greater than ever.

VENDING

The export market just hasn't taken to our vending equipment the way it has to the American juke box and game. American firms are diligently at work building this end of the coin machine business but by year's end the total figure stood at just $3.5 million, a dip from the promising $5.3 million of '62. Canadian interests were responsible for half of this volume while Europe took almost the other half. West Germany, Belgium, Switzerland and Finland garnered the European market's share.

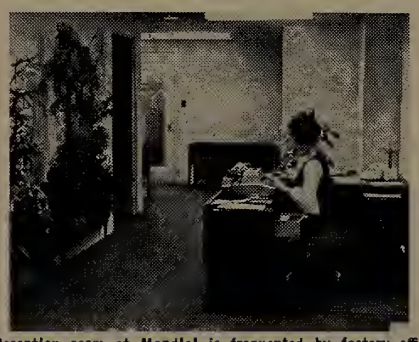
Japan continued to standout however, with a purchase of 432 machines at a cost of $272 thousand. The Un. of So. Africa bought 25 machines at a price of $4500.00.

The MONDIAL Story

Export Specialists From Point Of Origin To The Ultimate Destination

SUREN D. FESJIAN

NEW YORK — The most influential American firm internationally, from the standpoint of the overall coin operated amusement machine industry as it pertains to new equipment is Mondial Commercial Corporation, founded in New York City approximately fourteen years ago. Under the dynamic leadership of Suren D. Fesjian, who came to this country from France two years prior to the formation of Mondial, the firm has grown to become the world's largest exporter of new coin operated amusement games. They are a very highly rated firm with Dun & Bradstreet, according to the official financial guide.



Reception room at Mondial is frequented by factory officials, when in town. Firm's offices are on 13th floor of Empire State Bldg.

Mondial's executive offices are located in the Empire State Building in New York City. In addition, they have a multi-story warehouse in New Jersey, and they also have several affiliate offices in Europe and a large network of European distributors.

The Details Are Important

The company's phenomenal growth can be attributed to its sales aggressiveness and attention to minute details. The firm has a unique position in that they have their offices here in New York, and also their affiliate offices in Europe with orders coming in from all points in Europe. Mondial coordinates these orders and with their vast buying power, games are sent from the factories that Mondial represents, in huge carload quantities to international ports.

All inquiries sent to Mondial are answered within 24 hours and usually in the language of that country. All orders whether for games or parts are immediately booked with the factories that Mondial represents within 24 hours after they are received. Mondial has built up an enviable reputation in Europe for fast and efficient service. All parts orders are shipped either by Air Express or Air Parcel Post.

A Pioneer In Many Markets

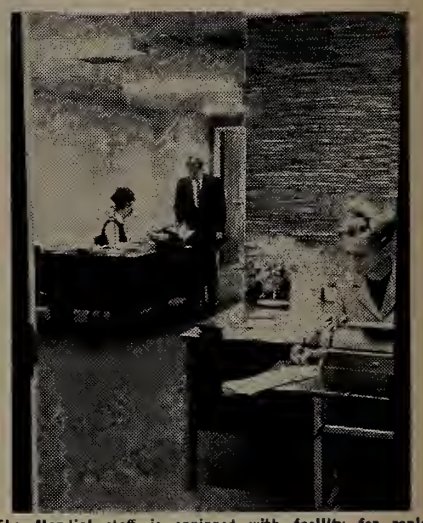
Mondial is known for its innovations in developing the coin machine market all over Europe and in fact, has pioneered in many areas heretofore where coin operated amusement games were unheard of.

In the period between 1950 and 1955, most countries had severe import restrictions—and only essential commodities could be imported. Fesjian conceived the idea of establishing a plant in Dublin, Ireland for the assembling of flipper games. In this way, Mondial was able to export to the United Kingdom, France and Italy flipper games which had been restricted. This helped to ease the import restrictions that had been set up in these countries and now, these three areas are considered prime markets for amusement games, in fact the first games brought into England were brought in under the Mondial name.

Mondial regularly has his lines exhibited at trade fairs around Europe and shows the latest productions of the factories they represent. All prototypes of new models are shipped via Air Freight direct from the factory to Europe for exhibition prior to the factories going into actual production of the games. Invaluable research is conducted in this manner thereby enabling factories to obtain a world wide reaction to a new amusement idea.

Special Crates, Special Wiring

All games exported by Mondial are specifically built and tailored to the voltage and cycle of the countries of destination, and they are also built with special coin rejectors for the denomination of the particular countries of export.



The Mondial staff is equipped with facility for rapid transcontinental communication to international outlets.

Through research and consultation with packaging engineers all games shipped by Mondial are scientifically crated and packed for export.

Mondial is in constant touch with all of their European distributors by having their executives travel regularly throughout these areas. In addition, they have several resident agents who are permanently domiciled in England, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

Mondial represents the following factories in Europe for export: D. Gottlieb & Company—Chicago, Illinois; Chicago Dynamic Industries—Chicago, Illinois; Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.—Chicago, Illinois; Midway Manufacturing Company—Franklin Park, Illinois; Southland Engineering—Santa Monica, California, and Urban Industries—Louisville, Kentucky.

Blackpool Show In Dec.

BLACKPOOL, ENGLAND — The 4th Northern Amusement Equipment and Coin Operated Machine Exhibition will be held at the Olympia, Winter Garden, Blackpool on December 1st, 2nd and 3rd 1964. The Organisers, Jack D. Rose (Exhibitions) Ltd. anticipate a further increase both in the number of exhibitors and spectators. With seven months to go a number of former exhibitors have re-booked their spaces and among the newcomers will be The Anglo West Bowling Company.

This Blackpool show is fast becoming an important event in the calendar of British coin men and, as intended at the outset, provides a convenient meeting place for the many operators living and working in the North of England.

Jubilee To Blackpool

LONDON—In January this year at the Amusement Trades Exhibition Jubilee Products Ltd. introduced their latest fruit machine model. The New Jubilee International 6d and 3d play. Since its introduction Mr. Harold Smith, General Manager reports that sales have exceeded all expectation with the company's twelve distributors up and down the country very enthusiastic about the quality and performance of the new machine. Smith also reports a continual increase in sales and envisages no let up in the foreseeable future.

Once again Jubilee Products will be exhibiting at the Annual Club Trade Fair which this year will take place at the Winter Gardens, Blackpool on 20th to 24th October. A cordial welcome awaits visitors to the Jubilee Stand No: 51.

Mr. G. Norman Ditchburn
The Ditchburn Organisation Limited
Dock Road
Lytham, Lancashire
England

Dear Mr. Ditchburn:

The year just ended was an eventful one for Wurlitzer. Certainly one of the highlights was the association with your company and your fine people.

Your purchase of more than One Thousand (1,000) Wurlitzer Phonographs during the 1963 calendar year was indeed a notable achievement and one which will be long remembered.

I take considerable personal pleasure in commending you on the outstanding performance of The Ditchburn Organisation Limited in your initial year as our franchised Phonograph Distributor for the United Kingdom. We are proud and pleased to be associated with you and to be a part of your dynamic growth. We look forward to many years of close association with you and your fine firm.

Yours sincerely,

R. C. Rolfing

R. C. Rolfing

. . . and this is only the beginning!

For it happened in only the first year of the association. In 1964 the team of Ditchburn and Wurlitzer in Great Britain plus scores of new Wurlitzer operators are aiming for even dizzier heights. So why not join 'em. You certainly can't beat 'em. Such quantities can only be achieved with the right machines at the right prices. It's logic! Yes, hitch your wagon to our rising star and help yourself to higher profits with a Wurlitzer.

Britain's Phonographic Equipment Ltd. Has Banner Year; Enlarges Quarters

LONDON—A notable year indeed for Phonographic Equipment Ltd. culminating in the removal to vast new premises. A disused factory of some 8000 square feet has been transformed during the past two years into one of the largest and most up-to-date coin machine headquarters in the country. With the addition of a 6000 ft. mezzanine floor the company now occupies an area of 14,000 square feet. Accommodation comprises attractive showrooms, offices, spare parts department, arrival and departure bays etc. etc. all of which are air conditioned and centrally heated. Cyril Shack, a Director of the company and regular commuter between this country and the United States where he is well known especially in Chicago, helped to design the premises on American lines. He introduced a snackery for hot and cold drinks and refreshments for visiting customers—an idea which, although popular in the United States, is new to this country. The Directors of Phonographic claim that their inventory of new equipment, both in stock and afloat, is the largest in the United Kingdom and represents America's finest manufacturers including Williams, Bally, Sega and Jubilee from France. The company's policy is to sell new equipment. An adequate supply of used equipment is forthcoming from "trade ins" and complete facilities for "re-shopping" are available in the new premises. Out of town sales which until now have been conducted largely by telephone will be stepped up in future with the introduction of the new force of technically experienced salesmen who will tour the country paying courtesy calls on operators and giving expert advice and help where necessary. Deliveries are taken care of by a fleet of four vans operating within a hundred mile radius of London. Other deliveries are handled by transport firms offering a 24-hour service. Phonographic Equipment staff of over 100 is headed by Directors Cyril Shack, Gordon Marks, Max Fine, Ralph Mandel, Basil Marks and Michael Green. For the future Phonographic plan to explore the possibilities of vending and with this in mind Shack will attend the vending exhibition in Chicago this autumn.

Ruffler & Walker Intro's 'Grand Prix' To British Coin Scene

LONDON — The introduction of the new Rock Ola Grand Prix in England by Ruffler & Walker of Clapham Juntion, London, sole importers for the United Kingdom, was heralded by the largest advertising and promotional campaign ever undertaken by the company. An introductory luncheon at the Dorchester Hotel was followed by a three-day gala demonstration at the Ruffler & Walker London showrooms. This was subsequently followed by a nation wide tour of major coin machine cities including Birmingham, Edinburgh, Newcastle, Leeds, Manchester, Cardiff and Bristol.

Gordon Walker reports that during the period March 1963 to March 1964 Ruffler & Walker distributed well over 1000 Rock-Ola machines and if the present trend continues it is expected that by March 1965 the sales will be up by another 40 per cent.

The new Sega Consul fruit machine (now legally operable within the limits of the British Gaming Laws) is proving a great success, the main feature being that the player can insert either one 6d or two, three, four or five 6ds. For each additional coin the odds are automatically progressed—ten for one; twenty for two, thirty for three etc.

WURLITZER CASHRAK

SAVES
TIME . . . PROTECTS OPERATOR EARNINGS

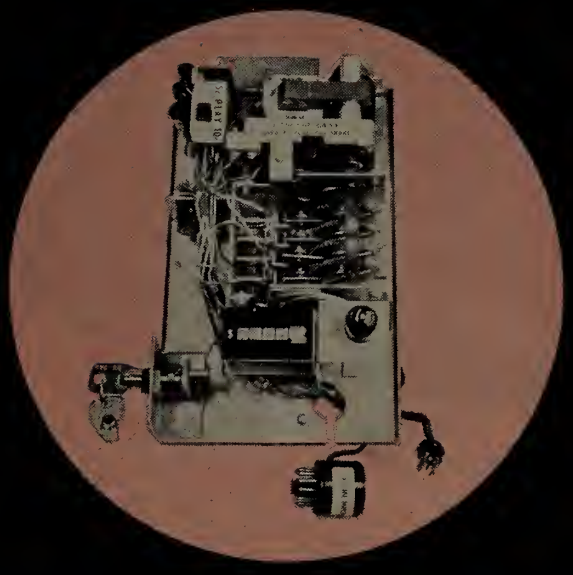
TOTALS PHONOGRAPH RECEIPTS ACCURATELY AUTOMATICALLY

Cashrak eliminates collection worries, saves collectors' time, minimizes bookkeeping, pays for itself in a hurry. With Cashrak, you know the earnings of every phonograph at a glance. Separate Ace lock makes it tamper-free. See it at your Wurlitzer Distributor TODAY.

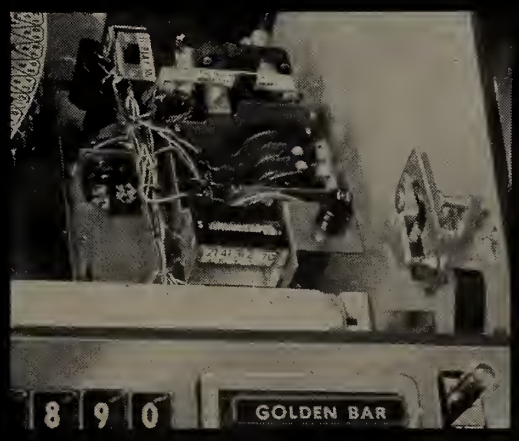
ELECTRONICALLY REGISTERS COINS

Cashrak electronically registers nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars, tallies each on a mechanical counter. Non-resettable meter accumulates receipts, offers a verified check on earnings.



SAVES COLLECTORS' TIME

Saves collectors' time, saves time in balancing out. Aids collector in making many more stops per day. Impresses location owners as a sound business management device.



EASY TO INSTALL

Mounts inside dome on right front side on chassis mounting plate. Eleven prong plug connects to power source — five prong plug to Playrak. Insert the two plugs, install two screws and the Cashrak is working for you.

THE REPORT FROM GREAT BRITAIN:

More Machines, Less Income Plus Random Notes On The Operating Scene

By Lillian Shaw

LILLIAN SHAW
HONORARY SECRETARY P.O.A.

First glance at Great Britain's jukebox trading figures for the first half year flutters your eyebrows in wonder at what's been going on. New installations up by 14 per cent; cash takings per box down by 20%. Quite a commercial paradox demanding careful investigation. The explanation, I think, is to be found mainly in the public flotation of one of the larger operating firms and similar floats now in course of preparation for at least three more. When a business connected with the entertainment industry seeks to raise new capital and to obtain a Stock Exchange quotation its financial advisers always push management to extend the number of possible profitable outlets— which in the case of the phonograph industry means the siting of more boxes. Maybe these finance experts are more concerned with the immediate, rather than the distant, future, but the fact remains that expansion is the passport to a public prospectus. Invariably the scheme comes off—the tide, if taken at the flood, can be splashed to cover a bigger depth of land than old hands ever dream of. What do these trade figures really reveal? They mean that while box and disc manufacturers and distributors have increased their sales, operators in general have suffered a decline in cash returns because more boxes on locations, in closely knitted communities, do not necessarily expand custom but only spread it. This, I believe, is precisely what has happened over here and the trend is likely to grow—increasing sales of boxes and discs with diminishing cash returns per box. Another factor affecting cash returns has been the substantial increase in other attractions from bingo to bowling.

Foreign manufacturers and distributors should always bear in mind that the British economy bears a lower ratio of expenditure on entertainment per head of population than most industrialised countries of the world. Remember also the fact that 45 per cent of what is actually spent on pleasure in Britain goes to the gambling propositions: bingo clubs, for instance, have a membership of 16,539,214. Another cause of falling receipts has been a trek back to vaudeville. Saloons where jukes have dominated the scene for years are now capacity-packed with a nightly show. Old and young alike are taking to the rough gusto of previous generations. Victorian settings are getting "with it." Among trade trends I notice river and lake locations are increasing in popularity. There has been a substantial demand for accessible moorings away from overcrowded highways. There are 3,000 miles of navigable rivers and canals. One trade hold-up is that all levels remain in stalemate so far as design-plan is concerned because of official failure to finalise decimalisation details. Britain is definitely going over to the system, but the plans stay dust-coated in Government files. The jukebox trade is especially anxious to know the metallic make up of the new coins and their dimensions. On the subject of design, it is noted that juke cases are gaining in dignity and losing much of their former garishness. Operators, however, are critical of the tendency to larger and heavier machines. Space is costly and at a minimum in most locations. In the world of 1964, solidarity and efficiency of equipment no longer depend upon the use of weighty material: juke manufacturers could well take a look at some of the travel-kit producers who guarantee their products against the roughest man-handling.

No comment on the contemporary scene would be complete without reference to the Beatles' musical turn. Its success is a striking example of what able management can achieve. To whatever land the presentation goes, greetings rain down from fans fully equipped with Beatle brooches, Beatle-bags, and Beatle-sweaters—on all of which products the syndicate collects royalties. Value of the world market for these goods is estimated at 105 million dollars. The American public alone has spent some $50 million on them, while the group's manager anticipates half-a-million dollars out of Australia, $180,000 from South Africa and $600,000 from Sweden—just from side-lines. Demands, in fact, has taken the world by surprise and whatever critics may say of the turn itself, no one has anything but praise for the commercial acumen of the management.

Award for the most useful gadget marketed during the period under review goes to UN Automatic Company for a handy brush for use inside jukebox cases. This brush resembles a small torch, to either end of which a cleaner unit is fitted. Dust-laden air, drawn in at one end, is filtered and expelled through the other. The dust is removed by brushing with either suction or blowing. Battery-operated, this cleaner has made a very successful debut. Nightly jukebox stands show increasing turnover. The problems of giving a dance or party are many but it is generally admitted that music is what makes such occasions swing. This is where phonograph operators come in by supplying a jukebox service with the latest recordings and extension speakers as required. Charges are 50 dollars a party (hire of a good band can cost up to $350). Equipment and mechanic are taken within a 40 mile radius of the operator's showroom: beyond this, agreement is made about travelling expenses and accommodation. One operator tells me he averages five engagements a week throughout the year: he requires only 24 hours' notice and is prepared to work on any day of the week. He counts a party officially over a 03.00, but says, "I haven't yet broken one up in spite of finding myself, on occasions, still watching the mechanic at 05.00."

A feature on the administrative side of the trade has been an increasing recognition by manufacturers and distributors of the necessity for a fully organised service scheme behind operators and site-owners. This has done more than anything else to improve relations between public-operators-distributors-manufacturers. Concluding on a personal note, with which I expect the Secretary of M.O.A. will concur—it surprises me, as the years go by, at the number of people who come into this trade and never by any chance support their trade association when the going is calm. In times of tempest and difficulty the phone hardly stops ringing!

CINEBOX SALES SOAR

HICKSVILLE, N. Y.—Following more than a year in locations throughout the country, Cinebox, a product of Cinevision Corp. of America, is chalking up one of the most unique success stories in the coin operated music field. First introduced in the United States in 1963, Cinebox, a pre-selected motion picture juke box made operators sit up and take notice of this excitingly new form of entertainment. Other operators took a viewpoint of "let's wait and see." Some in the industry visualized the possibilities of a natural color movie with stereo high fidelity sound, and proceeded to place Cineboxes in choice locations.

With the introduction of a competitive machine, more and more well-known operators discovered a growing demand on the part of Taverns, Restaurants and Bowling Alleys for the "machine that shows pictures with sound." They also discovered an added source of income never before available. Occupying three square feet of floor space, Cinebox gave patrons a wide choice of American and International stars singing and dancing in full musical productions. Some operators report, that once the first coin is put into the machine, a chain reaction is set off that keeps the machine operating for hours, customers simply keep putting in coins. Locations reported increases of 30% to 120% in bar trade plus a sales increase of food.

Many locations are demanding this entertainment form and are ready to lease, pay guarantees and participate. Cinebox offered added income through advertising. Each machine has available nine different "slots" for a color or black and white slide. Local merchants jumped on this new form of "visual advertising" which played to a captured audience at an exceptionally low cost per viewer. Some operators reported a long waiting list of advertisers.

Advertising messages were sold on a monthly and quarterly basis, with charges scaled to each individual location. These nine slides returned additional income averaging between $30.00 and $55.00 per week.

With more Cineboxes now in operation, Cinevision Corporation supplied colorful advertising promotion material in the form of Tent Cards, Menu Tabs, Display Cards, Window Streamers, etc., all aimed to produce continued results for the operators.

The film library has been expanded so the 40 selections can be rotated at the rate of 3 film changes per week. New films are continuously in production. Cinebox is part of the entertainment industry, it is proving profitable, and it's here to stay.

Abe Green, president of the Runyon Sales Co., Springfield, N. J., advised that his son Irving has joined the sales staff at Runyon after having received his degree from a Washington, D.C. college. Irving will be under the excellent tutelage of coin vet Morris Rood. Over in Runyon's New York office, crack salesman Louie Wolberg reports that mucho metro NY music ops are making the move to the 'Tropicana', some even saying, according to Lou, that it's the greatest phono in history.

Trimount Automatic's 40th Anniversary bash at the Blue Hills Country Club last week drew 370 guests for dinner. Hundreds turned out onto the golf course during the day, according to sales manager Marshall Caras. In a phrase, it was an appropriate tribute to Trimount's founder Dave Bond, who himself, is a tribute to the industry. Pictures and a story on the all-day affair will be in next week's Cash Box.

Gerard Thibault, who has been distributing the Scopitone audiovisual machine in Canada for the last three years, says he is delighted with operator response and predicts that the device will be the rage of 1964/65. . . . Sol Tabb of Mar Tab Vending, Miami based operation, happy with his company's growth in recent months and also with the modern design of recently released phonographs. . . . George Rabin, of Jules Rabin Associates, reports that the pilot model of the 'Electro-Golf' machine, which is currently operating out at the Transportation and Travel Pavilion of the N.Y. World's Fair, says the machine has provoked much favorable reaction both from patrons and from visiting operators. The game utilizes both a coin mechanism to activate its complicated scoring apparatus and an attendant to dispense clubs and balls. Rabin contends that the 'Electro-Golf' is the closest to real golfing action yet conceived in a game. . . . Teddy Cohn, NYC distrib for DuKane's 'Ski 'N Skore' machine, which is also on display-operation at the T & T Pavilion, reports that he's already taken some orders for the device and will be shipping as soon as the factory goes into full production.

Many ops up and down the coast are buzzing with speculation on the proposed juke box-royalty bill HR 11947, and waiting for further word to come from Congress. . . . Sophie Selinger and Ben Chicofsky of the Music Operators of N.Y. are currently selling advertising space for their forthcoming association journal to be issued at the Sept. Nevele outing, and don't they come on like class Madison Ave. hustlers. . . . Gil Baily, president of the Music Operators of Virginia expects a fine turnout at their upcoming annual convention to be held at Norfolk's John Marshall Hotel Nov. 20-21.

Eric Bernay of A-1 Record Sales reports on those records hot with his music ops. The following disks as among the most popular: Dean Martin's 'Everybody Loves Somebody' on Reprise, 'Under The Boardwalk' by the Drifters on Atlantic, 'Because' by the Dave Clark Five on Epic and the Jelly Bean's hit of 'I Wanna Love Him So Bad' on Red Bird. . . . Si Redd of Redd Distributing, is currently commuting between the firm's headquarters in Watertown, Mass. and his summer place on Cape Cod. Si reports that there's no place like the Cape anytime, especially during the summer, for rest, relaxation and enough time to plan ahead toward a big fall sales push. Also hitting the Cape on a regular weekend basis is Si's right hand man Bob Jones who also keeps a place on the popular vacation spot.

Hank Swartz, executive vice president of Cinevision, Inc., is off to Hawaii for a little vacationing. . . . Alvin Malnik, of Scopitone USA and Bill Steiger, president of Tel-A-Sign, major Scopitone controling firm, were huddling during last week's sensational Scopitone reception held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

MOA managing director Fred Granger announced last week that two more record companies have announced their intention to exhibit at the October MOA convention and show, bringing the list of recording company exhibitors to eight. Howard Cook, director of public relations for Colpix Records has notified MOA, Granger reported, that they will also exhibit. Granger further advised that Leonard S. Levy, Epic Records general manager, also informed the national association that Epic will also be an exhibitor. Granger reported that Norman Morgan, manager of the long time MOA exhibitor Star Title Strip Company, has again announced his intended participation, and has been assigned a booth in the record company section. While en route to California last weekend, Granger said he expected to call on MOA director Peter Geritz, of Mountain Distributors in Denver, to promote association memberships in that area.

U.S. Billiards, of Amityville, N.Y., has been added to the list of exhibitors in the amusement machines section of the show, according to president Al Simon. The pool table manufacturer has been in the process of expanding its facilities at Amityville and Simon advised that a formal statement detailing the factory's improvements and additions will be released shortly. Meanwhile, Harry Koeppel, engineer down at Simon's distrib on Tenth Ave. states that service problems on the Rock-Ola 'Grand Prix' have been nil and the machine has been "a complete pleasure to be handling."

Music ops with machines in military locations, either in town or directly on the base, can obtain copies of the Special Forces Prayer, recorded by the Gierlach Male Chorus. MusicMusicMusic Inc. has copies at no charge for those who request them. Write to the firm at 249 East 48th Street in NYC.

Millie McCarthy has announced that the New York State Coin Machine Association will hold its annual meeting Thursday, September 17, at 2 PM. Dinner will be served at 6:30 PM on the Starlite Roof of the Sheraton Inn located at 111 East Ave., Rochester, New York. Last year's meet in Albany was a valuable one. This year's should top it for interest considering the recent trouble in Rochester where ops reportedly were stricken vitally by rioters during those outbreaks of two weeks ago.

And as we celebrate the 22nd Anniversary of Cash Box, publishing what we sincerely believe is the industry's finest trade directory, we are moved to reflect on the number of Eastern Flashes columns which have been written since the first one saw the light of print. This thought prompts all of us to thank everyone who has made these columns possible. Let's hope that in the issues to come, the news will be only heartening and the people who answer to the names, healthy.

Chicago Chatter

Congratulations and accolades have been pouring in wishing the Cash Box staff well on this eventful 22nd anniversary of publication from coinmen and vending people from all over this area. (Many thanks!) . . . After a hectic month Keeney prexy Art Weinand has just about completed the big move of all Keeney production facilities to the vast Hershey-Jennings building on the far west side of Chicago. It will still take a while until J. H. Keeney & Co's. production rolls along at full speed.

A visitor in Chi last week was Bill Herbord, of Automatic Products Co. Herbord's conducting sales-service sessions on smokeshop's 'starlite'. . . . Empire Coin's Jack Burns informs that Tim McGraw, who operates coin machine equipment in the Champaign-Urbana (Illinois University) area, is recuperating well after a recent auto accident. While on the road Jack visited with Leo Remillard of Kankakee.

The D. Gottlieb plant is rolling along in heavy production on Gottlieb's new "Bowling Queen" single player flipper amusement game. . . . Rowe's Paul Huebsch reports that Bob Mac Gregor is vacationing and due back in his office next Monday.

Regional managers Bob Dunlap and Al Gange made the scene at the Seeburg factory last week. Vice prexy Mark Lefebvre jetted east last week with Bob Breither on an extended field trip. Stanley Jarocki advised that a new group of Seeburg van representatives was graduated t'other day. The men were assigned as follows: Gene Copher and Chuck Furjanic, to the New Orleans area; Mac Harbin went to Nashville; Warren Tillquist and Jerry Indik, to Seattle, Washington; Richard Yokley and Terry Trampler, Syracuse, N.Y.; Dale La Pedus and Peter Anderson, St. Louis; Tom Proffitt, San Antonio, Texas; Wilbur Rogozinski, Boston, Mass.; and Thomas Mulvihill to Denver, Colorado. There are experienced van men on hand to break in the newcomers on location. Stan again reminded that this van service is free to operators for direct location work.

We were escorted on a personally conducted tour of the Chicago Coin plant with Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff, and watched production lines pushing hard on ChiCoin's newest amusement games: "DeVille" shuffle alley, "Majestic", big ball bowler, and "Royal Flash" 2-player 5 ball game. All three games are being shipped out to ChiCoin distribs in quantity.

When we chatted with Bill DeSelm, United Mfg. sales chief, he informed that United's "Tiger" puck shuffle alley and "Thunder" big ball bowler are still in full production in the factory.

Although Edward G. Doris, executive vice pres., of Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., is generally the man-on-the-go, he's been on hand at the factory these past two weeks keeping an eye on production. . . . Ed Ruber and Milt Wiczer, of Wico Corp, last week announced the formation of Wico Canada, Inc., based in Montreal, Canada. The new firm, headed by coinvet Roger Laniel, will serve the Province of Quebec with a complete line of parts and supplies for the coin machine and vending trades.

When we chatted with Hank Ross and Marcine "Iggy" Wolverton, in their Midway Mfg. offices, we were advised that Midway's "Trophy Gun" is easily one of the biggest coin-operated amusement sellers they ever created. Sales, they say, are still zooming.

Sam Hastings, head of Hastings Dist. Co., in Milwaukee, and president of the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Assn., advised last week that the organization will hold its monthly meeting on Monday evening, Aug. 10, in the Ambassador Hotel. Attendance at these regular sessions is always good, and air conditioning should help to keep it that way these sweltering summer days, according to Sam.

John Stocksdale, of J. & J. Dists., in Indianapolis, returned t'other day after a delightful two week vacation. While he was away co-head Joe Flynn doubled in brass at the busy distrib. . . . Speaking of vacations, Stan Levin, of Atlas Music Co., finally took to the road with his family for his annual hiatus, according to Atlas Music prexy Eddie Ginsburg. . . . Irv (Kup) Kupcinet hosted a testimonial dinner Thursday, July 30, for sports tycoon Dave Trager in the Covenant Club.

Harold Schwartz, director of the music dept. of World Wide Distribs, advised last week that the northwest side firm recently completed a remodeling program, bringing most of the facilities from the upper floor to the first floor in order to facilitate and simplify dealing with visiting operators. Nate Feinstein, Irv Ovitz, Fred Skor and Harold all info that this new setup is a great improvement over the previous arrangement.

MOA managing director Fred Granger reports that Colpix Records and Star Title Strip recently sent in signed contracts as exhibitors at the upcoming MOA Convention. Fred was in contact with Howard Cook, of Colpix; and Norman Morgan, of Star Title Strip. Also, Al Simon, of U.S. Billiards, sent in his signed contract last week.

Over at Williams Electronic Mfg., sales chief Jack Mittel tells us "Heat Wave" flipper amusement game is still a "hot" seller in domestic and foreign markets. The plant is in heavy production. . . . Everyone at Bally Mfg. Co is getting excited about a new game (for export) called ((believe it or not) "Slot Machine" . . . Mort Levinson, of National Coin Machine Exchange, is elated about the new "Bowling Queen" single player amusement game released to the trade by the D. Gottlieb company. Mort, and prexy Joe Schwartz feel they have a local winner.

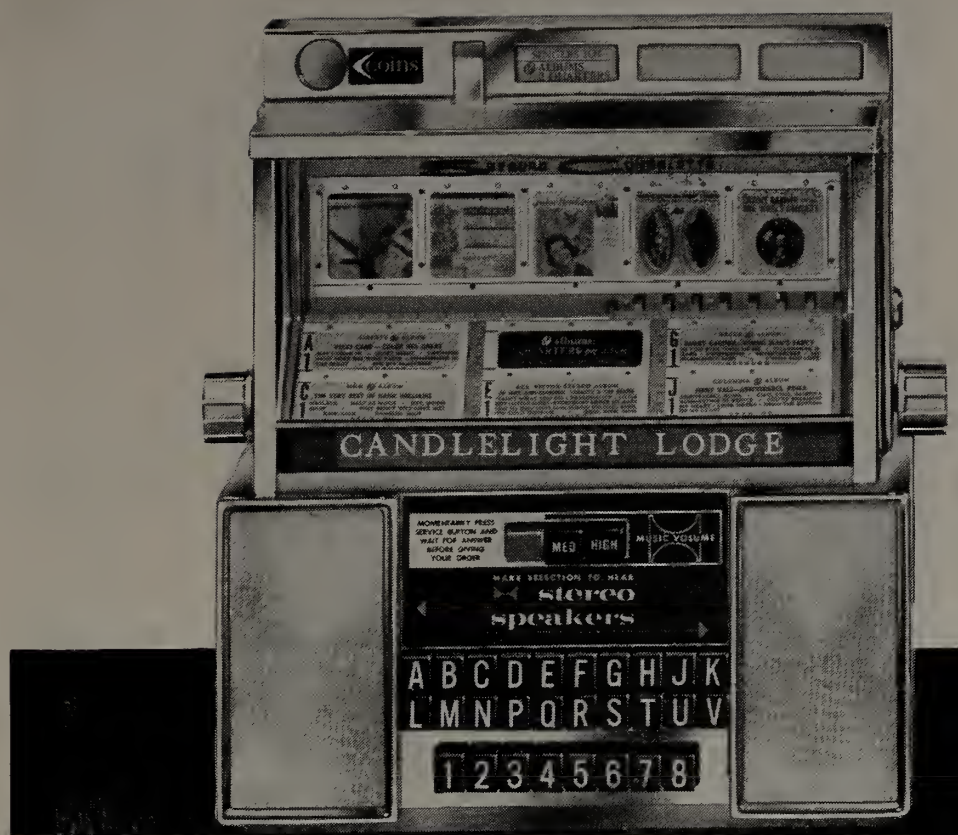
NEW FROM SEEBURG CON-COM



Now you can have your income and intercom, too—Thanks to this Seeburg innovation.

Seeburg's hard-working, compact, Stereo Consolette takes on yet another job—intercommunications. Now a location owner can receive his customers' orders via his profitable Consolette—without leaving the operational area, of his bar or kitchen.

Here's how Con-Com works: The customer merely presses the red button on his Consolette when he wishes to order (if music is playing, it is automatically muted). This turns on a light at master station and causes buzzer to sound. The attendant at master station can, by using "talk" button or footswitch, talk to the customer, and take his order.

When finished, the attendant may go on to the next station requiring service as designated by the signal light or push the release button which returns master unit to "standby". Attendant immediately knows which Consolette is calling by key lighting on master unit.

Con-Com will further increase the earnings of the Stereo Consolette by introducing new players to the coin-operated music system. As patrons use the Consolette for ordering, they are naturally attracted to the musical offerings on this unique music-communications system. Con-Com will definitely enable music operators to secure better commission arrangements with locations.

Compact, reliable Con-Com can easily be installed to operate through present Stereo Consolettes.

It's an Income-Producing Stereo Consolette
It's a time and money-saving intercom system

ChiCoin Intros Pin, Shuffle, Bowler

CHICAGO — Sam Wolberg and Sam Gensburg, co-heads of Chicago Dynamic Industries, Incorporated, in this city, announced the introduction to the coin machine trade last week of three new Chicago Coin amusement games — "Royal Flash" two-player pinball amusement game, "DeVille" puck shuffle bowling alley, and "Majestic" big ball, automatic bowling lane.

"Royal Flash" is a two-player pinball amusement game, utilizing a playing card motif, stressing flash-action scoring on the playfield and light box. There are four flippers on the playfield which can be used with skill shooting for a "Royal Flash" score. The four flippers direct the balls at the targets to help the player complete a winning hand. A special rollover button is adjustable for the first, third, or fifth balls. There are two side-scoring and four fast-action pop bumpers.

"Royal Flash" has a modern, highly-styled cabinet with a stainless steel trimmed score frame and metal corners to prevent damage. Also, on the cabinet, at the front, there are "Cycolac" plastic hand rests, and an exclusive "Lift-Out" self-locking playfield, which provides instant access to the interior, with the use of no screens or levers. This new ChiCoin amusement two-player is also available in an "Add-A-Ball" model upon request.

Chicago Coin's new "DeVille" six-player puck shuffle bowler is attractively housed in a high-styled contemporary cabinet, with a wider and higher playfield for added player appeal. The bowling games to play are: "Spare-Lite," "Spot-Lite," and "Step-Up."

In "Spare-Lite" scoring game directional arrows on the playfield light up to show the player where to aim to pick up each spare. "Spot-Lite" is the game the professional bowlers call "shadow bowling." It is played with no pins showing on the playfield. The player aims for the strike spot. If the strike is missed the "Spare-Lite" directs the player's aim for the spare.

"Step-Up" is a high scoring bowling game where strike and spare scores advance and change in values frame-by-frame. In addition, "DeVille" features "Add-A-Frame," "Flash-O-Matic," and "Regulation" scoring.

The "Majestic" big ball, automatic bowling lane, offers the operator instant easy access for servicing the mechanisms.

The playfield is "super-Quiet," by virtue of a completely cork insulated, rubber mounted lane. Playfield sizes are: 13, 16, and 21 foot lengths. There is a recessed rubber shinguard at the front of the cabinet for the player's comfort.

$20 Per Location Vending License Rescinded In L.A.

CHICAGO—Efforts by National Automatic Merchandising Association to favorably revise a sharply increased license fee schedule on food and beverage venders in Los Angeles County have been successful, reports Sidney S. Kallick, NAMA western office manager and counsel.

The schedule, prompted by a recent merger of the Los Angeles city and county health departments, became effective July 1, 1964 and meant that operators would have to pay $20 for every location in which soft drink, coffee or food machines were situated. For most operators, this meant a $10 to $20 per machine fee.

"If left unchanged, such a schedule could have cost area vending companies several hundred thousand dollars a year and certainly would have dealt a mortal blow to many smaller operators while causing serious economic problems for larger companies," Kallick said.

The "unfair" schedule replaced a previous $3 per machine health permit in the city of Los Angeles and a $2 per machine fee in the county. The latest ruling, a major victory for the vending industry, calls for a permit of $20 per company plus $3 for food and beverage venders. "Since Los Angeles County is referred to by the other counties in the state for fee information, the new fee structure should benefit operators statewide," Kallick added.

The new fee resulted from a series of conferences between Kallick and the county's chief administrator which culminated in a favorable recommendation to the county Board of Supervisors. The board accepted the recommendation and enacted the change late this month, retroactive to July 1.

A Year Of Growth For Ainsworth

LONDON—For Ainsworth Consolidated (G.B.) Ltd. it has been a year of still further expansion and continued rising sales. The company has removed to much larger premises of some 7,000 square feet comprising a suite of offices, showrooms, service section, storage room etc. enabling the company to carry a much larger stock of Aristocrat machines. During the 1963/64 period the new Aristocrat Nevada was introduced, first in September at the Club Trade Fair and later at Blackpool and London.

An important feature of the Nevada Gold Star is the visible, self-loading, double-dropping jackpot.

Sales have continued to increase for the Aristocrat 1d play Arcadians together with the original Starlite models.

During a recent visit to London, Len Ainsworth, Chairman of the Ainsworth Airstocrat group of companies, told Cash Box "Business is developing as expected and the company will continue to expand steadily to the benefit of manufacturers, distributo and operators alike." He also repor that owing to the tremendous increa in business in Nevada U.S.A. t company has opened a depot a registered office in Las Vegas wh now gives the Ainsworth group ope tional centres in London, Sydney a Las Vegas.

Ditchburn Progresses In Phonos & Vending

LONDON—The fact that during the past twelve months the Ditchburn Organisation founded in 1947, has become a public company, serves to emphasise their progress and ultimate emergence as the largest distributors of automatic phonographs in Great Britain today. It may also be added that when the company was floated the initial allocation of shares were six times over subscribed. Sole importers for the Wurlitzer product a highlight of the Ditchburn year was the introduction of the new Wurlitzer 2800 and more recently the Wurlitzer Lyric. It has also been a year of progress for the Ditchburn vending machine and background music units. In the latter category the Ditchburn manufactured Symphonaire is claimed to have around five percent of the background music market in this country and the company has its sights trained at a much greater percentage in the very near future.

The Symphonaire has a continuous-loop-tape-cartridge unit each cartridge providing four hours continuous music. The system also incorporates four public address facilities and can play either records or radio.

During the past twelve months Mr. Michael Town, Ditchburn's Sales Director, made an extensive tour of the United States visiting San Francisco, Chicago and New York to study the equipment and methods used in the background music field. Naturally Town's tour took him to the Wurlitzer plant in North Tonawanda where he had discussions with the General Plant Manager Mr. Roy Waltemade. During his American trip Town visited The World's Fair and had meetings with Ditchburn's music suppliers, National Musitime Corporation, as well as with Jack Prygoff and Larry Meyers of National Sound Systems Inc.; Isaac Edelman of Cine-Sonic Sound Inc. and Bill Chapman of World Music Corporation.

British Scopitone Agents Cite Success For 1964

LONDON—Norman Miller, Director of Radiovision, the British agents for Scopitone, is delighted with this year's progress. A recent boost to sales came when the BBC decided to use a Scopitone visual box in their top weekly TV disk show "Juke Box Jury." First introduced as an experiment it has now become a regular feature of the show and a string of films by British recording stars are being lined up. For any American company able and willing to produce up-to-the-minute films by American disk stars suitable for use in visual boxes, is assured of European distribution and exposure both by television and by Scopitone machines on regular locations. Scopitone are now exploring the advertising possibilities of the medium and already several agencies have shown considerable interest. Over 100 Scopitone boxes have been installed in the British Isles during the past twelve months. Taking into account that there are approximately 25,000 sound boxes on location, the manufacturers of Scopitone confidently look to the day when it will be possible to have some 3000 visual boxes in operation.

Halel Scores With Mills And Nix-Pix

LONDON—Halel Enterprises, under Hal Eldridge, has had a progressive year, making inroads into the British market with the latest Mills machines and also with the Nix-Pix lock made by the Solon Super Lock Co. of America. Described as an operator's dream the Nix-Pix is a combination lock with one key fitting up to 100 boxes, all with different combinations.
